A Bank Teller Name Crystal

When I go to the bank
My heart rocks and rocks
When I see pretty teller Whose name Crystal
When I want get some money
She is sweeter than honey
When I want to make a deposit
She gets the transaction fast With beautiful radiant smile and cheerful look on her face Whom you else you guess
She is the wonderful Crystal

A Universe Is Born

Before the time ever existed Before the sun and the moon the earth, Jupiter and Mars Before the universe galaxies Before we ever have existed Before life at all we know Lays the universe deep mystery Story of great tremendous explosion Full of power and really spectacular Reverberates expanding and spinning Then stars and galaxies were born
The bright quasars and supernova
All race in the virgin new space
The time clock clicks super fast
Our fabulous universe is created

Adam And Eve Apple Fantasy

I am a bit bored Adam
I am a bit bored Eve
Let's walk leisurely in the garden
This beautiful garden of Eden
It is the middle of the day Adam
It is the middle of the day Eve
Our tummies are hungry and empty Let's have something to eat Look Adam my dear honey How wonderful this fruit tree
Oh this beautiful large Apple
No Eve this is the tree of knowledge Look Eve there is sign in the sky Can't you see? The Lord command Don't eat from the apple tree
Ha Ha Ha
Who is that?
I am serpent of the garden
Listen Adam and Eve Go pick the big shiny apple Adam my honey do you hear me?
My stomach is aching Go get me this wonderful apple Eve I would not disobey the Lord
Oh Adam, oh honey
Do not seduce me Eve Ooh Adam, Ooh Eve Something happened after we ate this forbidden apple open both our eyes, hurry Let's get some fig leaves It is time to get some rest to lay down under shaded tree Adam let's have lovely babies Eve let's have many and many Adam and Eve oh oh Let's fill our new world

Adam And Eve Love Story

Adam and Eve love story is a legend
A story written in golden letters Thousands and thousands years ago in time immemorial forgotten
The greatest love story took place In paradise, Adam enjoyed all the pleasure
In his heart, something was always missing Adam searched around in no avail
It was an early morning sunny day
In midst of trees and behind the fog
On top of the hill a figure appeared Adam approached it slowly and quietly Thoughts floated in his mind wildly the moment when he saw wonderful beauty Shining radiating smile of young lady Adam said hello I am Adam
I am Eve she sweetly answered Extending their arms they embraced
The story of eternal love began The sparks of happiness were ignited Adam felt not lonely anymore
His wildest dreams were fulfilled
Since that unforgettable day Adam and Eve were always together
In the paradise, there were lakes and rivers Gardens of shaded trees and fields of flowers Fruits of all kinds of tastes and shapes Adam watched Eve fondly one spring day
She was taking a bath and swimming happily Eve caught Adam glancing behind the bushes
She laughed and he was truly embarrassed Eve loved walking between roses and flowers Adam loved picking fruits from the trees Eve had long shiny hair which Adam admired Adam had muscular body which Eve loved One bright day Adam brought fresh fruits Eve looked unhappy and complained She whispered to Adam very softly Adam, I do not want these fruits

Eve said look down there at this tree
There is a shiny apple that I want Underneath the tree there was devil snake
He played tricks and had evil persuasions Adam and Eve were foolishly deceived
The events since then developed swiftly
The happy fortunes of Adam and Eve were over What exactly have happened next?
In the holy books you can find

Adam And Eve Paradise Wedding

It is the last day of paradise Adam and Eve have a busy day
For departure from paradise
For new life in some brand world
It is the happy celebration night
There will be Adam and Eve wedding
It should be fabulous merry night
The birds conveyed the news all over Singing and flapping their wings
It is Adam and Eve wedding night
Let's have fun and great food Let's have beautiful music and dance
All are heading towards the wedding
The bears and the camels
The horses were first to arrive
The unlucky turtles were the last The stars of the fable night were the groom and bride Adam and Eve Eve dress was all flowers and roses
Adam all in green with exotic tree leaves After dinner the festival of music began
The birds joyous in spirit sweetly sang
The lions roared majestically loud Sounding like large French horn
The foxes and wolves barked as musical bassoon
The cats followed meow, meow in rendition
The elephants sounded like drummers
They banged the tree logs with their trunks
The horses danced and pranced around The fish, red, brown and silver swam in groups Displaying beauty around the sparking lakes
The monkeys unruly jumped all over the place
The donkeys mercifully kept silent and quiet Fun, fun and fun all through the night When the night was almost over all departed quickly and very happily For Adam and Eve what a fanciful day they had Crowning their special wedding night wonderful dreams of new future life

Agony Of Life

The story of my life
My days pass slowly
My days are hallow
My night is despair
My smile is fake
My thoughts are scattered My tongue is tied
This may change
When the day is filled with happiness and pleasure when I feel proud When I feel honor
When I stand on my feet
When my head looks up When I march with glory Wonderment in my eyes Then moments of sadness tell my life agony
What will come?
What will happen?
Scared from future Asking heaven above for some mercy and little help

Albert Einstein Dreams

The great scientist Albert Einstein
Born in Germany the at the city of Ulm
At banks of blue river Danube in Bavaria
He dreamed to live in peace and harmony
In his loved much motherland country
His dreams were cut short at that time
There was lot of turmoil taking place Adolph Hitler seized power as Fuehrer
His party espoused super nationalism Albert Einstein scared fled to Austria
He worked at patent office in Vienna Scientific inquiries were his passion
He thought to combine laws of nature
He developed the theory of relativity
A master great achievement of physics He tied mass, energy and speed of light in amazing simple mathematical relation The consequence of discovery is awesome
It is window humanity for great benefit For abundant of energy by nuclear means However destruction, and annihilation through sure weapons of atomic bombs This is great story of twenty century scientific giant Albert Einstein who finally lived and died in America

All Together Jump

Penelope, Penelope
Jump the long rope Horsey horse jumpy jump Horsey horse let's have fun Monkey, monkey jump from tree to tree Catch nuts and chewy chew Ballerina, ballerina jump with style
Let's your partner go wild Andy the swimmer jump off the board Splash the water and have great show
One, two, three,
One, two, three,
High, high, high

All Yellow

Yellow for for color the fruit lemon for the sun shining rays at sunrise for the golden crowns of kings and queens for the sunflower and marigold flowers for the astonishing happy yellow roses for the autumn tree yellow leaves for the wheat glittering in the fields for the endless sands and dunes in plains for the beautiful little yellow birds now you love this wonder yellow color it is celebrated in ancient legends and adored in many nations flags

American Holidays

There are many holidays in America
All over the days of the calendar Designated for different occasions for reminders or joyful celebrations
There are some few most loved ones
The fourth of July for the country independence
The parades, fireworks, cookouts and picnics
The Thanksgiving for the harvest abundance
At the early times of pilgrims settlers
When they met the Plymouth native Indians
With all the feast and hospitality In our times Thanksgiving is among family friends and special gatherings
The thanksgiving has great traditions of turkey dinner with all trimmings the treat of cherry and pumpkin pies Christmas is the holiday on December 25 for gifts to family and dear ones for bright decorations and Christmas trees
The Santa Claus with red dress and white beard
A special season for love and peace on earth
For beautiful songs and chorales
For prayers to all the world
For soon a joyous new year

Another Day Of Life

The sun is rising again
It is another bright day

The light is a gift of God
A guiding source for our life

Life can be happy and joyful Life can be pain and hurtful

Accept life as it comes Do not feel unhappy and sad

Life is a lonely ship Sailing in sea of time

Once you reach your destination the trip is soon abruptly over for now and for every day to come Thank God for your precious life

Apple A Day

Yummy, Yummy apple a day sweetly, tasty, surely

Green, red and yellow All taste so delicious

Gala? Fuji? Granny Smith?
Cold sparkling apple juice

Cold and hot apple cider?
Crunchy, Munchy, and sugary

Mammy, Mammy apple pie
Take a slice and not cry

Ooh, ooh apple we love you
We adore all your varieties

Sure, sure the secret way for happy joyous long life to have an apple a day and keep the doctors away

Sherif Monem

Apples, Eia, Eia, Ooh

Sir Isaac Newton ate an apple
Eia, eia oh
The apple was yummy, yummy it filled his tummy
Eia, eia oh
Sir Isaac Newton said with all certainty
The apple fell because of nature force
He called it the earth gravity
Eia, eia oh
Adam and Eve walked in the garden
They ate an apple from the tree
Eia, eia oh
What happened after that it is for me and you to wonder think, ponder and inquire
Eia, eia oh
Robin Hood shot the apple Straight with an arrow
Eia, eia oh
He stole from the rich and gave to the poor
He felt no sorrow or pity His exploits were legendary
Eia, eia oh
Robin Hood stories always told Yesterday, today and tomorrow
Some admire and others abhor
Eia, eia oh
Dr. Jolly Bean of Sweden Gave his patients advice Eating an apple a day Will make you happy and keep the sickness away
Eia, eia oh
Old granny cooked apples She made hot cider drink and gave it to snowman
Eia, eia oh

At The Deep Of Night

At the deep of the night you lost all your sleep

Are you thinking of me Did your feeling of love have took hold of you?

Do you feel awakening from bed and on your phone calling me Do you wish to fall sleep but you can't Wait before the day twilight's breaks you will feel exhausted and will fall asleep Then at the morning sunrise

I will call you awakening you from your broken dreams and just tell you 'I love you too' Have beautiful day

Autumn Months

The lovely pretty autumn months without fanfare have arrived Announcing marvelous new season
The sunny autumn will be coming crowned with great splendor when nature splashes its beauty like bride at her wedding night The colorful joyful foliage will be in panoramic display There will be some other trees shedding their crisp leaves like hot tears saying farewell to the summer months that ran away it is the ever year life cycle of days, months and seasons they revolve like a carousel in a crowded amusement park We are all going for a ride in an eternal mystery journey through the caravan of years

Beach In Summer

It is summer time very special in the year
It is fun time and enjoyment of sunny days

I like to go to the beach for relaxation Watching the lovely girls strolling by Laying down on the glazing golden sand Enjoying the breeze and the sunshine

Having cool drinks and little snacks Running to the crystal blue ocean shore

Splashing the water and jumping around
As the waves approach with white foam

Oh' I like the precious summer time When girls wear their colorful bikinis

Having fun, fun, and more fun
Some enjoying the beach sports

Playing volleyball and basketball Throwing the balls to one another

Oh' these precious times at the beach
I enjoy them and wish they last forever

Beauty Not Forever

Beauty will not last forever Will the shining light of the sun all around last forever?
Will the silver moon rays last forever?
Will the red roses bloom forever?
Time moves around and the clock ticks Time never stands idly still Beauty is delight for all of us
A sensation and gift for the heart
As sign of youth reaches its peak beauty gradually is robbed away
The biological clock moves fast
Our body strength and vigor decline
The shadow of mortality dances around So now enjoy the beauty and its glamour Remember however it is a just a page As of many pages in book of life it will one day turn and be closed

Beethoven Symphony Eroica

Beethoven third symphony
A Beethoven masterpiece
The First Movement
The music starts softly and gently
It picks soon with full force
In charm awakening
With the orchestra in full display Loud with majestic power
We are overwhelmed
No place to go
We are exhausted
He relieves us now
With soft melody that follows
He has full master command
The music comes quick in flurry with persistent repetition
We are whipped with emotions
The music comes back again and again In fresh beautiful succession
Like a boy coming hurriedly in the field
The old tunes come back Haunting us in familiar rhythm
It is over and over again Filling and nourishing our soul
Some sound comes again
From far away Like someone we knew Calling us softly Gently and beautifully Racing and touching our hearts
The old familiar tune Comes back and back again Teasing us With power Hurriedly closing on us
The music casts some sadness
The familiar tune comes back Full of charm

Second Movement 17.42 / 52.01

A faint sad sound
So sad
Like funeral procession
The same tune comes back dressed in sadness
Revival the music comes strong

Third Movement 30.51 / 52.01

The old tune revives back In full force with energy With tunes of warning and destiny
Some sadness tunes
Goes deep in our hearts Crushing us Dwelling in us again Mercy
Is there hope?

Fourth Movement 37.21 / 52.01

The movement in full elegance
So Happy tune finally appears A relieve The tune comes back again
In happy setting
It is getting louder
And majestic

A new tune 42 / 52.01 Taking us by surprise
The tune dominating all We are taken to the wilderness
Now where we go
We need guidance
Nibbling music

The music has died out

The faint tune in the background Oh revived a hurried tune it comes back all in force, strong oh the main theme bringing joy

the music instruments bring announcement talking to us in language we do not understand then it is all beginning same thing all again
to a loved tune strange change of music curious steps like a sleuth and echoing drum beats as the end nears very joyful music comes along to wipe the stress of past harsh suspense tunes the music crashing

the trumpets are loud the old tune comes teasing us like flute in prairie Mysterious tune
Like the awakening of the morning
So melodious and deep Going fast like streaming river And there is The calmness of early morning
What we expect Leaving us in wilder expectation
The orchestra in full force
The repercussion instruments
In control

The French horn Angry music comes in warning
A new tune is born Sad melody
Music comes like small wavelets in the ocean
The old tempo
Comes back in hurry and energetic Like celebration
Like walking in the woods

Beautiful soft tune
It is all over
The symphony in all power
And fury in closing

Sherif Monem

Before You Go Away

Kiss me sweet goodbye Rekindle the love that once filled our hearts wipe my misty eyes Bring the memories of time that passed When songs of happiness
We heard on the harp
The memory of love that once swept us like waves of the ocean
The love that nourished our hungry empty souls
The love that was adorned by roses and flowers So before you go away give me another kiss give me another hug touch my hands and say goodbye

California, California

California is a great state
The most populous in the nation
The land of the past and future
The land of the fruits and nuts
It has long spectacular history From the sudden gold rush frenzy to the space age and technology it is real large and very huge it stretches from beautiful San Diego to the exotic city of San Francisco from Mexican border in the south to the green Oregon in the north it offers lots of amusements and fun nice weather and splendid recreation great places for to visit and vacation from the hilly blue lake Tahoe to the Yosemite national park from the hot Mojave desert to the high Sierra mountains from the sprawling Inland Empire to the shores of Pacific ocean California has lots of people diversity great learning centers and universities it is famous for Hollywood and movies Disneyland and Knotts Berry farm Seaworld and the Animal kingdom
So California, California Open your welcome doors and here we all come

Call Me My Love

Call me my sweet love
I am very lonely tonight
I am dreaming to be with you My hands touching your hands Sitting close near you Whispering words of love
Call me my love
It has been sometime Since I gazed at your eyes
When I felt your presence
The happy moments of pleasure
Are you alright my love?
My love I miss you dearly
Call me my love
Waiting for my phone to ring to hear your wonder voice and to tell you I love you and I miss you so much Much more than I can describe

Sherif Monem

Careful Falling In Love

Don't fall in love so quickly
You may get hurt and soon regret Be vigilant, smart and resist
It is easy to fall in land of love
It may not be easy to get up again
You may get caught in the net
Like lonely fish in the ocean
Try to swim fast, to stay far Avoid the merciless net Put your heart and mind in sync Make the right decisions But foremost don't rush and be a sore lone loser

Sherif Monem

Cast Your Sorrows Away

Do not let your deep sorrows trap you and hamper your way
There will be sunshine tomorrow When the clouds of darkness disappear and fade away There will be happy times of sweet songs and dances Happy cheers and sweet glances The roses will smile at you
The birds in the sky will fly and sing joyful melodies for you So do not frown and draw grimaces Wipe the sadness on your face Because coming tomorrow there will be a beautiful day

Sherif Monem

Change

There always be a new beginning
There always be an ultimate end As there is a day and there is night
There is a moment of birth
There is a moment of death Nothing, ever, ever is permanent Nothing will remain the same
It is mystery of nature
It is mystery of universe Nothing will last forever
This may be bring some happiness
This may be bring some sadness
This is the story ever told Read the books of history Look at the mysterious sky Look at the far away stars Look every where around you Has anything never changed?

Charles Darwin

Famous Charles Darwin was talented extra adventurous bright young man
On the fabled majesty ship Beagle
He fared the great seas and lands
He observed the birds and fish
He studied the plants and mammals
After thorough long observations
He came with amazing conclusions
He claimed monkeys strangely enough
They are humans very ancient cousins
We together have common ancestors
He explained that with much fanfare
All species came about through evolution
It was a revolutionary surprising idea it brought shock and tremendous protests
The strict clergy did not like it a bit
They cried and fought it tooth and nail
To our days Darwin brings controversy
Some welcomed and accepted his theory Others sneer at evolution with rage They swear it is act of wicked Satan by God it is false and awful heresy

Chartering The Future Through The Fog

It is long journey of life Wading through thick fog it is misty it is dark

There are many tracks
There are many paths

When you pass one crossroad Soon there will be another chartering the way

Meet the challenges

So be determined Work as hard

Remove the hurdles pass the heavy fog

When you reach your objective Look back as you can

See how much you have traveled?
See how the world is clearer now?

