SHAK ORLANDO(24/01/94)

hello world! ! ! im shak...not THE shak just shak. Im a writer and i like to right only out of emotion. see ya.

A 'New Moon' Poem

i hear nothing but your voice whispering in my ear begging for me to wake and survive pain flows through every bone stabbing at my heart it is slowing now i cant see anything my vision is blinded by the blood you pick me up as the rain starts to fall the rain hits my face, cold, wet and running like tears the smell of cool air freezing of my muscles tinging against my face im falling in and out of consciousness i breathe in once more release.
i let go of your hand my strength has fallen as my eyes close for sure this time my breathing has finally stopped just let me go my pain has faded ill sleep forever

Black Days

i wake in the morn feeling sober what has just happened to the sunrise? why am i thinking that life's over? am i just dreaming while my eyes cry?

blackened days are- so uneasy if you're not near- i'll be sad no one's with me- so please come save me i make an effort to show sadness they all think that i am just fine they cannot see that i am bleeding they cannot feel what i am feeling

Heart Wrecked

i know that i have lost you for real- this time i am so torn as i walk sadly- back home sure i have found that forever has left i'll see things change but ill never forget and as i walk on my own i guess i have been heart wrecked and while i cannot survive i miss your voice of out cry i seem to feel i am not worth it- to you i dont know why i am still waiting- for you saved in your arms now i cannot remember my dreams end but if you still love me then i guess- i still do too

Invisibility

im in pain suffocating the brain serotonin is running low feeling dead on one last breath deafened by the loud tv drowning sorrows while i make tea as if the truth now hits me realise now hes leaving me partial absence hurts the heart wanna drown die in my dreams wishing i had who i need never there, invisibility existence, never lifes never better wanna frown hes never there, invisibility

Little Star

Know i am yours till i die till the ending till the flowers never bloom till life gets dark and ill be your little star and when im going but youll remember all the times well never die cause youre the love for me you are the one for me and i promise more than youve ever needed and i am yours have my heart, you keep it.

Lost In Amnesia

i cant really remember the reason im sadder all of the time ive tried to make it all better worse like the weather the reason has just died hey please can you make me smile bring me the sunshine light up my life if so give me the pleasure of making this measure really worth while im not all that

so i...
i just cant be without you do you think i am boring nothing exciting nothing to hide slowly im falling to pieces in my own silence im dying inside

so i...

One More Day

if one more day breaks us in shadows in one last kiss can take our pain if a steady silence can hold a moment our eyes can meet in a gaze so much emotion so little confusion so little time to make things right say the words we wish to hear in whispers quietly in my ear magic lights this room as my lips gently place on yours my body curls up in your arms protecting like a shield tightness fills my heart redness fills my love heart describing emotions bring brightness into the dark

Reliving This Pain

We've been arguing all day We speak of hatred words Expressions are not blank Full of pain and anger most Stabbing words flow out of your mouth But when I speak I stumble Lost for words and thought Our feelings are unspeakable I manage to spit some words out But they don't make much sense My voice is now a whisper Because I'm scared of what you'll think My sorrow is probably helpless I've hurt you too many times Somehow I'm wishing you'll forgive me But I know I'm wishing deaf and blind Forgiveness is not an option You're prepared to get up and leave All I can do is beg Place myself upon my knees

In your eyes I don't see anything Not a reason for sympathy There are only feelings that you feel Ones I don't know how to read In my head I'm only thinking Is this how I'm supposed to feel?
Full of pain? Dead?
And having him not next to me?
So many reasons are being thought Why I don't want to let you go But I cannot speak
As the pain continues to flow You've given back my only gift I feel there is no hope I put my hands over my eyes Now I feel my hands begin to soak For the first time I'm really crying I'm letting out all the pain

I sit here for a minute Trying to keep myself sane I cannot handle this awful scene I don't want you to see me like this I get up and walk away Hoping you don't follow me I sit on the other side Hiding away like a deer hiding from the lion But I hear your footsteps I know you hear me crying I realise it's just not worth it If you see me cry it's not going to change your mind I'm not just going to sit here acting like I'm doing fine

You take it upon yourself
And put the gift back around your neck You place your hands gently on my shoulders And assure me it is not the end yet
And speak the words I don't remember First thing I'm crying all alone Now your arms are surrounding me like shelter You take me back around Place me on a step next to you Cover your arms around my body I place my head on your knees to cry into Throbbing pain is hurting me everywhere I know it's not going to leave Give me an hour to cry and get back off my knees I'm trembling with pain My face is probably red My eyes are feeling sore But I'm not finished crying yet I get up once more You release your hands from around me I go to take a walk Give me a minute to breathe I slowly hear you coming I feel your hands around my waist I turn around But cannot look you in the face I wrap my arms around you Place my head into your chest Tears are soaking through Blinding me from this mess Three words I've been longing to hear all day The words I've just heard you said Let's me know we're okay But I still breakdown instead I don't want you to hold me You realise I'm trembling bad Something is terribly wrong In my head it's like an attack If you weren't still holding me I'd probably let go I'd fall on my knees

But happiness would just not grow I release myself Leave your arms yet again Instead of residing in happiness I'm wishing for my death

You touch me again
And this time I'm scared Moving away slightly But you place your lips upon my head Every touch is like a knife Waiting to inflict pain on my skin I'm not thinking clearly enough This carefulness has just begun I'm thinking to myself Why would I think he'll hurt me?
This pain has been brought up And its pain I now feel physically You take me away Keeping your hands around my waist We walk back together Wishing we do not live that pain another day Everything has calmed down now But here I still stand trembling in this twist Your lips touched mine slowly before But really felt like a fist

That agonized, painful

Weakening and despicable day is nearly over Although I'll never forget the day That you almost walked away forever I sit here in my room Writing this sick and terrible poem Each word that is written is meant like I'm reliving this day Completely over and over I want to talk
I want to cry
Hold me in your arms again This poem is all the pain I feel inside Reliving these painful memories

Sunset Falls

i watched the sunset fall i was alone, i had no where to go i had just been told these awful dreams they come alive from stone i watched them talk for days over how we cannot see the peace begging on my knees but for nothing he just stares at me im left alone, no where to go as sunset falls, im dreaming he'll always lay beside to watch her sleeping he'll stand there in the rain to see her smiling she cant leave knowing that she'll always love him days end, the sunset falls i watched the sunrise die i was so close to letting time go by woke up from the lies believing that you were no longer mine silence fills the night where am i and whats caught on my mind as we turn back time but for something he's still part of me part of my dream, as i fall asleep

i heard his heart beating as he lay there all so close to me thats when i believed our sunset fall, our sun just rise up

Unknown Emotion

this weird feeling flowing through my veins hate and anger but not wanting any pain i sit here casted by your glaze killing some time and arguing at this feeling i dont mean to hurt you i dont like to see you cry i just need time alone dont hold me while i cry ive lost so many people without you id have nobody confused and hurt im screaming for somebody

White Bird

somehow i really cant now im falling apart my tears are undead and though i cant see right now im saying this and laying free how long ive got till im set free ive been waiting forever so it seems and im not feeling love and will you fly away from me?

leave me some peace

somehow ive cast a shadow i close my eyes, ive lost all sorrow and i am so alone now can you save my dead cold heart?
