Do You Care?

Do you care?

Do you care about me?

Do you know how i feel?

Do you care what i am thinking or do you even care about my feelings or the hurt i feel inside?

No one even knows how bad i hurt inside all my feelings just collide as i hide.

Do you know i am suffering from pain and being hurt all the time?

Do you really even know me all you can probably do is see me!

No one really knows me all i do is hide and let my feelings get worse.

I just want for you to see how i feel all the time and how bad i hurt inside and why i always hide....

For Me To Know

For Me To Know

I say i wont but i will

I say i don't but i do

I say i need but i want

I say no but i mean yes

Should i confess, I always stress or let you guess?

Should i give up yes or no?

I am barley hanging on and I don't know where I will go from here or if my face will even show....

But that's for me to know and you to guess...

Its now your turn to stress..