Chocolate

Chocolate has special sweet magic you fell in love with it in a moment from first bite you feel euphoria it is a darling gift between lovers it is nice gift between friends the kids love it you can imagine the men and women the young and old all of us love it too all over the world they whisper Chocolat, Schokolade, Cioccolato shukulata, chokolade and choklad
They can be wrapped in silver foil
They can be wrapped in golden foil They can be plain dark and hard
They can be so soft and creamy Filled with nuts, caramel or raisins
For birthdays enjoy chocolate cakes So welcome, welcome all to the wonderful world of chocolate

Sherif Monem

Chocolate For Lovers

For my beautiful love
This Chocolate for you
On the Valentine's day
I send it with sweet message
You make me lose all my senses
Just thinking of you
So enjoy the chocolate Wrapped with happiness and whispering gentle words of love to you

Sherif Monem

Close The Door

Close the door after me
I will not be coming back I will be traveling to a world of unknown Flying in darkness
I can't see My senses will be numb
I will be sinking in oceans
I will revive and float again
I will be twisted around Vanishing in the space
So close the door again I will not be coming back home again

Sherif Monem

Cold Winter Night

It is cold, cold night
As one can imagine
There is no shining sun
There is no silver moon
The blanket of darkness covers over the place The thick mighty clouds spread over the skies above
The chilly wind fiercely blows One feels numb in this winter season
No more hot summer nights
No more spring flowers
No more autumn crispy nights
No birds singing and cheering
All around whispers silence
It is winter cold night

Sherif Monem

Cry Hubby Cry

Cry, cry and cry Cry, cry darling
I am not going to awake Cry, cry baby
Tomorrow I go to work Cry, cry honey
It is 3 o'clock in the morning
You want love?
No, no, no
Turn your back Hug the pillow and go to sleep

Sherif Monem

Dance Waltz With Me

Let us listen to The music melodies of the Blue Danube
Let's swing with joy Holding hands in hands Swirling around, around over the ballroom floor Let's have fast footsteps with delightful tap Let's listen to the clarinets and bassoons the oboes and trombone to the wondrous tunes
Let's float with the music
Like happy butterfly Let's dream we are on a boat streaming down the river

Sherif Monem

Dancing In The Moon Light

Dance, love and romance Turn on the music and let's dance Pour the Champagne in the glass
The moon is singing a serenade Listen to the music melodies and the joyful happy tunes Hold your partner closer Float around and around Tap your feet on the floor Follow the music soft beat Awake your inner dreams
Look at the silver bright moon Look at the lucky diamond stars shining in the dark night This panorama magnificent sky Feel the night chill the cool breeze Dance a bit closer feel your partner body warm Dance, all joy and romance to the late hours of the night to the wee hours of the morning Let the happy times roll by Hope and wish it never ends

Darwin

Darwin was young cool dude
He believed monkeys are cousins

We all have common ancestors time, time very long ages ago

He explained surprisingly
All species came about through evolution

It was a revolutionary idea

Divorce It Is Over

It is now all over Divorce is the end
The right decision
The final conclusion
No more misery
No more abuse
You are now free
The shackles of despair are broken
You are looking for new life
You fulfilled all obligations
Now the time to go as a free bird Love has been in long winding road
There has been no communication
No love and no romance
The blossom of love turns to ashes
No respect, kindness or care
No sweet talk or gentle touch
The happy times are gone far away Lost in the realities of the day
Now look around and search Search for new warm love Life is known to be short It is wise not to waste
These precious passing days
They do not come back again Life is precious treasure Don't look back at the past to be angry and despair Look forward with hope Seek a new future life Filled with happiness
The one you wish deserve to enjoy and fully embrace

Sherif Monem

Do Not Cheat On Me

I gave you my ever love
I fulfilled your dreams
I gave you most comfort
When you were tired
I opened my arms to you
I came right to help you When you needed me
I was there for you
You were jewel of my heart
So love me sincerely Love me abundantly
But don't cheat on me
Don't drift away
Don't go stray
My love will not remain Fight your unfaithful whims If you follow temptations an and not be faithful and try to cheat on me In moment I will leave you
I will be free and fly away

Sherif Monem

Do You Really Love Me?

Do you really love me
Do you really care

In your eyes lays a mystery
My eyes can't see

In your heart there is a secret
I wish you reveal

When you sigh and giggle
I am swept by wonderment

In oceans so deep In world I never been

So please tell me
So simple and so sweet

Do you really love me?
Do you really care?

Sherif Monem

Dream And Cry

Every day
I dream and cry
My true love comes by I hope one day
She hears my cry
And she comes And sits nearby Holding hands
And dream
Having great embrace
And dream again
Oh my love
Where are you?
I whisper your name
And still
I dream and cry

Sherif Monem

Dreams And Beauty

Dreams are flirting my heart Dreams are flirting my soul Dreams flirting my essence

They take hold of me When I see the garden of roses
they tease me

When I see the mountain tops When I see the bright skies

When I see the blue oceans
When I see the waves reaching the shore

Dreams cry and sound in my ears
When I see the birds singing

Flapping their wings and flying around the bushes and trees

Dreams come and go lot abound
When I see the beauty in the world

I feel it,
I cherish it

The joy of life overwhelms me and captures my whole being

Drink, Drink, Drink

Drink, Drink the cup of happiness Drink, Drink the cup of sorrows
You will never be filled
You will forever have thirst Drink at times of victories Drink at times of defeats Drink at the moments of joy Drink at the moments of sadness
The glittering cup of life Once full to the brim Is steadily been emptied memories pass fast randomly like flash Jumbo, jumble, jumbo forward and backward happy memory, sad memory you have no ever control The carriage of time takes you to all these far places And the grand place of all when you reach the final end When the carriage stopped
Your journey now have ended
Your cup glass is now empty
You do not need it crack it You just now became memory

Elephant Elephant

Elephant, elephant, elephant

You lovely mighty creature
The children fond of you

We all love you
So sweetly and adore

You little cute giant
All the day you are busy Munching bales of food nap and relaxing too

You have an awesome trunk one of a kind we all admire

You use it for drinking and helping to feed

You have ivory great tusks
You use it as a useful tool

You are a star of the circus
You perform great acts

You earn your dear wages
With bundles of sugar canes

Stacks of leaves and hay and sacks of peanuts

History wrote legends about you
As a leader in great battles

You were fearless and true warrior and enemy look at you with awe

In India they honor you and fancy you with roses

Sparkling colorful ornaments Dressing you beautiful garments

Some worship you and calling you
The wise powerful lord Ganesha

Enjoy Every Day Of Life

I feel my heart beating Through my lungs breathing
I am happily alive
I need to be going Enjoying every moment every day of life
The train can't stop
It is whistling
It is bristling
It is crossing valleys
It is passing mountains
It is day light
It is starry night
It is sunrise
It is sunset Enjoy every moment and every day of life

Farewell To The Year

A whole year is just about to pass
As many others have passed before January of new year is coming Saying farewell to passed year Winter is the season for new year with cold, grey and gloomy days
The year chorus is playing for beautiful coming seasons
The spring, summer and autumn
The spring with the flowers and roses in festive musical band
The summer with its long sunny days
The time of relaxation and vacation
The autumn with spectacular scene of beauty, serenity and reflection Blessings for past year and best hopes and wishes for happy and prosper bright joyful new one

Farewell World

When you finally call me and you hear no answer
I am in another world
When you call my name and I do not hear you
Farewell to all
For all loved ones
Now I am gone
I wish I would been with you Now farewell to your world My future will be hidden for centuries and millennia I will lose sense of time
When will I see you again?
I do not know
When will I hear your voice
It may be hard on you and me but one day
We will be all together cherish beautiful new world of all hope and far better

Fate Knocks

The fate knocks on the door gets louder, louder and louder What the news will you bring?
What is hidden beyond the fog?
In this long winding road of life?
The shadows around me madly dancing as the knocks and fury subsides Still there remain lingering doubts Any unhappy bad disturbing news?
Will there be health worries?
will there be money concerns?
Loss of love or affection?
What the future holds?
What all will it bring?
Will it be peaceful sail? or turbulent rocky one?

Field Of Roses

Sweet red roses in the field Swing, swing in grace and vanity
Oh' queens of beauty and gaiety Sing, sing together in a chorus Songs of love, joy and emotions Dance, dance with the gentle breeze Bend here and bend there in harmony
Oh' you beautiful fragrant roses Swing and dance all the day long

Fighting Death

Life is story of an endless game
All about fighting the hateful death
It is an amazing strong struggle
All with familiar unescapable end Strive hard to delay your fate Be healthy and follow the rules
Do your daily exercises Run, jog and go to the gym Eat the healthy food the vegetables and fruits Chicken, fish and beef
No meat if you are vegetarian
No much cookies, doughnuts and cakes
Do not scream for more ice cream Fine you can have a scoop or two Enjoy a lot the opposite sex
With all trappings and pleasures Life does not ever need to be drab and mundane Be careful and do follow the right rewarding religion
So when you meet your creator You will go to wonder heaven far away from the hell fire
If you believe in cosmos Cruise safely in space And do not get sucked into horrible black hole

Florida Florida Florida

Florida is an adventure State
If you fall in love with Florida Surly you can't be blamed Florida offers a lot of varieties
It is large and awesome indeed
You can watch its marvels and wonders
It is called duely the sunshine state Its shores extends from the Atlantic Ocean to gulf of Mexico and the Key West
It was first discovered by the Spaniards Juan Ponce de León in the sixteenth century Florida has remarkable splendid cities From Tallahassee and Jacksonville in the North to the popular city of Miami in the South Clearwater Beach and Saint Petersburg Orlando and it's Disney World in the middle Florida is magnet for tourist attractions
Bush Garden, Sea World and Cape Canaveral Space exploration that tells another story Florida is rich in its Orchards Orange, tangerine and citrus Sea water sports are bountfull and splendor Deep sea fishing is rewarding andexciting
With blue skies touching the ocean in view Florida is in hurryways rapidly growing A retirement haven for the senior elders
In winter it a refuge for the snowbirds flock Escaping the cold harsh winters of the north Florida has many long stories to tell from the time of the native Indian tribes to the Spanish colonization in 1565
The stories of the St. Augustine refuge and the Seminole Indian trail of tears Now, looking ahead to roll welcome mat Welcome to Florida for pleasure and joy

Fun With Geometry

I have fun with the world of wonderful geometry
The square, the rectangle and the parallelogram
Oh' the funny trapezoid and the rhombus
The triangles, the isosceles and the equilateral
All together are a great happy close family
The circles and ellipses are twins related The formulas of geometry try to memorize
The areas and circumferences
The diagonals and angles
When learn the trigonometric functions
You discover a new world so exciting
The sines, cosines, tangents and arc tangents
If all this is not enough to entice you You probably soon at the end will quickly surrender and fall in love with geometry

Game Of Love

Love is admiration
The soul aspiration

It is fun game to venture
It is courageous adventure

Play the game smart Learn this extricate art

Play it wise and safely Play it very carefully

Throw your marbles right
You may win the love trophy

If unfortunately you lose you will be have broken heart

Be ready and be prepared
No body else to be blamed

Welcome to the world of love Carefully now play your chips

General George Washington

George Washington is an icon of our nation
He was born in time so early in our history
His story starts as a young man with ideals
He was handsome tall man with great ambitions
He loved chivalry, horses and swordsmanship
He came from a family of English ancestry Who settled in Virginia for many generations
They were fine but not of riches and fortunes
He lived in time when the British ruled the land
The first task in his life that brought him fame
An arduous trip to deliver message to the French Leave and evacuate their large Ohio territory
The French defiantly and stubbornly declined Defeating George Washington in some battles George Washington learned from costly mistakes
After hard fought battles of wins and defeats
A treaty at Paris ended the French Indian War
The French ceded the Ohio valley to Britain
George Washington later returned to Virginia
He by then owned huge estate at Mount Vernon Through his wife Martha acquired many slaves
He was much occupied running this huge estate
He still watched with interest what is happening Great resentment against the British was growing No taxation without representation was battle cry
After the Boston massacre and calls for actions It was all obvious military campaign was a must George Washington was chosen to be the commander of newly formed all volunteer Continental army He showed great perseverance and leadership
When finally he won and the British rule ended
There was a new country called the United States
All different factions chose him to be the president
This is the story of triumphant man and his legacy

Girl At The Beach

Mimi is lollipop sweet heart
Me and Mimi will never set apart

We spend the day on the beach together Enjoying the sunshine and gentle breeze

The sky is bright and very clear blue
The ocean is sparkling shining azure

Touching the horizon in a great embrace A marvelous and magnificent wonder view

Mimi wears a pink bikini pretty and teeny weeny

Mimi is a melody
A bundle of fun

A song of happiness and cheers
We walk playfully holding hands

We twirl around, around and lay on the fine sand

We get closer and exchanging hugs Smooch and lovely hot kisses

Lot of laughs and soft whispers Time passes slowly as a fairy tale

The birds in flocks fly above us Greeting and flapping their wings

Singing and swirling Chirping and dancing

How beautiful day it is?
This enjoyable day on the beach

God Is Watching You

God is watching you
Where ever you go

He is watching you
You cannot hide

You cannot escape
God is every where

He is mighty
He is great

Do good deeds
Be kind be gentle

Be charitable and help others Because god he is magnificent

Do not lose temper and fuss
Do not hurt other people

God is watching you
Far above in heaven

God is watching all people
Trust and depend on him

He will be with you
And one day you will Get the best reward

All blessings of god

Going To Morocco For Love

I am going to city of Asfi Going to the country of Morocco Where I found my love

Going to see the queen of beauty
Going to see my dear love

She is the rose of the mountains
She is the flower of the gardens

I will ride the blue sky to meet her Will the count the seconds to hug her

I will hold my arms around her
I will warmly kiss her

I will Whisper in her ears
I love you

She will be my bride
She will be my destiny

Golden Anniversary Celebration

Love is like a magic Love makes wonders

Love enshrines two hearts
With cheers, bells and whistles

Marriage bounded us together Full of happiness and tries

There were some laughs
There were some cries

Our love swept all obstacles
Our love grew and flourished

Today is our golden anniversary
A day of celebration and joy

For a future long life
For many years and happy ones

Sherif Monem

Golden Anniversary Day

It is joyful time for celebration
It is our 50th year golden anniversary

The day will be filled with happiness
Thank you for the years we spent together

For the joyful years that passed by
For the glorious years to come

For the memories of the times we cherished
For our triumphs, endurance and trying ones

From the wonderful years of our youth
From the romantic and foolish moments

To the solemn, wise age and gray hair
For the children and grand children

Let's have dinner, soft music and jolly place
Let's exchange presents, roses and flowers

Let's have party with 50 candles cake
Let's have all these colorful balloons

Let's invite all family and friends
Let's celebrate this very special day

Sherif Monem

Good Morning My Love

Good morning my sweet love
A new day is greeting you Awake from your dreams my love Radiate your smile my love
Fill the day with cheers
I hope your day as beautiful Garden of beautiful flowers Good morning my very dear Awake up from your sleep Embrace the happy new day Shine your smile around Fill me with all the joy Good morning my honey love

Gray Dreams

I am not happy
I am so sad

My dreams are darkened
My dreams turned gray

There is intense anger
There is much pain

Let me drink the cup of sorrow
Let me wonder its bitter taste

The hurt still lingers
The wounds never healed

I can't do anything about it
I am just overly consumed

In a moment flash
I wish I vanish

In a moment flash
I wish I disappear

Halloween Candy

Candies come in all varieties Candies come in all colors

Red, green and yellow purple, orange and blue

The kids love it
The old love it

Candies are great gifts for all
It is so wonderful hard to resist

Oh at the mouth
So nice and sweet

Kids love it in Halloween Knock, knock, and knock

Trick or treat Candy, candy Toffee, caramel and lollipop

Have a very happy Halloween
This great occasion for fun

Sherif Monem

Happiness

Happiness is fair dream
Our souls seek to ascend

A safe refuge and harbor in midst of turbulent waves

A haven filled with joy to the best heart content

When the clouds of worries slowly depart and disappear

When the world is shining beauty
When there is no angry spirits

When all around peace and calm
No pain, no sickness or strife

When life marches on as parade as fairy tale in beautiful story

Sherif Monem

Happiness Is Garden

Do you want to know What is happiness?

It is a world of its own Hard in few words to describe

Happiness is garden
Filling our hearts

Happiness is peace
Touching our souls

Happiness is laughter
So soft and sweet

Happiness is living free
No anxiety, agony and hurt

Happiness is living safely
No dangers or shadow of fear Happiness is an Eden full of flowers and roses

Trees, hills and water streams
A shining sun and gentle breeze

Hero Neda Agha Soltan

The hero amazing Neda Agha Soltan Her life was robbed from her by a foolish bullet at her chest
She was just calling for freedom
She was crying for human rights Twenty six years of springs Ended in cold pool of red blood
A brave young lady from Tehran Never heard of but only by few Now she is fable after she is gone
She had beautiful face like flower Full of youth, hope and much vigor Life can be taken away in a second Dreams of long life and happiness Evaporated, gone and been ruined Neda Agha Soltan you left our world Still we hear your calls and cries
You will be in our hearts forever

Hillary Clinton Ambition 2012

Hillary a lady with a great ambition
She wanted to be the boss of the nation
She dreamed to be president of the USA
She ran a grueling election campaign
She knocked opponents in succession
She met finally with great challenge
A tough guy from her city of Chicago
His name was Barack Hussein Obama
They ran neck to neck for a while His famous slogan was "Yes We Can";
He mesmerized the large frenzy crowds
As the race got closer and progressed
He streaked ahead like a flashing bullet
He finally and triumphantly won the race
With smile on his face he won the prize Challenger Hillary Clinton had her place
In the history books in ornament pages
Her name proudly engraved in stone
As the first ambitious political lady Who high almost reached the very top

Hitler Story Of Terror

Adolf Hitler his memory brings horror An evil icon of the twentieth century
He was the brutal ruler of Germany Risen at times of anarchy and intrigue
He started wars and caused tragedies
Lot of killings, mayhem and devastation Germany was strong industrial base Excelled a lot and became superpower Hitler intent was to world conquer
He invaded peaceful neighboring nations Poland to the east was a first victim Poland territory was savegely violated Britain and France were soon to react They handed Adoloh Hitler an ultimatum Get out in 24 hours or we will declare war Arrogant Hitler was in a great trouble
He relied on his foreign minister advice Britain and France will not interfere
They are weak and will not ever dare How foolish and wrong advice was given Hitler ignored their threat in defiance Soon after the spark of WW II was ignited Britain and France declared war on Germany Events followed in succession and in hurry
One country after another was soon invaded
The mighty German armies seeking victories
They marched through Europe conquering Some countries resisted the aggression
Some countries just in hurry surrendered Hitler had no limits to satisfy his appetite Hitler daringly attacked the Soviet Union
He thought it was defenseless fish to fry Years passed and many battles were fought Millions of people were killed through Europe Homes, villages, towns and cities were burned Flames of fires went higher and higher Hitler did not flinch and did not care Years passed and things at last turned around His armies were defeated at the eastern front

Million and more of his army were captured
The Soviet Union gave them blows after blows
They German army lost battle after battle
They started retreating west back home
The Americans got finally involved directly At Normandy shores the allied troops landed Nazi Germany total defeat was close and near In the month of May 1945 WW II was all over The city of Berlin stood in ruins and captured Hitler had no place to go and committed suicide
He shot himself with a bullet pistol in his head Eva Braun the faithful female companion lover
A day after their one night short marriage
She ended her life with killer cyanide capsule Their corpses were set in flames and burned
In the grounds of the chancellery were buried
A dark chapter of humanity was finally closed Pages of agonizing human history were written Hitler life remains cloaked by endless inquiries Once loved by his people worshiped and admired
Now he became a curse and they wish to forget
For the world an evil monster forever has gone

Hold Me Tighter

Hold me gently and tight Place your arms around me
Let's touch cheek to cheek Whisper sweet words of love Let me hear it in my ears Release me and let me go free Try to catch me far hiding behind the bushes and shady trees
I will run farther and farther
Try to catch me little harder
I will lay down near the lake
We will rest and enjoy breeze Come over and get little closer Hold me tight and look at me Kiss me warmly with passion Whisper the words of love as beautiful melody I hear

Sherif Monem

Honey Did You Tell The Truth

Marriage should be castle built on solid foundation Not on house of cards that will fall apart Before much I knew you and you married me Questions plainly are posed Were you honest all the way Did you say all the truth or is it too late now to know Simply, have you ever lied to me
You said your ex- you left her She was not very faithful and have cheated on you Is this really true?
You said you will work hard and make all that money Now, your pay check does not stretch
Not even for one whole week
You relax on the couch and watch TV Snacks, drinks and crunchy chips So what else you have promised and never came true Look at the cracked mirror Be truthful and tell me all if you have lied a lot to me?

Human Race Long Journey

The human race is continuum
Time marches on as a wheel

New generations are born Other generations are gone

The human race has long history
It is amazing where it came from

From hardship survival living Fighting nature hazards and perils to advance societies and luxury living Dazzling inventions and conquering space

The story of human race is remarkable
It is driven by great sense of bond

Intrigue and quest of great adventure Facing worries and dreaming of future

The human race early living history
Of meager resources and primitive world

Living in wilderness, jungles and caves Facing dangers and threatened by beasts

The final outcome, the human race triumphed Achieved dominance and ruled the world

It was never easy journey or fair sail Progress did not come all of sudden

It took thousands and thousands of years Advancing few steps at each time span

Hunger and disease took their toll Human life for many was cut short

Forces of nature brought havoc Storms, thunders and Hurricanes

Gail wind and mighty earth quakes Brought panic, horror and fear

The people settled around valleys and plains
At Cities and towns societies were formed

Tribes and nations eventually went to wars Atrocities and massacres were order of the day

Religion came along good and bad Trying to explain the mystery of our existence

It brought along mix of peace and hostilities
The story of human race has not nearly finished

With billions of people now living Nobody knows what tomorrow will bring

New challenges every day arise
What successes lay ahead?

The journey of the human race is left for the ever new generations to discover

All remain, a puzzle in realm of the unknown
In the short range of life we will never know

Sherif Monem

I Am Here For You

You can call me
You can wave at me

I will be in a moment
I will come close by you

I will hear your call
I will hear your whispers

Just call me anytime
I will be soon by you

I like to hear my name uttered on your lips

I will be so happy if your eyes gazed at me tell me your wishes tell me your desires

I will be like butterfly in a flash come to you

Sherif Monem

I Am Lonely

The days are gray
The nights are long

I am lonely at heart
I am at home alone

Watching the clock Clicking on the wall

No friends, no company
No one knocks on the door

I gaze at the empty sky Looking through the window

For the birds to sing to cheer my soul

The pages of life are flipped one by one

My loved ones have departed
They are not a with me

I am harvesting the pain
I am very sad and alone

Sherif Monem

I Am Sorry Darling

Sorry for the hurt and pain Sorry for the fault and mistake

I never thought to hurt you Your happiness ever is my aim

Things sometimes happen
Not all under my control

Some explanation I can offer
But only remorse and regret

So now darling forgive me
Let's our love flames remain

Love pure and unblemished
For ever and ever renewed Love and no hurt or pain That's all what I truly aim

Sherif Monem

I Do Not Forget The Kiss

I do not forget the first kiss
I do not forget this luscious one

When the flames of fire ignited
In the peaceful garden of love

The song of happiness and pleasure
The first kiss was like honey

The gates of paradise were opened Touching heaven and angels

Kissing, kissing and kissing Slow and deep but like fire

On the tender lips and soft cheeks Emotions grew like roses and blossomed

The warm embrace and tight hugs Added peace to the paradise of joy

Oh the first kiss I always I remember Passing and flickering in memory lane

Long ago at the time of our youth They all framed in wonders and dreams

Sherif Monem

I Fall In Love Easily

I fall in love easily
There is no any excuse

I get bruised and bandaged
Time and time again

I went to see a doctor
For one vaccine or two

I fell in love quickly with the sweet nurse

I turned around and left going back to home again

Sherif Monem

I Feel Falling In Love

I feel I am falling in love
You are in my mind all the time

There is something called love fever
When I miss you are not around me

When I lose my precious sleep thinking about you all night

When your image flirts my soul
When I wish sourly your presence

When I yearn to be with you every moment
When the thoughts of your laughter visits when all your sweet talk and whispers ring in my ears over and over

When your smiles and cheers remind me of the merry times happily together

The dreams that your love like bright star
In the midst of dark sky shines and glitters

Sherif Monem

I Have Abandoned My Love To You

No suffering, no sorrow, no pain
No summer wind and no pouring rain
The pages of love have been closed
The ship of love have sunk in ocean
My love to you was not reciprocated
I will wave goodbye with no regret I will not bow down to you
I will not ask and humble
I will walk tall and proud
The autumn leaves will be crisp and dry
They will fall down and blown in the wind
You are now just memory in picture frame
I will not notice you a minute Even if your shadow passes by

Sherif Monem

I Know You Love Me

I know you love me
when I smile at you
and you smile back at me

I know you love me when I laugh and you laugh with me

I know you love me when I look at your eyes and you look back at me

I know you love me
when I say I miss you and you say I miss you too

You are my love you so sweet Your love as tender as rose that bloomed and blossomed

I will love you forever
Always you will be in my heart
As a gentle shining light

Sherif Monem

I Love Kristi

She is the sunshine of my heart
Without Kristi
There is darkness filling my heart

Kristy brings me joy Kristy brings me happiness Kristy is my pure love

She is the bright light of my day
She is the diamond light at night
She the panorama light of my heaven

My mind thinks about Kristi She is the essence of my being The treasure of my heart

So much I need her
I need her love
I need her touch

When she is around me
I feel fulfilled
I feel complete

So Kristi You are The silent melody Ringing in my ear

The remedy that gently Touching my soul
For all moments of my life

Sherif Monem

I Love My Apples

I love my delicious apples
The sweet, crunchy and sugary
They give me all joy and content
I enjoy their wonderful taste
Oh' I love their bright colors
The red, yellow and green
They look heavenly lovely Gracefully round and shiny Their skin smooth and silky I eat one, two and three when I am really hungry Oh' these god given marvels these beautiful fruit apples

Sherif Monem

I Love The Blue Color

I love the color blue this special color the color of the sky bringing us tranquility In shiny sunny days the bright blue is the image of heaven of peace and happiness
the color of vast oceans of seas and water streams The color blue in nature the source of great joy the source of inner pleasure Surely I love the color blue the symbol of beauty and purity the optimism and fantasy the gift miracle of god to our blue planet earth

Sherif Monem

I Love The Color Green

I love the fabulous color green the color of gardens and valleys Oh' the graceful shady trees the grass fields and shrubs Oh' the Amazon rain forests the lung of our earth
The green is the sign of life the orchard trees bearing fruits the apples, citrus and pears I love the wonderful color green the color of many vegetables we eat the green is pure beauty fantasy we sit in the midst of the gardens watching the squirrels and chipmunks
The birds flying and singing A world of estazy and relaxation oh' this peaceful color green all beauty and joyful inspiration
I love and dream the color green

Sherif Monem

I Love The Ponds

I love these beautiful ponds
The serene peaceful gift of nature
I admire them and get mesmerized
The ponds are tranquil and haven Refuge for many living creatures
The ducks love them and swim in a row
The green trees scatter around them adding sense of stunning beauty
The birds fly over and sing tunes
The fish of all colors making them home
The ponds in summer and spring are gemstone
In the pond one can paddle in a canoe
One can sail in a boat and cruise
In winter the rain hits the water
When it is very cold the snow falls
The white flurries of flakes hang In deep winter the pond is desolate Its surface is covered with ice
No fish, no ducks, and no flying birds
A time of reflection and deep thoughts
It will not be long after all again
The signs of life will re-appear with all pretty green trees with field grass and bushes you watch wavy water of the pond Theooming roses and flowers
A climax of beautiful scene
Oh, I love the wonderful ponds

Sherif Monem

I Love You For Million Reasons

I love you for million reasons
If I can count them all

How can I can count to million
If I sleep at night thinking of you

For the day to start and the sun shines
To call you and to hear your voice

To count one, two, three and to ten Waiting and dreaming about you

To meet you and see your face To touch your delicate hands for very warm hugs for tender embrace

Sherif Monem

I Love You In Neon Light

I would write I love you
In letters of neon lights

I would have it in marquee
In Las Vegas theater streets

In the Champs Elysee of Paris Monaco and the Riviera

I will go to Africa
To the Kilimanjaro mountain

I will have sign
I love you on the top

I love you to the end of time
So you know

I will have the signs for you any place I will go

Even at Mount Everest you know
So, I love you

And you remember that Any place you visit and go

Sherif Monem

I Love Your Avatar

When I saw your Avatar
My heart felt for you

You look sweet in bikini Soon with no hesitation

I sent you messages promptly
You answered back quickly

All it took back and forth few brief correspondence

My love was cemented
I told you I love you

I sent you hug and kiss stickers red roses and colorful balloons

We chatted on Messenger a lot
You were joy and sent me pictures

Love grew bloomed and flowered
All this in the new age of ours

The age of internet and keyboards
You fall in love electronically

Sherif Monem

I Surrendered My Heart To You

I surrendered my heart to you Trust you and be faithful to me

Do not go fool around Do not go away astray

Be like a straight arrow
Do not ever cheat on me

You belong to me
Guard your eyes

Do not keep busy watching
With other women flirting

God of love Cupid is keeping track of you

If you ever misbehave
He will report you and will give my heart Once again back to me

Sherif Monem

I Want To Go Back Home

I want to go back home
To the place where I belonged

To this little town in the woods
To the place where I grew

Where my father and mother took much care of me

To relive the past moments and times when I was young

To remember the days when I played with my friends

The many passed times when I went first to school

Wondering and excited of new world Memory of the higher level schools of the days of study and learning and also of joy and fun

This park when I met my friends and where I met my first love

R
It is distant times away
But now I am going back again

To rekindle the fond memories and to nourish my hungry soul

Sherif Monem

I Want You To Be Mine

You are honey and sweet as spring gentle breeze

I want you to be mine
Nobody else but me

You are my song of love
The inspiration melody

You are in my mind all days and nights

There are seven roses so you would know every day of the week that I love you and very surely

I want you to be mine

My ever companion and lovely darling

Sherif Monem

I Will Love You Forever

When I smile at you
I know you love me

When I laugh and you share the laugh with me
I know you love me

When I say I miss you
I know you love me

Our love is a candle Magically shining forever
You know that sweet heart

Sherif Monem

I Will Wait For You

I will wait for you every second every minute day after day night after night

For every moment till you come
You my rising sun

Across the ocean you are far away
In my heart you are so near and dear

Counting the days to see you
It is painful

Never easy
In reality it is hard

For you my sunshine Dreams we be together

Sweeps me with emotions and melodies, ringing in my ear

I found my love in paradise Come to me my love

Come, nearer and closer in this earthly plateau of mine

Sherif Monem

Is Somebody There In Universe?

Knock, knock, knock
We need to hear from you

Knock, knock, knock
We are ready to greet you

Knock, knock, knock
Sending your cosmic signal

Knock, knock, knock
Aim your beams at us

Our address is simple
The blue planet earth

Knock, knock, knock
Our universe partner

Knock, knock, knock
We are still waiting

Hope to hear from you
A reply signal soon

Sherif Monem

It Was Like Yesterday

It was like yesterday when I first met you when seeds of love were sown when our love grew as garden where the flowers flourished where the roses blossomed

It was like yesterday
When our lonely hearts fluttered

When our hearts glued together

when the songs of love rang in our ears

It was like yesterday
when it all began when I said

I truly love you

Sherif Monem

Jenny Is Honey

Jenny, Jenny, Jenny
Honey, honey, honey

Jenny is sweeter than honey Sweeter than the ice cream vanilla and caramel raspberry and cherry

Jenny is rose of the garden Swinging between flowers and lilies

Jenny is the song of my heart Played with melodious harp

When I gaze in her beautiful face,
I feel joy reaching above heaven

Sherif Monem

Jiji Arrows Of Love

who am I? a novice in game of love

a flying bird or a dove JiJi is hunting my heart

Arrows of love aimed at me
I run but I fall on my knees

JiJi hear my sigh and plea Understand what happened to me

I want to sing
I want to be free

Oh your last arrow has landed
I am in the field of love stranded

JiJi come closer and see I am in your love nest trapped

I have been captured
In your arms I will surrender

Jiji heal my wounds with love Let me be free and be kind to me

Sherif Monem

Jiji Is Back

My heart is full of happiness
My dreams fulfilled

Jiji is coming back Jiji is coming back to me

My joy is over flowing
The sweet flower soon is back

I will hold her between my arms
I will whisper sweet words

The beauty of the world
The love of my heart

Jiji the sunshine is back
The dark clouds have gone

The day is bright
The angels are singing

My heart is dancing
Jiji my love is back

Sweet love Jiji
She is back to me

Sherif Monem

Joy Of Life

Joy of life is happy dreams Always flirting in our hearts

Joy can become a reality
Joy can be an illusion

Joy of life is wonderful
You hope to overwhelm you

To be your companion traveler
The forever faithful friend

The locomotive ride through the valleys Filling you with joy in journey of life

You wish happiness enshrines all your days and nights

It may make you feel you want to live forever

There are others who miss this joy
They may have hurt in their life

Their pain lingers and don't fade
Their days are shaded with sadness

They wish they wither away and suddenly disappear

So the everlasting joy of life
A garden full of hopes and dreams

One wishes that all the world one day will share and cherish

Sherif Monem

Kiss Me At Day Kiss Me At Night

Kiss me at early dawn
Kiss me at mid night

Kiss me at sunrise
Kiss me at sunset

Kiss me on the couch Kiss me in the shower

Kiss me today and tomorrow
Kiss me to the end of time

Your kisses are so sweet taste as milk and honey close your eyes and dream we are together in a boat floating down a winding river with banks filled with gardens

All roses, lilies and flowers World of happiness and pleasure

Sherif Monem

Kiss Me At Your Own Risk

Kiss me at your own risk
This marvelous luscious kiss

You don't know yet What could happen after?

You will catch love fever
You will not be able to sleep

You will feel very lonely
You will wonder what have happened?

Your nights will be long
You wish it will end soon

You will keep thinking of me every whisper moment of the day

So think over about it and keep wondering of what you thought it was?

Just a quick very hot kiss?

Sherif Monem

Kiss Me Before You Leave Me

Kiss me before you leave me
Before the heat of love dies Before the wild passion chills

Please keep me warm Between your arms
Before we drift apart

Say a word or two Whisper in my ears
Softly and gently

Say dear goodbye
A little kiss
A little embrace

All what I need Tomorrow surely Will be too late

Sherif Monem

Kiss Me Goodbye

Kiss me goodbye before you go away
Before the sunset pays farewell to the day

Kiss me goodbye and look at my eyes
Before the darkness sweeps the sky

Before the moon light shines Before its sends it silver rays

When you go faraway
Send me a message of love

That one rainy day you will come back again to dry the drops of tears that flow of my eyes

Sherif Monem

Kissing In The Rain

The passion is high
The love is torrent
It is our foolish youth

Under the dark skies
In a gloomy rainy day
We walk in the park

Holding hands together
Under the sycamore tree
We stand moments alone

Getting warm
With close hugs and love embrace

The falling rain Wetting our faces
We look at our eyes

Spark of life get ignited with watery tender lips
We exchange all kisses

We whisper love melody Wondering and enjoying Kissing in the rain

Sherif Monem

Lally, Lally, Lilly And Tilly

Lally, Lally, Lilly and Tilly
Sally, Sally, Sassy and Sissy

Money, money sweet and honey Nancy noon, silver and spoon

Oops, doops, crispy doop Pam, Pam catch fish and clam Queen, queen, nothing but queen Swims and runs and have much fun

Sally, sings dings Dixie dong Tammy and Tommy, Danny and Donny

Sherif Monem

Liberty And Freedom

Blow the shiny silver horns Beat the ancient loud drums Raise the colorful flags
In pomp and wonder ceremony

Announce all over the world Liberty and freedom for all Say it in hundred tongues Dialects and spoken words

Let's it reverberate over Let's echo again and again In the plains, valleys and woods in the hamlets, cities and towns

Liberty and freedom are twine
All holy, pure and divine Glittering precious jewels Guiding beacons for mankind

For all races, colors and creeds
For women, men, young and old
A dream for all who wants to be free
A battle cry fought by the oppressed

All the people of the world
All chant in one loud voice Liberty, dignity and freedom for all generations who live

Sherif Monem

Life And Death Are Twine

Life and death are twine Inseparable amazing twin

They hang together on a thread Blowing and swinging on a rope

A moment there is life
Other moment there is death

When there is no breath and no heart beats there is death

Life is a precarious thing Try our best to preserve it

The shadow of death Brings sadness and agony

As long as there is hope Lust for life is tremendous

The desire of life and survival
An instinct nature has bestowed

Like a rising sun and its rays Piercing the darkness of the night

You may wish to live forever
But time is absolute grinder

The farewell rays of the sinking sun Announce the end of the day bright lights

Death is a cup that has been tasted by everyone From that time of immemorial never been written

A cup that was drunk by the powerful
The king, queen, the mighty and tyrant

A common cup for the rich and the poor
The sage, the wise and the fool

The tree full of fruits in hot summer
The tree bare of fruits in cool winter

The garden full of flowers in spring
The fallen crisp brown leaves in autumn

The joyful life is full of bloom
The shadow of death is the dark clouds

The happy moment of birth and its celebration
The time of death of tears, cries and sorrows

The fear of death of yourself
The fear of death of your loved ones

Lot of concerns and sadness
Lot of worries and helplessness

Death is unwelcome and morbid
You do not need thought of death to absorb you

Through passage of times and through the ages
We have learned to bury the constant fear of death

It is human instinct to look forward
Not to dwell on unhappy thoughts

If you are enjoying life
You wish to live forever

If life turns sour and pain
You may wish to depart away

For the faithful and optimist
There will be another life by the blessings of the creator with singing angels and white doves

Life And Death Mystery

Between our life and death there is fine moment mystery

Death can come over in a flash Life can be gone in a flicker

Live your life as a dream that will last sweet forever

Conquer the fear of death by bright hope Immerse yourself in wide sorts of pleasure

Breath the fresh air and feel invigorated Life can be short as no one may imagine

Do not count the days and seconds
Do not feel distress for tomorrow

Do not envelop yourself with sorrow Smile to life it can be happier

A wonder world of joy that dances around forever and ever

Sherif Monem

Life Dingy Ship

Life is a dingy ship Sailing in vast ocean
You are alone in charge
You are the captain Your aim is to survive
The high waves surround you shaking and rocking your boat For long days and nights the trip continues Sun light and bright sky Crescent moon, dark nights
You are in a journey
We call it life
You never recall
When it all began?
You never know when it will end?
Somehow, it is an enigma
In mysterious ocean trip
It is a hidden puzzle
And someday and some how You will reach the edge of the ocean And you will sadly fall sinking with your boat
And this is the end
The final tragic part of the mysterious journey

Sherif Monem

Life Eighty And Ninety

The human life is mystery
It is a Russian roulette full of stories and events

The day you were born
The year you were born Certainly are memorable ones

The day and year you will exit
In stone they been inscribed In some pages in book of life

You never really know How long you will live?
This is the realm of unknown

You will not live forever
The eighties and nineties of age
For most it is the final red mark

Few live years further
You may be a centenarian
A fete worth celebration

Hope you are sound and healthy and celebrate with loved ones with hundred candles to blow

For the Guinness World book
Very few become super-centenarian
But how the quality of life then?

Sherif Monem

Life Is A Race

Life is a remarkable race Walk steady and march ahead
Do not ever fall back
Be in front and not behind Win the trophies and prizes
Be the winner in competitions
Pat your back with adoration Feel lot of self admiration You now are the champion and you surely deserve these all the fancy medals

Sherif Monem

Life Is Stage

Life is a fanciful stage Odd and kind of strange
We are inside as actors
Everyone has a role to play
There is a awesome beginning and a final loud bang end
We can not stay any longer
How much we have wished
We appear only once
As the curtain opens with joyful fanfare when the curtain closes
We bow down and leave
The life stage is permanent For one generation to arrive to another generation to go It is grand eternal stage of the enduring human race

Sherif Monem

Life Red Exit Sign

The days of life are short They run mundane and slow down the long water stream The days pass with regularity as the wheel of time turns Month after month are gone Years rush one after another The stages of life roll by through amazing succession So gradually, so smoothly
You do not feel the transition
Some people their life are hard Full of strife and struggle Darkened life shaded with sadness Some people are more fortunate their days are happy and joyful Like fanciful long musical song
Our life does not remain the same
There are many happy moments
There are other sad moments
They mingle together in wild tunes
It looks the journey has been long Now it looks as it is almost over
The large exit sign looms nearer
The flickers seen in the horizon
It flashes red at day and at night
As the exit sign gets closer Things are about soon to change You never know very precisely when life is actually over Farewell to all dear friends and specially very loved ones Farewell to this mystery world

Sherif Monem

Lilly Lilly

Lilly is my darling
Lilly is all joy

Her sparkling eyes
Her beautiful smile

A world of wonder
A world of pleasure

So sweet and precious
A diamond that glitters

Lilly, Lilly
Happiness and honey

A blooming fresh rose in garden of flowers

Sherif Monem

Lion Lion

Lion you are fabled creature
The king of the wild jungle
You are known as mighty one You are the feared by many Your roar is loud and scary It echoes and reverberates around through the prairies and safaris the forests, woods and mountains
The animals are frightened They run and try to escape fearing for their lives
You follow them in pursuit Hungry, hungry for a meal
This is your way for survival
A hard, hard way to live
You have a majestic look With your golden hair manes
It shows pride and authority
It attracts female lioness Your jaw and canine teeth are strong truly crushing At daylight you are at rest having a restful long naps At the dim darkness of night you are awake and much ready scouting for a prey to catch Long live you fabulous lion
You legendary animal of fame

Sherif Monem

Little Bird Song

Little bird have a merry song
Make my heart filled with joy

All the day I keep watching you Hopping from tree to tree

Chirping and making sounds
So happy and trouble free

Little bird how innocent you are You live a life that is pure

No harm no hurt no bad will Some day will learn from you

We marvel how you fly?
You fly to new heights

We wonder what you see?
You look delightfully all around

Little bird sing, sing, sing
We all wish to sing with you

Great melodies and lovely tunes Little bird, little bird

Have much happy happy Lovely enjoyable day

Sherif Monem

Lonely Heart At Night

The dreary night is approaching
The silence is filling the room

I lay down lonely with an empty soul
I hear no sigh, murmur or faint cry

Only sound is my heart beats Dreams float around aimlessly

Laughing ghosts haunting me
The night seems cruelly long

Very tiresome and ever enduring
I feel the night will never ends

All what I hope for is a day break
For the rays of light and sunshine

Finally to enter my dark room to solace me and comfort my soul

Sherif Monem

Love A Diamond Ring?

Love is a mystery game
Everybody has a plan

Come hurry kiss me honey
I am your beautiful bunny

Come sit down on the couch Relax and be ready

Do not be a bit shy Come closer and closer

Touch me as you wish Act like a big kid

But true gentleman
Be little careful

Remember there is Some boundaries

There are some limits
So come for romance have some fun have nice time

Now tell me dear baby after all the kisses

Are you buying me golden diamond ring

Sherif Monem

Love A Four-Letter Word

Love is wonderful melody
A haven of sweet dreams
A temple of joy and peace

Love a four-letters word Full of happy imaginations Filling in the human hearts

"L" is for the wild lilies
For the pure white innocence
For the refreshing fragrance

"O" for the graceful orchids
For their delicate beauty For their dazzling colors

"V" for the violet flowers
For their seductive color
And their world of mystery

"E" is for the everlasting happiness and pleasure
For the bond of romance

Love, Love and Love a shrine and castle of kindness and hope

Sherif Monem

Love And Fire

I got caught in whirlwind of love
I fell down, down and down

The flames of love went higher My heart is now wreck wreck from the hot flames of fire It burns, burns, burns

The flames of love
The flames of fire

Sherif Monem

Love Is A Two Way Street

Love is to give and take Everyone now a winner

Learn to forgive whom you love Hope you are forgiven the same Mistakes and faults can always happen

Love can be awesome fun
Love can be wonderful art

I give you box of candy
You give me lot of honey

Shower me with your love
I will shower with my love

Love is a fascinating song
One plays the harp the other sings

Love can be a street named desire A long street leading to paradise

So always truly remember Love needs to be reciprocal Love is a shoo-shoo train

We are the lucky conductors

Be careful and be faithful in duties
Everybody will be happy and thrilled

Enjoy the beautiful green scenery Enjoy the shoo-shoo train and whistles

Sherif Monem

Love Is Diamond

Love is a diamond so precious
At every angle it sends a spark Telling a secret that uncovered
There is deep true love that lasts
There is fake love that soon fades
Now there is love that flickers
It glows a second and dims another A puzzle, a dazzle you never know Go for it and give it true try Rub a stone and get mesmerized
As you watch the glowing glitter All hopes your love will last and be true one for ever and ever

Sherif Monem

Love Island Flower And Roses

There is something called love
It tastes sweet as pure honey

It has the aroma of the roses the beauty of garden flowers

You fly like a bee trying to seek Chasing it from flower to flower

Love is all what the heart desire Love is all what the soul dreams

Love is like a dingy small boat Sailing in the vast endless ocean

Passing the calm peaceful waters
Other times you face angry waves

Paddling to reach your destination
It may take time and great patience

Finally you reach this very beautiful island
The island of happiness, love, joy, and peace

Sherif Monem

Love Me Forever

Love me today
Love me tomorrow
Love me forever
Love me at sunrise Love me at sunset Love me all day long Love me to the end of time
Love me with all your heart
Your love heals my inner soul
Your love is chanting heaven
The nectar of fresh flowers
The aroma of the red roses Your love has blossomed
I love you every moment yesterday, today and forever

Sherif Monem

Love Of Nature

I fell in love with nature its beauty and its magic I love its enormous splendor
I fell in love with its peace
All of its artistic touch the shady green trees the fragrant red roses the colorful flowers the water streams the high mountains the charming valleys the vast meadows the splashing waterfalls the mystique canyons the enormous blue skies the azure deep oceans all these treasures
They all have spell all are gift of God

Sherif Monem

Love Song

Love is beautiful happy song
It reverberates in our hearts
Its melodies have magical tunes
They pass gently as summer breeze
I hear the dreams floating around I see them in the bright blue skies
I see them in the mountain tops
In the lakes, rivers and oceans
I see them in the lovely birds Flying, singing and dancing Love brings special joy
A haven of calm and peace Love is a dream you wish You can hold in your hands
Keep it deep in your soul Guard it so it does not flee Love is a world of its own Spelled in just few letters Written in silver or gold So precious and so dear

Sherif Monem

Love Suspicions

Do I really trust you?
If I give my heart to you?
Will you truly love me?
Will you truly cherish me?
Will the days keep us together
Will your love last forever Questions come to my mind Suspicions linger behind Some signs make me worry
There are doubts and fears
I am always thinking
What the future will bring Only time will certainly tell Before the blind love conquers Hopes you are much sincere Holding me precious and dear

Sherif Monem

Love With Three Women

I am lost in the land of love
I fell in love with three women Everyone I have reason to love Love is twisting my heart
My heart is thrown up the wind
The pain and sorrow persist
The inner pain everyday grows
The sorrow shadows follow me
It is unbearable and nagging
The time has finally arrived
I have to settle on only one Pick a very sweet one and say for the others I am so sorry

Sherif Monem

Lucy My Love

Lucy my sweet ever love Lucy my beautiful flower
You fill my heart with joy With everlasting happiness
Let me hear your gentle voice Let your love words resonate
When I am alone with you I feel heavenly mesmerized
I feel ascending to heaven
Lucy get closer to embrace Hold your arms around me
To enter your lush garden Smell the roses and flowers Say hello to the world of dreams
Of happiness, joy and pleasure

Sherif Monem

Mansion Of Love In My Heart

I have built mansion of love for you Decorated specially with joy for you
A dwelling that will keep me dreaming Wishing all sweet moments with you
A temple of love and whole devotion
The tide of happiness will fill it
The skies will make it all bright Shining, dazzling with all blessing
There will be a sparkling gardens
With beautiful roses and flowers Looking, singing and smiling at you
You will be the master lovely queen

Sherif Monem

Maze Of Life

I walked in maze of life
I fell and stumbled often I rose up again and again
I saw the dangers ahead
I witnessed fear inside
It was not all rose parade
It was full of hardships Thrown times in my road
I could not see my way
I looked around me
The fog was everywhere
I ventured through it Now finally I am here
So proud looking back
I have walked long ways Passing through the maze
In this journey of life

Sherif Monem

Memories Come And Go

Memories often come Memories soon go away Memories wander around
In a way I don't know Where they come from Where they leave and go Memories of the past Memories of yesterday
Some causing sadness Hurt and lasting pain
I chase them far away
The sweet ones I love
I wish to live them again
I can't dwell on memories
I want to live my days Enjoy the tunes of today and dreams for tomorrow

Sherif Monem

Moments Of Happiness

Would you ever have thought and wished
The moments of happiness never ends
The summer gentle breeze never dies
The roses in the garden forever bloom
The song of happiness in our hearts lasts Happiness is the great crown of our lives Sadly these moments will never stay
One day they will pass and wither away
As the wheel of time turns and turns

Sherif Monem

Monday

The weekend passes quickly Monday here comes back again
Some no happy and complain Others welcome the Monday
The beginning of a week Much you wish to achieve tackle and solve problems Others just back to work Perform same old routine Earn living and paycheck
So what about Monday
Some love and welcome and others really hate

Sherif Monem

Month Of December

December a happy jolly month
Full of fun and fond memories

Certainly the last month of the year of merry Christmas and silver bells

Many celebrations, festivities and songs Ornaments and decorated Christmas trees

Special greetings for families and friends Meals with all goodies and turkey dinner

Wait, Wait, Ho, Ho, Ho there is a surprise
The Santa is arriving from the North Pole

Enjoying his spectacular long reindeer ride Bringing super gifts for the very nice kids

As the days of December in hurry pass
On mid-night of last day of the month

A newly bubbly baby year is born and we will have January first

Lots of ruckus noise and whistles Red, green, and yellow balloons

Great best wishes for everyone and very, very happy New Year

Sherif Monem

Moon And Sun

It is the moon with silver rays
It is the sun hot blazing red
It is the sleepy silver moon
It is the blue earth singing
It is the stars far way dancing
It is joyful happy wonder world

Sherif Monem

Mother Sun

The sun is a ball of fire Roaming in the vast space Joining the sister stars in the fantastic Milky Way It is in an endless journey Nobody knows to where?
Every day the sun races along millions and millions of miles in great show of endurance
The sun is our loving mother
It has many lovely daughters Mercury, Jupiter, Mars and Venus Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune Others also claim baby Pluto
But the blue earth is special
It is the favorite daughter
The sun nourishes us with love Brings precious warm and life Planet earth says much thanks to our great mother far sun

Sherif Monem

Mountain Red Rose

On my way to the green mountain
I met a lonely lovely red rose Hiding in the midst of the bushes
She smiled and said 'good morning'
I said great morning sweet rose So wonderful and charming you are She danced and said 'come near me'
I said I smell invigorating fragrance
She said 'come touch me my dear'
I said 'Oh' how beautiful your touch
She said 'hug me, I am so lonely'
I got bit closer and closer.
I picked her from her branch
She said 'Oh you killed me dear'
Her petals dew were her tears
I sighed 'no, what I have done'
She sighed and faintly said
'Do not cry you stranger' Wipe your misty eyes dear
The lives of roses are short I looked at her with sorrow
I kissed and hugged her again and said 'Oh' my rose, goodbye

Sherif Monem

My Heart Full Of Fear

I lay down lonely in bed wondering
It passed the middle of the night
I hear some murmuring sounds around I hear strange knocking on the door
I hear faint tapping on the window
I see no one
I hear no one
I am getting scared
I hear some steps walking in the room
I hear the water running in the shower
I feel the lights in the room flickering
The wild animals in the woods howling
My heart beats are racing hard
I want to run
I want to escape
The door is locked
I am stuck
I am full of fear
It is world of bad dreams
Do I have a fever?
Am I sick and hallucinating?
My heart is now full of fear

Sherif Monem

My Heart In A Golden Cage

You flew far away
You left me alone
You left my heart kept in a golden cage
I am in it a prisoner
You are my cage keeper Thinking of you Dreaming of you Without hearing your voice Without seeing you by my eyes
All Make me so sad
Please return back Release from my cage Let me fly
Let me be free
Let me explore the world to find a new love or come back to me once again to embrace to hold hands to rekindle our love that once was on fire

Sherif Monem

My Heart Is Catching Fire

My heart is catching fire
The flames of love are getting higher and higher I try to run and escape and I am full of desire The pouring rain can't tame this raging fire Your beautiful eyes send me special sparks Making the flames grow and gets stronger
Your lips and red lipstick Melt my victim heart
Your talk and whispers Make the flames get hotter
The way you walk and swing Add fuel to flames of fire
I am full, full of desire I ask only mercy and to fulfill my desire Love and hugs surely will subdue the fire

Sherif Monem

My Life Is An Open Book

My life is an open book
Come over and have a look
Look at pages of happiness and other pages of sorrows Hear the sounds of laughter and sounds of wounded cry There are many chapters telling exciting stories From time of infancy I forgot
The playful times of childhood Chapters of blossomed youth
The young adventurous adulthood
It is for many a long journey and the wheels of time tell From a young man and woman looking ahead to the future with excitement of life to mature adult experienced to gray haired aged person happily gained all the wisdom Although there are many chapters
The last one is left blank still waiting to be written Someone else will write it when it is all over finished and the life journey has ended This is my book of life
The final chapter soon closes

Mystery Cemetery

The mystery of the old cemetery
The sun sets over the hill Beyond the far edge of town In the midst of bare trees the grass and brown shrubs whispers and stories are heard In this austere old cemetery of the long passed times people found their eternal homes their final resting places the tortured souls cry and wander the blessed souls roam in peace some people have lived long life Others their lives were cut short They ended in sadness and pain Near the narrow water stream One hears the chuckles of joy echoes with rumbling falling rocks of lives of beauty and pleasure of solemn peace and longevity mixed with tones of sadness of fervent love that did not last Roses withered before they flourished
The voices of moaning behind the hill of people who died tragically Life stopped in screeching halt Towering of all sad events
The sound of screams of car crashing and those people in extreme agony not far away as one glimpses the scene of brownish stones and pink and yellow flowers crying and weeping for murdered ones peace have finally came for others who were ill and suffering much pain The cemetery are haunted place for many people whose stories short and long never known At the middle of the night the stars seen dancing and gazing at this old forgotten cemetery The howling wind blows fiercely giving eerie fearful feeling sensing the chill and solitude as the dawn light creeps in it cracks the pitch of darkness the nightmare finally ends and all the souls take rest and sleeps once again in peace

Mystery Of Life

What is our lonely life story?
It is a huge large mystery
We do not totally comprehend Probably it will stay enigma Life is our real existence
We are eager to know an answer
When seed of life all began Surely in very far time in the past
No any written history can tell We can study, dabble and examine to find the ever elusive answer As impatiently searching and finding a jewel buried in the deep sea water a precious stone in the vast desert
We may never find a final answer
It is un-doubtfully life began before history can ever be written before Adam and Eve have ever lived before the lush gardens and fruits Ages and ages had passed time ago
It was wilderness, grey and gloom Desolate, sad and there was no life
Some claim and theorize in a sigh Life began in the deep oceans some creatures moved to the land There forward life began to appear In the long, long span of time
There were the shrubs and trees Hungry animals and wild beasts
They filled the lands and plains
The fish, dolphins and whales chose the oceans, lakes and rivers
The birds swept the high skies
How proud and lucky we humans beings Witnessing triumphal amazing journey Often taming angry powerful nature Only to little boast and to acclaim of achievements and happy successes

New Day Of Life

Have you ever thought What the birds ever say
In the morning of new day
What the crows ever say
As the day light breaks
After a long deep sleep
When you get up from bed
Do you feel great thrill?
Do you feel inner joy?
Facing new day of life
When you see the sun lights Seeping through the window
Are you full of much hope Are you ready with energy to welcome this joyful day

New Hampshire With Love

I fell in love with New Hampshire Land of beauty and pretty scenery

Known as the granite State sweet in character and nature it is beautiful in all seasons it offers lot of recreations from summer breeze and fresh air to spring and lovely flowers to the fall season and foliage to winter sports and skiing

New Hampshire has lot of plains green hills and high mountains

Ponds, lakes and blue lagoons in rustic views and relaxation

A place where you can hike Have picnics and enjoy the food

Not very populous state A reason to escape crowds with many charming towns and cities Manchester the largest in population

Nashua is the second largest town
But smaller Concord is the capital

Portsmouth a small historic town Lies on the shore of Atlantic ocean

Not far away is Hampton State Park and grand casino for culture events

New Hampshire geography places it near many other fascinating states

Massachusetts to the south Green Vermont to the west the State of Maine to the east and in the North there is Canada

With the old province of Quebec Where French and English are spoken

New Hampshire has lot of amusements Ideal place for great entertainment

Watching the dancing black bears at the Clark's Trading State Park

Ride the whistling choo choo trains Passing through the woods and rivers

Remember The Franconia Notch state park
Enjoy camping, swimming and boating

The high peak Washington mountain With super skiing slopes and challenges

The famous skiing resorts and dining
The Aerial Tramway with terrific view

The magnificent lake Winnepesaukee with azure color and many islands

You can see all that and much more to enjoy

When you visit the state of fabulous New Hampshire

New Year Celebration

A New Year just been born
It is celebration time

Ring the silver bells Blow the whistles

It is the New Year night
What beautiful occasion

Wear the funny top hats Wear the colorful costumes

Sing joyful songs
All together celebrate

Join hands in hands Circle around and dance

Watch the firework displays brightly illuminating the sky

Kiss your sweetheart fondly
It is the New Year night

Say bye to the year that passed Say hello to the new year

Let's make this New Year
Very, very, happy, happy one

Oh Boston Boston

Boston, Boston, Boston
The largest city in New England
The capital city of Massachusetts Neighboring New Hampshire and Vermont Rhode Island and Connecticut and the grand state of New York Boston first settled by the Puritans
They came from mother country England
They stayed brief time in Holland
They were seeking religious freedom
They established very strict laws
They made compulsory church attendance
They ruled and established government Things soon changed since that time
The Irish came in drove and large numbers Their country was hit by potatoes famine the Italians and other groups joined also The face of the city changed since then
The city became more tolerant and lovely Boston became a large rivaling New York city Boston and Massachusetts became leaders Among the original thirteen colonies Boston was first to protest the British rule
They cried No Taxation without Representation
They expressed their anger of taxing tea When three ships arrived from England carrying Chests of tea cargo, there was quick response Dump the tea shipment into the Boston harbor Patriots dressing as red Indians came soon they threw the tea loads and did their deed
The news reached England and the king George got alarmed and in hurry sent troops to punish The British are coming The British are coming This was the famous cry of Paul Revere riding on a horse and alerting the patriots There were battles at Concord and Lexington and the famous battle of Bunker Hill What Britain realized after many casualties
They are up to big trouble and big uprising

They gave up and evacuated Boston very soon George Washington led a struggle against Britain
He became the commander of the Continental army Appointed in the year 1775 to fight great battles for the thirteen North American colonies In 1783 the American Revolutionary War ended Britain agreed for United States independence.
The amazing city of Boston has lot off charm
It has many historic monuments and buildings celebrating the revolutionary war of that time
There is Faneuil Hall and the Paul Revere House
The Old North Church built in the year 1723
The Quincy Market and the Boston Harbor
Boston now is very modern city and exciting
It is famous for its universities and colleges
It has great culture and wonderful museums the Fine Arts, the Science and Natural History Boston has many adorable attractive parks the Boston Common and the Boston Public Garden there is Cape Cod and Narragansett Park near by Not to forget the ocean beaches and Charles river
The fourth of July celebration and the fireworks at the banks of the river and Boston Pops music

Oh Manhattan

Manhattan Manhattan the Island of Manhattan
With famous streets, avenues and amusements
The Broadway, Madison, Fifth and Park avenues
The Time Square for strolling and shopping Manhattan is the land of hundred tongues
The Broadway shows and Rockefeller Center
The famous United Nations headquarters
The museum of Natural History and Guggenheim
The Manhattan Grand Central Terminal Manhattan the fast world of hustle and bustle
The tranquil Central Park haven and views
The beautiful grass, trees and shrubs
The blue sparkling peaceful ponds
The great famous bridges and tunnels
The George Washington bridge on Hudson river
The famous legendary Brooklyn bridge From Lincoln tunnel to the Holland tunnel Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island greetings
It all started about five hundreds years ago with the sea explorer Giovanni da Verrazzano ever saw the Lenape Natives in their boats Manhattan changed hands from the Dutch to the English from the fur trading companies, to shame slave trading
The famous Wall Street is as old as the city itself
A center of the finance for America and the world Manhattan is vibrant vital borough of New York city
The Macy Thanksgiving beautiful colorful parade
The great celebration for the New Year event
The cheers at Union Square watching the dropping ball
The fireworks, the extravaganza, the whistles and bells
The crowds and excitement for the arrival of a new year
All this tells the story of the amazing Manhattan

Old Man And Young Bride

Will you marry me you beautiful love
Do you know I am old man I can't give you as much all the love that I wish Not all the pleasures
A young man can give Do I deserve you
I can't say 'No' to you
You will be my wife
You will be my love
I will cherish you more I can describe You will be special jewel of my heart
I will be your destiny
I will be your man

Sherif Monem

One To Ten

One

You are the only one

One and Two

Me and you

Three and Four

Open the silver door

We reached Five

What beautiful life

Oh' number six

These pretty sticks

Seven and Eight

Shoot them straight

Nine and Ten

Count back again

One World Sun Moon Earth

It is one fascinating world
The golden sun and silver moon and the wonderful blue earth
The earth is our home planet Full of life of all varieties
The human race at the top supreme
The master of the animal kingdom
The planet earth looks fabulous around the sun with other planets Wearing the mantle of blue skies Covered with pure white clouds Underneath not haven for peace
There are sad wars and bloodshed
There are destruction and mayhem Images of humans cruel history Witnessed through time and ages All what we can wish and do now is to pray for peace and sanity Raising our hands high together Waving the green olive branches for all nations and all people

Sherif Monem

Our First Anniversary

Here our first anniversary
All love and best wishes
For the sweet darling
You are the sunshine
You are the gift of my life
You are the flowers and roses
You are the garden of joy Strings of love bind us from the first day we met You are the joy and dreams
The kisses and gentle touch
All shrine our romance
One year passed in hurry
The moments and minutes of happiness still glow
They live in our hearts
They never fade away They promise and hope for everlasting love for now and tomorrow to our golden years

Sherif Monem

Our Love Will Not Last Forever

When the dark clouds gather around marching covering the blue skies When the humming rain pours down all day
When the birds are silent When the bright smiles vanish from our faces When your sight presence bring only memory of past When we turn our backs Walk and say goodbye

Sherif Monem

Our Wedding Bells

In our wedding night
I saw the bright stars Promising us all happiness Through The days to come My bride I much adore you
You have my unbound love Your shining beauty
Your gleaming eyes
The doors to paradise
Your cheerfulness
Your radiating delight
The candles lead our way
In the journey of life
The golden bells
The silver bells
They will chime Announcing merrily
For joyful future
For beautiful family Crowning our love

Sherif Monem

Our World Mystery

We are living in a world Mysterious and vast one We do not know much about How did this world exist How it came into being When it was long time born
What the future lay for us Does this world love us Value us and really care
In what way does it show How a world of pure matter can embrace any love us A world of no biological form A world of oceans and lands No tender heart to feel or sharp brain to think Does this world seem harsh hurt us and inflict harm Lightnings and hurricanes Flooding, tremors and quakes Famine, hunger and no food
A world of angry dark skies Thunders and trenching rain Never the less to acknowledge A world of immense beauty Sunshine and flowering gardens Lakes, trees, birds and dreams Oh this world we live in Do we have to know you more to greatly love and enjoy Oh this wonder unknown world
Oh our great splendor world

Paula Is Cruel

Paula breaks her promises
She says she will come Days and days pass Calling her Texting her
Where is Paula
She never answers
She never comes
Will I forget her Will I find another Paula, Paula no wonder
She is cruel
She never comes

Planet Earth Mystery

The mystery of our planet earth and the life we live and evolves a hidden story that remains a puzzle
We are blessed with air, water and food Crops and fruits for us to survive
Seeds bring us harvest after harvest
A mystery, how they endure endless cycle?
Season after season
Year after year
The air and oxygen make us breath
Without them we will perish
The nitrogen gasses in the air Bring us safety and less fires
The earth orbit is a wonder Bring us all beautiful seasons Bring us a climate will sustain us
No extreme scorching heat or inferno
No extreme cold and frozen in ice
What purpose we existed on planet earth?
How we ever have started and began to exist?
Life has fabulous manifestation Created by males and females Babies, children and adults Generations after generation are born generation after generation they pass away Mysteries are cloaked in other mysteries
We Keep wondering and wondering Oh' planet earth we really love you Even we never fully understand you

Sherif Monem

Poem Money

Money, Money, Money
Everyone loves honey

Some fully admit it
Some all deny it

As once been eloquently said Money can't buy happiness

Others say the opposite Money can buy you happiness

Money can buy you a house and car Precious gifts for the sweetheart

All the day you work hard
For a paycheck in your hand

Money can help for good cause and charity Sadly for bad things and crimes too

Most earn it in an honest way Others by evil ways and deception

Money can make life beautiful Money can be source of anxiety

Money, Money, Money
So what essence of money

Sherif Monem

Poem Penny

Penny, Penny, Penny
These shiny Pennies
How nice and sweet to say
Penny, Penny, penny
Penny in the pocket
Lot of Pennies in the jar
It is penny, penny Penny sounds musical Penny sounds funny
One says something to you it is not worth a penny Still one may ask how much In dollars and pennies
Some have love for pennies
They keep them in a safe
I love them pretty and shiny Sweet when they are new Glamorous in copper color Lucky, lucky lucky I like to count my shiny lucky pennies

Sherif Monem

Poem Rhyme

I wish to write a poem
One that does not rhyme
Am I wasting my time Am I squeezing a lime
I will try harder
I will be smarter
I will try my luck
Like happy dark duck Will I ever succeed
Some day sure indeed Now I will try but will not cry
So what I do? do?
Dodi, doodi doo!

Quam, Tran And Tomcats

Quam, Tran and granny Tomcats
Princess Quam was born in Siam
Prince Tran studied physics in Iran Granny the wonderful Tomcats
She reads Aristotle and Socrates
The Quam, Tran and Granny Met a gentleman by name Guru Swami
He fell in love with Granny
They have big wedding in India Guests came from all over Siam, Iran and Himalaya

Raining In My Heart

Raining in my heart
I do not know Why Shedding hot tears that never dry
I get drowned
In sea of sadness
I don't know why Fear and scare engulfing me
What will be coming
The hidden unknown
The tears in my heart never for second end calling me always again and again to comfort my soul

Sherif Monem

Rainy And Thunderous Night

When the sun at the horizon finishes its daily journey it sends special farewell saying goodbye till next morning when the dark heavy clouds gather when the night stars disappear when the chill fills the air an ominous eerie feeling appear touching and battering our souls the elusive quietness about to change
A mighty loud thunder is suddenly heard It shakes the earth ground the heavy rain pours down the sky the rain slams the windows banging heavily on the roof the arcs of light illuminate wildly the serenity of the place is shattered the nature speaks in great fury displaying and showing its might the nature choreographs a night of full of drama when it is once all over after a long thunderous night the nature fury calms and rests the morning will come very soon with sunshine and a dream of peace

Sherif Monem

Ready For Love

Are you ready for love
Are you ready for romance
Are you ready tonight
When we huddle together under the cover of the dark sky when we lay down on the grass beneath the large Elm tree when we exchange kisses in torrent of wild desires when our love is untamed when we feel all pleasures through the long chilly night till the next day lights appear and the shiny stars disappear

Sherif Monem

Red For Roses

Do you love the red color
The color of roses and fire
The roses emanating beauty fragrance, happiness and joy
The fire, the burning and ruin the doom, death and destruction
The world of red color intrigues They bring passion and desire intense love and pure romance Red can bring fury and anger most violence and wild rage It is color signal for warning be careful and much alert
The red color fruits a treat
We enjoy much and love to eat
We squeeze and drink as juice
How about the red fruit family Strawberries, raspberries and cherries How about this wonderful watermelons quenching thirst in hot summer days Oh the bright color red you are a world of your own

Sherif Monem

Red Roses

Red beautiful roses
What the roses are for They are for lovers
They are ambassadors for special message from heart to heart in simple few words Whispering softly
I really love you

Sherif Monem

Red, Green And Blue

Dazzling, dazzling, these beautiful Colors
The Green, Red and Blue

Green for the trees, bushes and grass fields
Red for the dreadful fire and soak of blood

The blue for the bright sky, oceans and lakes Green, red and blue are known from set of time

From eras when man ever opened his eyes
In the early infancy of our time

The time when man settled on planet earth
The green and blue bring happiness and joy

The calmness and assurance of peace
The solemn content of heart

The green brings to mind the color of many food food we eat for our survival and life

The color blue for the vast oceans
For the earth's sky with air we breath

Oh' the red this symbol of fear
It is redeemed with the beautiful roses with their fragrance and joyful aroma

The symbol of love and romance

The Green, Blue and Red are cheerful colors
They are not all that colors that we see

There is the yellow color
The color endless sand of deserts, dunes and hills of many fruits and flowers

There is the brown color
For the rocks and bare mountains

There is the grim color of gray for the dark sad cloudy skies the orange, the purple and the pink Oh`, oh` not to forget

Here is the queen innocent white for the falling snow in winter for the nourishing milk we drink For the patches of clouds in summer of the nature variety of colors together They are rue precious parading carnival

How lucky we are?
We live in world of colors

Sherif Monem

Regrets In Life

Regrets are part of our lives
Like a bell ringing in our heads
One thinks it was long time ago However, they come back often knocking, knocking again and again I wish we could have been perfect However, who are such lucky ones?
In life you make mistakes
May be you do not make the right decision You may have let good opportunity passes by You may have lost control of yourself
You may have caused somebody else harm
You may regret what you have done
May be you were not gracious enough Lost your temper and did foolish act Anger became master and took control Revenge may have deprived your senses Calm, forgiveness and forbearance All what you know for now is to express heart regrets and carry on with your life

Sherif Monem

Resurrection Of The Dead Fantasy

The earth was desolate and eerie No humans, no animals, no plants no roaring lions, or birds flying The dark clouds covered the skies
The fierce whirling wind sounds powerful, strong and howling
The darkness engulfed the earth
All of a sudden from nowhere
A loud horn shook the earth
The stark bright lights dazzled Drove the darkness far away Angels with pure white wings
All around filling the skies
The demons with hell fire flames Murmuring and scorching everything Shadowy ghosts came from the earth
The multitude of dead resurrected
It is the dreadful judgment day
The good ones are greeted by angels leading them to happy nice garden The evil ones are gathered by demons led to their final punishing fire
It is the end of the human odyssey
With the grand final judgment day

Sherif Monem

Rich And Poor

There are some people
Who are happily rich
There are some people
Who are sadly poor
Some people have more
Some people have less Some people drink cup of happiness
Some Others
Drink cup of bitterness Life is a mix
A salad bar
Full of tomatoes Lettuce, cucumbers
And onion rings
So after all
What is your lot?

Sherif Monem

Running From My Shadow

Running from my shadow
My shadow that follows me
The shadow of the sorrow the shadow of the pain Remembering the sunshine days
That turned dark and grey Remembering the drenching rain pouring on the hills and dunes showing no mercy to my heart I see my shadow behind me watching and haunting me I want to look to the future
I want to live for new hope
I want my shadow to go away

Sherif Monem

Sadness

I feel deeply sad
I do not know why
I do not know the reason I wish I know
The sadness is gripping me
I feel no joy
I feel no happiness
Much more of loneliness
I do not know what the future will hold
I feel arrows of sorrow rushing
I feel they are aiming at my heart
I feel my loud silent cry
I keep wondering why I am so sad
The dreams of happy life faded away
The flowers in the garden withered away
The cries of the past haunting me
The open wounds that never healed
I feel much fear and apprehension Life is now uneventful and drab
Is it the quietness before the storm
The howling sounds echo in my mind
The sense of life and death resonates Feeling of loneliness mixes with sadness Memories of loved ones revisit me Wheels of time have turned around fast
The new pages of life will soon roll Wondering what they will be Will there be happiness
Will there will be more sadness
It is great mystery waiting to come
The fear in my heart toys with me
The mysterious sadness still remain
I want to drink from cup of real joy
I want to throw away the cup of sadness
I want to smell the fragrance of flowers
Feel the beauty of the gardens and roses

Sailing Under The Moon Light

Sailing under the moonlight
The moon is bright and shiny Happy, cheerful and merry
It sends rays on the lake in the midst deep of night
Our white boat is splendor It sails smoothly and gentle over the dark lake waters
The breeze tickles our cheeks
The lonely boat passes through The hills and the mountains aside
The sleepy trees and shrubs
The wild animals and wolfs cry's break the serenity of the night Our soft laughter echoes around teasing the sound sleepy world the moon keeps us happy company Through our long lonely night
We embrace the peaceful nature
We are filled with peace and joy

Sherif Monem

Salad Bowl

How wonderful our salad bowl
This salad bowl is very nice treat Filled with heart desires Tomatoes and Lettuce cucumbers and onions oil, vinegar and black olive you add your favorite dressing
The salad bowl is wonderful Full of all beautiful colors
A Healthy pack of vitamins and great much nutrition Salad bowl can be zesty appetizer Accompanying the lunch and dinner
For some it can be by itself
A dreamy whole wonderful meal Oh' with fancy warm soup How great sure it will be

Shades Of Love

Love is a beautiful song
Melody between two hearts
It touches the inner feelings
It gives the life purpose
As the wheel of time turns
Will the love stay strong Will it conquer the years When youth passes away
When life is monotone
When life is constant struggle
When the wealth may evaporate
When there are many trying times Will the bond of love remain Will love endure and survive
When sailing in dingy ship
In midst of heartless waves
In midst of raging waters How strong the love will be What the love shade will be When stark reality and love Finally in collision course Wait only time can tell

Shasha And Jiji

Romeo and Juliet
ShaSha is Romeo JiJi is Juliette
Love strings were struck
In the electronic age
In the age of Yahoo and AOL
On the Keyboard strokes
There was no physical touch
There was no warm embrace JiJi sent her pictures
So special and sweet fantasies
The love flames were ignited Shasha felt the heat
He fell on his knees
JiJi picked him up
By her hands electronically
She told him you brave man Enjoy Yahoo and AOL world
Be careful sweet ShaSha Always keep the happy face

Sherif Monem

Shasha Love Game

ShaSha is certain loser
A loser in the game of love
He does not aim correctly
He misses his wild shots ShaSha should learn better Watch the others carefully Watch them how they score
They have direct hits ShaSha wise-up a little ShaSha be very smart Jiji will devour you alive Sadly you will be left with little bread crumbs

Silver Full Moon

The full silver moon appears once again coming visiting us glowing, jolly and bright His silver rays are arrows piercing our dark skies They ignite the majestic beauty of enormous heaven Bringing joy and wonderful company for the sleepless and lonely hearts Nature get painted with magic brush
The sleepy forests are awakened celebrating the special moon arrival The basque tall trees glimmer blending with the mountains silhouettes
The lake wavelets water scatter in harmony Dancing around as shiny little mirrors
The full moon towers the wilderness
The wolves cries echo sound around breaking the silence of peaceful night telling us the amazing hidden mysteries of the far away loved our silver moon

Sleeping Beauty

Sleeping Beauty
How beautiful you are

You sleep on bed of flowers and red roses and white lilies

Sleeping beauty
How beautiful you are

Your laced white night-gown
So marvelous it looks

Your golden hair locks Flowing over your neck

Your rosy bright cheeks
Your soft sweet lips

Sleeping beauty
Your budding bosoms

Your curvy body
Your bare feet

Sleeping beauty
How beautiful you are

Have lovely dreams
Angels guarding you

Sherif Monem

Smile At Me

Honey smile at me Give me living hope

Everything will be alright
My day will be bright

All sadness will disappear they will go and fade away

They will sure say goodbye Happiness will fill my being Radiate your beauty at me

Let's it captures my soul

Pour the joy into my heart Fill me with ecstasy

Hug me passionately
Sweet, warm and tight

Keep my dreams flourishing Dance around with me

Snowy Day In Winter

It is another snowy day of winter
The snow is falling everywhere Looking as far the eye can see The snowflakes are tossed in the air Covering the trees, grass and fields
The alleys, streets, ponds and parks Everything is painted in white color
It is peaceful, quiet and serene All elegance and beauty of the scene
When the snow fall is all over The kids will go out of homes Play and throw snow balls Chisel snow pretty sculptures this funny frosty snowman With famous red carrot like nose
It is now time for dinner Everyone back at home ready Very nice hot hearty meal soon after the dinner and sweets time for relaxation and joy Mammy and Daddy are happy sitting warm near the fireplace watching TV shows and chatting
The kids will gather around With friends having great fun What really a happy time at the snowy winter day

Spiritual Faith

Humans are spiritual beings Living on the lonely earth they need their faith
They need a guiding light Life seems some time harsh they need spiritual help Things can look sad and dark
They need the sunshine
There may be pain and despair
They need hope and well wish
The journey of life can be thorny
They need helping hands
The journey of life may be lonely
They need a loving companion
They need the great mighty god

Sherif Monem

Spring Celebration

Spring is the time of rebirth and renewal
A time when nature wipes its winter tears Spring is all happiness and hope A joyful season of beauty and delight for colorful flowers and fragrant roses for green pastures and the shady trees
One year of our lives have passed Looking for new spring of love and songs Spring is for sunshine and blue skies Spring has been celebrated through times
In many cultures and at different lands
Some fancy spring feast with touch of art
The nicely decorated bright color eggs
The lovely peaceful cute white bunnies
The symbol of fertility and multiplying
Some have happy food cookouts and picnics With party music and dance among friends Oh' spring! You are the queen of the year

Sherif Monem

Strawberry And Orange

I like strawberry juice
You like Orange juice
I like the red color
You like blue color
I like violet color
You like pink color Looks now like
We will never be alike
Do we have anything in common
I like to kiss on the lips
You like to kiss on the neck
I like to sleep in the bed
You like to sleep on the couch Can we still after all? fall in such deep love?

Sherif Monem

Summer Sunny Days

The sunny summer days
It is our leisure time
They are easy and no rush
The sun is shiny and bright
The white clouds are scant Summer is great pure fun
The picnics and nice cook outs
The beaches are wonderful place at the oceans and sea shores
The beautiful lakes and ponds Enjoy sailing and go fishing Walk along the forest trails Climb safely the high mountains Summer days can be really hot So be ready with with refreshments Watermelons, mangoes and grapes Cold drinks with plenty of ice Soda pops and the Kool-Aid

Sherif Monem

Sunset Goodbye

The sunset sends message goodbye
A long day is coming to an end
The blazing sun soon will depart
The sun sinks behind the horizon
The sun orange disk disappears
The forces of night dominate
As the darkness invades the shy sky
A mysterious feeling spreads inside
The chill of the night flirts around
The sun leaves us with heavy heart Wishing we have a peaceful night
Feeling great sincere pity for us
For our daily struggle in life
Soon the moon will come and shines Giving company to our lonely hearts
The above silver stars will glitter Like diamonds in the huge vast sky
In wonderful master display of beauty
Our universe remains for us an enigma Makes us cry for such great wonder

Sherif Monem

Suzie Kisses

Smile Suzie, Suzie
Give me a big kiss
So sweet and honey
So lovely and sensuous Reaching seven heavens Playful Suzie, Suzie
Give me big a hug Please keep it tender tight and warm Let it filling me with ultimate pleasure Happy Suzie, Suzie
Radiate your charm
Keep me dream all day about you your kisses and embrace and your beautiful face

Sweet Love Turns Sour

My once sweet Love
Now tastes Lemon sour Bitter, bitter every hour
I tried very hard
I played my cards
My luck was blank
I missed the bet
My love is gone
I lost her fun
I packed my luggage
I am riding the carriage Looking for new love
In distant far lands

Tears Of Sadness And Joy

When you feel down and sad
After long struggle and hurt Tears come to comfort your soul Healing your emotional wounds For the pain and sacrifices and hardship you went through When you meet your love and your dreams come true
There will be tears of joy Tears are great blessing Nature have endowed Tears can be for sadness
When mortality strikes
When you lose loved one If you get hurt and injured there will be sorrow and pain tears will come rushing down Tears are a world of their own
A mystery of nature
How they all came about How they were evolved from that time immemorial Tears are part of our human nature Even the young children shed tears same as those adult get shocked of disappointing painful news
Our bodies look for a refuge
We will shed tears
Without them the wounds will grow
The emotions will hardly heal
The hurtful feeling inside
Will be begging to be cured

Tears Of Sorrow

Tears of Sorrow flaunting me
Will the hot tears wash my pain?
Will the happy times that rolled by come back again cheering me Will the morning lights shine and it's rays brighten my day?
Will the constant pain persist Teasing the vanquished dreams?
The pain in the heart is endured
The taste of life is sour
With the tears soaking my eyes Trying over to console me?
Will they finally heal the injured hurt of soul?

Temple Of Love

It is raining in my heart
The clouds of darkness above hanging and filling the skies
I am looking for my love
This all rings in my ears
Where is my love?
The chill fills my body
Where is my love?
The whispers of my love
I hear them from far away
From a distant land
At the temple of love
I walk the long roads
I pass the valleys
I climb the hills
I took to the seas
All to find the temple of love
Where the lovers sing and chant
All praying to find their love
Here at the top of the mountain Behind the tall and shady trees
Among the gardens of flowers
I hear the singing of lovers
I entered the temple of love Here my love is worshipping?
Waiting to meet me to warmly embrace
The journey is over
I found my ever love
The happiness is complete

Thanks For The Flowers And Roses

Thanks you for the flowers and roses
The secret message of love between us
Thanks For the flowers and roses
Each flower and rose tells a story of happy moments we spent together As we walked down at the beach Holding hands in affection Exchanging tender soft kisses at the breezy blue ocean shore The red roses and fragrant flowers they are very special to keep For your warm tender hugs
For the lasting wonderful joy Laying down on the beach sands Looking into each other's eyes
Dreaming and gazing to the sky Theses happy moments last forever
For memory that will not be erased

The Angry Sea

I love the tranquil sea
I like its blue color
I like to watch and gaze
It brings me feeling of peace
Its vastness touching the horizon
Its majesty and grand mystery
I like to watch the waves
Their rhythmic grace
As they grow and grow reaching new heights come very fast and crash at the ocean shore
However in a fateful day
It is getting windy
The wind is becoming stronger
The gray clouds are menacing
The skies are heavily darkened
The sea is getting angry angrier and angrier
The waves are threatening getting higher and higher
They are coming in great force
They are hitting the shores hard
The waves pass the shore line
They are reaching the land They slam the homes hitting the trees
The rain is heavy falling
There are lot of destruction People flee their homes
The streets are flooded
The cars are stranded
The angry sea wild and still raging The dark clouds covering the skies Days are passed in horror
After reign of terror ends Everything getting quieter

No waves hitting the shore No waves reaching land and in the early morning at dawn and faint lights the sea will become peaceful and joyful again and the lovely sea gulls will land on the shore

The Arrival Of My Love

I am thrilled
I am so So happy
I am filled with joy
My love will come soon
I am ecstatic and jubilant
The roses and flowers will smile Chasing out the darkness and gloom
The moments of time pass as whisper Miracles make you wonder Tomorrow will come with soft light Seeping like gentle water stream passing through the peaceful valleys and the merry fields Patience pays off
For the dreary days gone
The shining love will arrive
No more restless nights alone Counting the stars of the sky
For the silver moon watching For the many times witnessing glaring at the clock on the wall For every hour it chimes awaking me with wondering sensation A song of beautiful tunes kept me wondering and amused How the time marches steadily Like troops in the open field
The sound of the drummers the loud reverberation of the horn Keeping me dreaming
As the pages of life are turning
And the ultimate triumph
The arrival of my sweet love

The Assassination Of Abraham Lincoln

It was brief and short sad moment time of history
That still flashes and rings in the painful memory of the nation Enjoying and his wife Mary Todd the play 'Our American Cousin'
In the midst of the laughter and roar applause of the audience
A southerner John Wilkes Booth full of anger, hatred and revenge
He entered the Lincoln's lounge hitting the president by a bullet
It was fatal and landed in the back of Lincoln's head
The assassin jumped from the balcony and injured his foot Outside the theater he fled on a horse heading to the south
Two weeks later he fatally met his fateful end
A single bullet of Sergeant Boston Corbett hit him in his head Trapped in a burning barn of a Virginia farm he laid dead
The assassination of Abraham Lincoln was a painful shock to a nation whose wounds did not heal yet from long civil war
The Abraham Lincoln death happened at the peak of his triumph
A triumphant victory after so many years of bruising conflict
A nation just united again and looking for bright future Ending centuries of slavery and humiliation of blacks in chains
A promise of bringing dignity and honor for all the races Opening the long road for full equality and supreme justice
A holy struggle for all to live in peace and harmony
For all who share the land of America and call it their home

The Autumn Joy

The hot summer just passed
The cool autumn has arrived
The trees are magically adorned With pretty stunning colors Happily like a celebrating bride
On her fabulous wedding night
The swift flurry of gentle wind comes in a hurry greeting the autumn The tree branches hiss in chorus swinging in joyful ecstasy All in grace and harmony
The golden sun rays shine over the valleys and fields Over the pastures and lakes
Over the peaceful hamlets We all can hear the autumn very special melody tunes

Sherif Monem

The Autumn Months Melody

The hot summer days slowly rolled by and gone
The cool autumn months have wonderfully arrived
The autumn majestic spirit permeates the land
It is the another new day of autumn months
The bright sun above the horizon appears
It sends its golden rays and gentle warmth
It greets the valleys, mountains and hamlets Nature has dressed in stunning beautiful colors
The jolly trees are painted red, yellow and brown
The autumn trees adorn the quiet valleys
The mountains peeks hug the near by skies
It is a full portrait of panoramic dazzle
The brisk wind blows over the open fields
The cool wind sweeps the meadows and plains
The slim trees gently dance and bow in grace
The tree branches hiss, swing and sway
The shivering leaves quiver with the wind
The green pastures are dotted with mosaic of fallen scattered dried brownish leaves The joyous birds sing their happy songs the playful beavers run around the trees
The ducks have leisure time in the ponds
The silver fish glitters in the water stream
All the scene brings a solemn joy to the heart
The sun slowly climbs the immense blue skies
The autumn patchy clouds cast their shadow on the land
All are painting an awesome picture of beauty and love

Sherif Monem

The Autumn Splendor

The summer months have rolled by Steadily as marching musical band

The cool autumn has finally arrived in delightful terrific hurry

The trees are magnificently adorned with brilliant colors in much joy

As pretty bride at her wedding night
The crisp wind passes by gently

The trees swing along with happiness
All full of beauty and spell harmony

The sun golden rays shine brightly Awakening sleeping world into ecstasy

You can hear the silent melodies of the autumn months splendor

The Beautiful Moon

As the sun at the horizon sets when the daylight is gone when the night approaches A new visitor in the sky will appear with brilliance
It is our neighbor loved moon
A gift from our creator God never leaves us alone in the blind harsh vast world The moon sends its silver rays taking over sun golden rays
It is beautiful and charming Always in marvelous display in variety at different shapes of lovely dazzling crescent to the glamorous full moon The moon moves leisurely in mysterious destiny trip Then after full long night it finally says goodbye the bright sun rises again trumpeting new morning and brand new day to come

The Beautiful Pond

In life one seeks happiness
One seeks nature beauty
One seeks spirit thrill Nature is our companion friend for us forever
I love wonderful ponds
A serene peaceful part of nature
I admire it and get mesmerized
The pond is tranquil safe haven
The ducks love it and swim leisurely in a row
The green trees surround it Stand guard for its beauty
The birds of all types fly above
The fish silver and gold
They all call it their home
The pond in spring and summer are touch of paradise One swims, rides a canoe and sails on a boat In winter the rain pours
The snow is lot abound
The white snowflakes glitter
The flurries keep coming Spreading tender kisses
The winter very cold days tell a new different story
The pond has finally succumbed no waves,movement and it freezes
The white sheet of ice is a cover
A new amazing dress from nature
When winter months are all over There is new great celebration for the last season of the year the spring, summer and fall all revolve in succession Oh, Oh, Oh and forever
I love the world of ponds

The Bus Stop

Waiting at the bus stop
When the bus will come Will it be by luck on time or late as many other times in the midst of traffic
I see the bus surely coming Humming and in little hurry
Now, is it the right bus Oh, there is a line of folks anxious for the bus ride Searching for money for fare Slipping dollars and coins
At the driver ticket machine
Then trying to find a seat
Oh, there is an empty one In a hurry claim the prize Sit down and totally relax Look through the window
Watch and enjoy the ride
Now you have finally arrived
You reached your destination Get out of the bus safely Say thank you to the driver and wave to the bus goodbye

The Child's Smile

Paint smile on the child face
Let the smile radiate and shine Let the happiness spread around The child is new happy member of our kind billions human race
The young child born in our world needs to survive, be happy and grow Surrounded with tenderness and care
If the child is hungry he will cry
If the child is lonely he will cry Talk to the child and gently sing Touch, hug and give him embrace Give the child the nourishing food Give him healthy refreshing drinks Dress him with comfortable clothes Smile to the sweet child again
He and she will smile back at you In their smiles lay the innocence in world of joy and fairy dreams

Sherif Monem

The Day I Met You

I felt an awesome feeling
I have never felt before I thought I was just dreaming I thought I was in journey far away out of this world Now I had gladly met you My dreams became true
You are the shining star Sparking love in my life
In my eyes and my mind
You are part of my soul
A pretty melody and song Filling my heart with joy

Sherif Monem

The Day She Left You

The day she left you
You felt deep sorrow
You felt much pain
You felt like a lonely fish Lost in the vast ocean Now you look for new love to fill the void in your heart Is your search in vain?
Patience all what you can do till your wounds heal till you find new love that will bring joy back in your heart

The Earthquake

Powerful earthquake comes Strongly shaking the land
There is enormous fear
There is wild panic Great much felt horror Buildings sway and sway Men, women and children run fast and further away All they can to escape for safe haven and refuge Lot of prayers and hope cries calling for help Seconds over more seconds Hardly a minute passed
It is now all over
Seems it lasted forever Thee violent moments
How relief at present
When the shaking stops
There are many stories
Of all what happened Search between rubbles of collapsed dwellings for ones who got buried for injured and the dead
This is the tragic end

Sherif Monem

The End Of The Road

I reached the end
How I have arrived
I would not know
It was a long journey Chiseled with stone Paved with rocks in midst of rain roses and flowers
I passed the life
In mysterious way
The clock of time kept moving ahead
It never stopped
At this life stage
I can't return back Now I can see far hazy sign flickering behind the thick fog Exit the planet earth Entrance to heaven to the unknown world

Sherif Monem

The End Of The World

All of Sudden it is very real
What we have been told all along A day feared throughout the ages
It is the end of the world
It is horror over the place
The last chapter of the book of humanity we witnessing The world brings us vividly its own fateful conclusion The last page of life it is about to close soon Goodbye to our home world
It is a total destruction
A total complete annihilation
The nature is at extreme rage
The scorching sun glowing red It sends signal to planet earth Swiftly the angry oceans and seas rise and roar Mercilessly sendS huge waves Smashing the deserted shores
The powerful wind storms and fires are all around The woods and valleys are in raging flames The cities are ravaged crumbling and ablaze
The arcs of light pierce the dark vast skies
The earth violently trembles
The grounds are shaking mercilessly over and over Sounds of loud thunders send anxiety and fears All life come to waste
The plants and animals and our own human race all are in pretty ruin
It is end of civilization

It is end of our world Hope for a new better one Hope for a new better life

The First Day Of Summer

It is June the twenty first
It is the longest day of summer
It is the longest day of the year for the world upper hemisphere
The sun rises in hurry early
The sun sets much too late Summer is fun time Summer is jolly time Summer has lot of sunshine A great time for vacations for schools recess For warm sandy beaches for swimming and ball for white sail boats for lakes fishing for lakes canoeing
For mountains hikes For happy picnics with families and friends the barbecues and drinks
So enjoy these long days of summer
They are beautiful and refreshing
They are fabulous part of the year

The First Kiss

The first memorable Kiss Smelled as roses and flowers We were in a green garden the first time we kissed Walking hand in hand happily
We laid down on the grass
Below the giant oak tree Looking at the blue sky Watching the white clouds Leisurely passing by Watching the water streams
The bright blazing sun inaugurated our precious moments
We overcame our innocent shyness
We tasted the honey sweet kisses
The cherished fountain of pleasure
The impassioned hidden desire

The Girl From The Bronx

The pretty girl from the Bronx tall and tan
sweet and lovely
The tight red skirt
So cute and lovely
The black brim hat a touch of mystery In pink high heels
she swings lightly
Oh tall and tan
Sweet and lovely
The girl from Bronx
Sweet and lovely

Sherif Monem

The Girl From The Bronx County

Sweet and lovely
The Dominican girl of the Bronx county Tall and tan
Sweet and lovely
She walks down the quiet street merrily and happily Her silky hair long and shiny Her brim black hat a world of mystery Her short red skirt so tight and elegant With her shapely legs
She looks very sexy
With pink high heels
She swings lightly
in bright sunny day She smiles sweetly cheers and whistles for this pretty girl from the Bronx county

The Girl Premonition

The little girl in her room She watched the green tree through the glass window
It was snowy and cold outside the night was approaching
The wind was blowing
The white snowflakes were tossed and flying in the air hitting the tree leaves
The girl lays in bed sick Feeling pity for the falling tree leaves scattering around Her mother near her praying
She told her mother
Mom I have premonition
If in the next morning if all the tree leaves fall
I will be heart stricken very sad and I will die
The tree leaves kept falling and the mother kept crying What will happen to my daughter the next morning come with all this wind and snow?
The man living floor above have heard the conversation at the middle of night He was singing loud going down the crack stairs the girl was awakened
She told her mother
The drunkard man looks drunk again
She went to sleep
her mother comforted her then there was peace the wind still raving hitting the window glass
As the day morning broke the girl told the mother open the window curtain

I want to see the tree any tree leaves left?
yes, there are leaves
Mom I am cured
Mom I do not feel sick
The mother was surprised
She ran down stairs close to the tree
She saw the drunken man laying down covered with snow
He have died through the night
Beside him there was tree branch
With artificial leaves hanging
The mother realized what happened
This man who was singing loudly over night as he hanged the leaves
The mother hurried up to her daughter
She told her the drunkard man living in the floor above have died She told her he was great man and now you have a new life

The Girl Snowy Night Premonition

The girl in her room watching a cold night
The snow was falling the sun was setting
The wind was blowing
The ice snow flakes flying up in the air hitting the lone tree
The girl in her bed sick Felt pity for the tree
Her mother near her praying
She told her mother
Mom I have abomination
If in the morning light
if all the tree leaves fall
I will I will soon die
The tree leaves kept falling
The mother kept crying saying What will happen to my daughter in the morning with all this wind and snow?

In the middle of the night
The man living the above floor was singing loud going downstairs the girl was awaken
She told the mother
The drunkard man
is loud and looks drunk
She went to sleep
there was quiet peace only the sound of the wind hitting the room walls

as the day morning broke
I want to see the tree

if any leaves left?
yes, there are leaves
Mom I am cured
Mom I do not feel sick

The mother was surprised
She ran down stairs
Went to the ravaged tree
She saw the drunken man in the snow have died Beside him was tree branch
With artificial leaves hanging
The mother realized what happened
Why the man was all the night singing loudly beneath the tree
The mother hurried up to her daughter
living in the floor above has died
She told her he was great man

The Girls From Ghana And Nigeria

The girls from Ghana
The girls from Nigeria
They are seeking men even far as Siberia You may have seen them in the web dating sites the singles seeking love with smiley pretty faces with seductive dress they need rich men Sugar sweet daddy
Love you honey
I need some money So watch them carefully
the girls from Ghana
the girls from Nigeria
Be smart, open your eyes be vigilant and alert they may throw their net and catch you like fish

The Invasion Of The Earth Fantasy

The space alien invaders are near They are approaching planet earth
The dark clouds are hanging
The lights went off in the city
In the streets in commotion
The radio and TV announcements
The earth have been invaded Fires in all cities and towns
The sirens of vehicles going to hospitals
The crews picking the sick and hurt
The air full of dark smoke and odor
The fire fighters are busy working Strange planes appear flying all over The sound of crackling machines Reports of the aliens presence all over the country and over the lands, sees and oceans
The railroads are knocked out The airports are shut down the harbors on fire and ruined All bright colors and lights flashing all over the sky lightening the massive clouds
The sound of the aliens vehicles Buzzing and getting louder
They are flying lower and lower
They are in huge great numbers
The space aliens have landed
The earth have been occupied

The Life Exit

I have reached the end
It was long road
The flickers of the past often visit my mind
It was a great life
I passed many obstacles
I fulfilled many dreams
There were many hardships
There were times of agony
Other moments of despair
There were times of happiness Enshrined with crowns of joy
It looks the road was long What remains now seems short
The red signs all around When the final exit will be Certainly, I would not know All what I know then is to say goodbye welcome to unknown world

The Loving Mother Sun

The sun is proud special great star
Mother of Earth and sister planets Venus, Jupiter and Mars to name few
The sun is in travelling in space Cruising among other giant stars Within the galaxy of the milky way
The sun is caring much adoring awesome ball of hot eternal fire Nourishing us with life and warmth
How much we thank our mother sun Without her our lives will vanish
No place else to go and survive
We will be lost in this universe

The Magic Rainbow Island

At far distance away in midst of vast ocean Lays a mysterious island
As the folks stories tell
The island appears as wonder Dazzling with colorful lights
After a day with heavy rain
A magic grand rainbow appears Like crown of glittering lights Then a graceful young lady with beautiful colorful gown stands on top of a hill Carrying in her hand
A silver magic wand What next to happen is a world of wonder A rainbow color appears
The color of red first The trees turn into red the sky then becomes red the green grass turns red everything turns red even the birds that fly the fish in the water as the night soon comes the silver stars turn red the moon smiles and turn red here comes the next day the heavy rain pours again the halo of rainbow color so beautiful stark and bright the young lady comes back with the shiny silver wand wearing long orange gown the same panorama
In dazzling orange color Every thing turns orange now day after another the rainbow color change yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet at the last the magic of the rainbow of the mystery island always has been told new generation after another Is it actual reality or a dream of this magic rainbow island?

No one can precisely tell you Perhaps in the old folklore books one can luckily find and discover

The Month Of May

I love this great month of May
It is the month of fresh flowers
Thanks for these April showers
It brought garden full of colors
The month of May is outstanding It is the fifth month of the year after January, February, March and April
The month of May happily came Soon June will come in some hurry Signalling half year almost passed
I do not like these months pass quickly
Let us enjoy them as sweet and no rush Let's have them fill us with happiness
Let's enjoy the sun and the fresh air So month of May please go slow by Do not forget the flowers and aroma
The month of May is basket of flowers
The Marigold, the Azalea and Jasmin
The magnolia, Auburn and Yarrow Welcome, Welcome the month of May

The September Month

The month of September

So special and so dear

It is sorrowful reminder

It is soon the end of a year

The weather changes gradually

The mighty nature in whisper signals

The long summer months have departed

The arrival of cold winter months

November and December are waiting

Another year of our lives will pass becomes another year and just memory

The wheels of time never stop turning

Our life years will keep rolling

September! Oh September!

Hopefully and we still dream

Life will get rosier and prettier

Enjoy life and all celebrate soon there will be a new season the foliage and its stunning beauty

The proud festive days of nature

When nature displays a portrait of colorful trees, sparkling streams green mountains and peaceful valleys September is a month of reflection
For life and what is it all about?
For days of light rain and shy flowers
There is always hope and assurance of fabulous lovely happy new year

The Shadow Of Your Smile

A reminiscent of time of time that long passed the happy times we had came and soon departed the times of laughter joy and sunny days All they quickly cruise in my memory lane
No one will bring back what once the heart have cherished and much desired The moments of the past that just betrayed us Gone far and far away in a sad serenade One wonders, sense awe and feels the whispers of these moments of life That will not come back still they whirl in mind at the shadow of your smile

The Shredding Of Jiji

It is now all over
The mirror is broken Stories been shredded JiJi is gone
JiJi is mystery
JiJi JiJi
The flower that once blossomed has been lost in midst of fog Devoured by demons Still there is faint call sometimes comes of sweet JiJi that once was the queen of the heart

The Sinking Of Steamship Titanic

Tragedy had visited in bold letters
There were many icebergs around The ship collided with a hidden one
The captain realized what had happened
There were calls for quick evacuation Women and children were to leave first
The water was dark, chilly and icy There were some lifeboats but few
The passengers were in total panic
Many jumped off the ship board From hypothermia many soon died Calls for rescue ships in the area
Please come in hurry and help Telegraphic signals were sent The Titanic sank in few hours
A tragic page of history unfolded More than thousand lives perished
The first ship came to rescue more than two hours too late The frightened passengers on lifeboats were pulled up to the rescue ship The raging waters beneath showed no mercy or moment of care Across the other side of the ocean At New York city port friends and relatives all were anxiously waiting

The Son Travels To Distant Land

Your heart feels lonely
When your son leaves you Travelling to distant land
He is not any more around You don't hear his voice
You don't hear him talking You don't see him nearby Adjust to new realities Accept life as it changes wipe your heart sadness Time is the only remedy
For our hearts to heal

The Song Of Love

The cool summer wind gently passes Sweeping over the red rose gardens
The sun smiles back far above
The azure blue heaven in affection embraces the planet green earth
It is a wonderful a new day Lets Make it happy filled with joy
Let's sing along the song of love
Let's walk through the plain fields
Among the white lilies and red roses Let's walk through the bushes and trees lets hold hands affectionately together Lets hear the birds merrily singing Let's watch the beavers playing the squirrel jumping and running Lets hear the beats of our hearts as we get closer and full of joy Let's hear the happy tunes and the melodies of pretty love songs

The Stars Of The Sky

At the midst darkness of the nights the stars shine brightly in the sky
The dazzling panorama inspires us
It tells the glory of our creator of the mysterious universe we live Magnificent, dazzling and beautiful Enormously large and fascinating
So alluring captures our souls
All feeling of wonderment and sigh Billions of years ago been told The universe came into being Through single massive explosion
The stars raced through space Forming fascinating galaxies
The theater of time has began
The curtain was wide opened On the stage all powerful dramas of events we have never witnessed of future episodes of the universe
We may never watch or ever comprehend

The Story Of Life

It was hard journey
We went all through It will not be long before it is all over
Do you see the sign?
Do you prepare to depart
It is a repetitive story since the start of time through many generations Every one endured it Every one passed it
What then we can do
When the end is near When the cup of life finally fully empty
Do we really know
When this will happen
When sign of life dims When there will be hot tears and cries When nature reclaim you
When you all vanish
When you not remember

The Sunshine After The Rain

The dark gray clouds are gone
The sun is back in mighty glory crowned with the golden rays Sending love and warmth to all to the inhabitants of the earth The nature beauty is revealed the rain water drops linger kissing the shy red roses Kissing the flowers and lilies So happily they dance together the pastures sparkling green The shady trees span the field the skies painted crystal blue the white patches of clouds leisurely passing in the sky A lovely singing portrait nourishing our thirsty souls The sunshine here again came back after the rain

The Tulip Flower

The Tulips are divine and pure beauty
From first look you fall in love
The Tulip flowers have bright colors Pure white, red, yellow and pink So delicate and emanates passion
They have grace and flair of pride
They were noticed centuries ago
The Ottoman sultans so admired
The Dutch soon they knew about it
They brought Tulips to their land
At was a commodity as valuable as gold Fields of Tulips you see in Holland
So breathtaking and dazzling with joy
They are now known all around the world
With graceful shape they add a mystique

The Wedding Night

It is gala night full of pleasure
Rich in memories that last forever

My bride carries a bouquet of flowers
She is dressed in gown full of glitter

We walk together side by side
So happy and full of happiness

There are lots of family and guests
All celebrating this special occasion.

The dance hall is beautifully decorated
There are colorful lights flashing

The musical band fabulously entertaining
I and my bride exchange loving glances

We turn around joining hands starting sweet romantically dancing

Soon the happy crowds join the floor
Turning, swinging and having a blast

The music is loud and cheerful Nostalgic songs with magic beat

The party reaches top mid-night
We hop in a limousine and depart

Everybody enjoyed the festivities Rich in memories and happy times

The silver bells of happiness chime and ring melodically

The Weeping Rose

As the morning lights early breaks the chill of the night disappears
I look at the gardens and fields Running around looking for red rose Red rose to give to my special love Days have come Days have passed Seasons have come Seasons have passed
The days became gloomy
The sunny rays become hazy
My heart became heavy I looked for the red rose behind the fields
In midst of shrubs
I found the red rose She was silently weeping when she saw me
I heard her saying
Oh my friend no more
Your love has gone away
With sad heart I walked away Thinking of my dear love that I sourly have missed

The Winter

The winter season have come
We soon suddenly realize

The winter days are short
The winter nights are long

The warmth of the sun is missing
The cold in the air is felt

The trees look bare and sad
The leaves on branches fallen

The skies are gray dark Grim uninviting and gloomy

The birds paid farewell and departed
The bears in their shelters hiding

This is the winter times lot
It will not last forever

Soon after an earth brief journey
Life and spring will come again

There will be rebirth and renewal
For a beautiful joyful new season

The World Of Love

love can be full of bitter and hurt Love can be much sweet and joyful
It can be a cup of milk and honey
It can be a cup of bitter and sadness
It is battle you conquer or surrender
So before you enter this amazing world
You need to have all your precautions Wear your shiny armor full of glitters
Be ready and move forward with courage
Be romantic and sing a melodious song Carry a pretty bouquet of flowers Winning hearts and seducing lovers

Time In Our Lives

Days slowly come days hurriedly go Yesterday will not come back again
Every day as it passes you are a day older Tomorrow waits to come behind the dark cloak Time is a cosmic machine runs with no fuel
It has great impact on us and no wonders Since the dawn of history days kept coming like ocean waves hitting the empty shores Generations had came and others had gone dynasties came and others had departed Empires were born and others were perished
Time is fascinating and time is intriguing Time has hold of us on our aging biology of our existence and finally our demise

Traveling Life Fast Lane

Traveling many fast lanes of life
No slowing, lurking and no stops Passing the highways and byways in a hurry watching the speed signs Passing detours and avoiding traps Pressing on the pedestal to go faster Swinging right and left to avoid crashes Passing the super flashy cars and minivans Campers, rigs and heavy 24-foot trucks Finally nearing the ultimate destination and handing the torch to a new generation
It is the end story of our fabulous lives

True Love Mystery

True love remains a mystery
You know why you love someone You may not know truly ever if the other sincerely loves you Is it to be a true love will it pass the test of time Love has many facets Love has many reasons
A secret of the heart
Hard for the mind to explain
Are you sincere and trust worthy Handsome and physically appealing Successful and have lot of money
You bring happiness and laughter
If you lose any of these facets Will you still be sincerely loved If misfortunes cruelly happen and affliction takes place Will the love still remain
The future holds lot hidden as you peel the mystery layers the hidden reality of of love finally brilliantly appears through the mist and heavy fog

Sherif Monem

Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Stars

Twinkle, twinkle little stars
Tell me, tell me where you are Hiding, hiding in the vast space Sending mystery rays from far place Dazzling, dazzling
Lonely, lonely, distant away Beautiful, beautiful all the way Pretty, pretty, pretty Shining silver light Seeking friends at planet earth Candles, candles keep flickering, flickering in the festive panoramic sky Diamonds, diamonds
Precious ones
Bring us joy
Bring us happiness Filling the lonely hearts little stars, little stars Keep us company all night Tiny, tiny dancing around Glitter, glitter, glitter oh little, little stars

Sherif Monem

Two Kisses

One kiss is not enough
Two kisses are much better One sweet kiss on the cheek the other on the soft lips
One kiss is quick and Joyful
The other kiss lasts longer more sensuous and honey Pick one kiss or the other However two kisses
Always much better
If the two kisses are not enough Go for little more
It is far better

Universe Is Born

Before time ever existed
Before the sun and the moon
the earth and planets Before we ever existed Before our precious life Lays a mysterious explosion
Why it happened never known Baffling and full of power
It gave the birth of universe Growing, Growing, growing Spinning, spinning, spinning
The stars and galaxies shine
The quasars and supernova
All race in dark empty space
The time begins and ticking for new universe at infancy We keep wondering and guessing the bang billions of years ago

University Of Love

University of Love is exciting place
When you enter the University of Love
You will be going into great adventure Study hard and practice with dedication
You will learn about love fundamentals Innovative techniques and strategies
There will be quizzes and love tests
First semester will be about kissing You need to know about the queues the hidden sweet sensation signals
The syllable every bit is wonderful
You will learn quick like an expert The first exciting lesson is how to kiss softly and not in any hurry to kiss so sweetly like honey Kiss with great passion Watch the lips when they curl
When they look like flowers Kiss, kiss and kiss
The cheek, the neck and what else Do your home work with your lover Get closer, closer and huddle Lay on the couch and practice
Do not miss the tests Otherwise, you will flunk Keep your spirit high Do not get discouraged Get closer and closer Snuggle and huddle again Look at the eyes and no flinch finally you will happily pass with flying dazzling colors You will get your love diploma with the greatest honors Congratulations are all due Always Love, Love and Love Always remember what you have learned at University of Love

Vanished Dreams

The trees falling crisp brown leaves Floating down the winding water stream
They vanish slowly in front of my eyes Behind the shrubs and lonely trees
They are reminder of my vanished dreams
The dreams of life that once glowed
They swept away and soon died Life marches in front of you like a band
The dreams you built crashes down Like a castle you built on sand Vanish and leave inside crying pain Dreams were like quick flashes in a panoramic movie screen Depicting the story of your life Time has been told the best remedy
The wounded scars will slowly heal
Now you adjust to new realities
And ride safely in vessel of life

Viola Crushed My Heart

Lovely Viola crushed my heart
She left me and slipped away
To the far country of New Zealand
To the blue Hawke's bay
I gazed at the dark skies
I counted the stars Waiting for a comet that saw Viola To fall and flash in the sky to tell me where she are I sailed the oceans
I fought the high waves
I met hurricanes Searching for Viola who crushed my heart Gone and slipped away

Sherif Monem

Viola Hungry For Love

Viola hungry For Love

For sensuous pleasure

When her body shivers

With joy and ecstasy

When lover have her treasure

Viola is master piece

A quiet merciless beast

She can devour her lover

Drain him from last drop of power

Viola you have to watch

With her green eyes

With her ivory figure

Viola is a temple to fear and worship and ascend to heaven

Sherif Monem

What Is A Kiss

What is the secret of a beautiful kiss
A wonder moment you should not miss When your lips touch your lover's lips
When there is some awe and little hiss
When you ascend to heaven and reach the sky
When there is euphoria and you feel so high Remember the kiss a boat of lilies streaming down the happiness lane
A world of fantasy and pleasure
The kisses you can have anywhere
At a garden full of roses and flowers On the field and laying below shady trees at the midst of rivers, lakes and oceans Kisses you can feel it deep and so sweet It tastes as honey and fanciful treats
So now you know what is a kiss
It is something try not to miss

Sherif Monem

When I Am Gone

When one day I am gone to place far far away Nobody should cry
No one should shed tears
My lifeless body
Will be for nature to reclaim Nothing will ever change
The sun will rise again
There will be days and nights Days after days will pass Years after years
For million years to come
The clouds will fill the skies
The rain will fall
Our pity lives are just small waves That hit the vast ocean shores in a moment they will splash and soon regrettably wash away

Sherif Monem

When Your Lips Touched Mine

When your lips touched my lips
I lost all my senses
I lost my presence
All my feelings were numb
I felt I am in new world swept by playful waves in oceans of pleasures Soon I came back
I opened my eyes
I saw your shining face I knew I was in a journey reaching far out in space and back to the earth with tender kisses and lips that smell fresh like nectar of flowers

Sherif Monem

Whirlwind Of Love

Love and fire are strange mix
I got caught in love whirlwind
The flames go higher and higher
The love got hotter and hotter
The flames of love turned ice
The love got cooler and cooler Fire and ice are very amazing Love and fire and whirl-wind
All ended when the ice soon Killed the raging love fire

Sherif Monem

Winter Rainy Day

It is still raining
It is pouring rain
It is cold and windy
It is winter day
The thick dark clouds hanging over the sky
The gloom fills the air
It is winter day
You hear the humming sound coming persistent of the falling rain
It is winter day
The sun behind the clouds have left and disappeared
The blue sky turned gray
It is winter day
Winter is special time of the year
When nature sheds plenty of tears Touching our thirsty souls Bringing us rain water to live Precious water for the plants for lands, rivers and lakes All this just reasons we thank The winter cold rainy days

Sherif Monem

Wipe Your Misty Eyes

Be sure sweet darling
I will not leave you Smile and be cheerful Forever I will be for you Erase any faint doubts that I don't love you any little doubts that I don't care Beam your smile
Have some laughter
Sure darling
I am for you
You are for me
Happiness tied us a knot
So trust me darling
I am in love with you and flame of love will not die away

Sherif Monem

Women Are Not Honey

Women are not all sweet and honey Women are natural biological attraction for men their voice, body contours are men's fascination Women however, can make man jump over the roof Women can be constant complainer Women can be nagging to extreme Women can try to control and make you a toy Women can be asking for money and make you cry Women may show no real love to you or just little bit of care So remember women you dream
They are not always sweet
They are not all honey

Sherif Monem

World Of Colors

How do you think and imagine the world would look like Without pretty colors around us Colors are gift of the creator colors are pleasant mystery
think of the fresh flowers their brilliant colors the red roses sending joy Nature is great painter with brush draws this blue sky With touch these white clouds with brush these azure oceans the green fields and gardens Have you ever wondered the greatness of our creator this master artist this master painter of this beautiful world

Sherif Monem

World Of Joy

It is a bright new day
It is the spring time
I feel though I am sad Walking through the woods Seeking solace and peace with the tall basque trees there are dim light streaks from the top of the trees following the narrow tracks Hearing the frogs croaks
Jumping around the ponds Adding to the sadness
The track suddenly ends
The sun light appears shining on the scene All of while entering the garden of Eden
I hear the soft music of merry joyful world all joyous and vibrant I hear a wonderful call Everybody should be happy the birds are singing Why are you sad?
It is the garden of Eden
We are your new friends
The swans in the pond cry No sadness in joyful land the roses happy and pretty the flowers and carnations and the white waterfalls All singing pretty songs of happy joyful world life is pretty and precious happiness finds no place but only in our hearts

Sherif Monem

World Peace

Have you thought about the world
How the world will look like When there are no wars and no fights
When there will be no pain and no sorrow Problems be solved with peaceful means
There will be justice and no prejudice
When the doves of peace will soar high
When the eagle of wars in hurry depart
When the prayers of peace will be heard All this what is needed
For sake of humanity and mankind Goodbye old world of raging wars Welcome the world of eternal peace

Sherif Monem

Yes He Loves You

Yes, he Loves You
Yes, he does
He cares about you
Yes, He cares
Love is a beautiful song
You can hear it in his voice
In his whispers to your ears
When he touches you and send sensation to your body When he looks deep in your eyes
A hidden un-uttered love Love resonates in you
When he melodiously say
I love you my angel

Sherif Monem

Yesterday

Yesterday has all gone will not come back again This may touch our hearts Fill it with sorrow and pain Happy moments you wished have not lasted forever Hurried up and gone away You are not certain what the future will bring
There is apprehension
There is doubtful fear
A bitter taste of agony
Some sadness and despair
The time marches on slowly but steadily never it can be reversed Yesterday is an enigma
What really it was Where it has gone
We live in fairy tale
The time marches on
With the clock ticks
It takes us in wild unknown long journey We never know for certain where it will lead us
And what may be the end

Sherif Monem

You Are Mine

Sweet honey and wine
You and I are twine
The bond of love plays such magic Destiny connected us at long last We are in love nest holding together All happiness cheers and joy singing together
You are for me
I am for you
I am yours and you are mine Remember that always and forever

Sherif Monem

You Are Young Only Once

You are young only once
The youth is burning candle flickers, flickers and goes away You may regret the fleeing of youth but time have passed quickly by slowly, slowly, day after day Once you were full of power
Now you are much weaker Once you looked forward for future as bright and beautiful Now you reflect more on past times
The pleasures of life have dwindled You may think about the joyful days and the special happy moments Now the body has lost its vigor What you can do just never feel sad just say simply I lived a happy full life Thanks for my lucky fortunes of today and past yesterday

Sherif Monem

You Crossed My Life

From nowhere on stage of life you appeared and shined Like flashing star in the dark night
Like the panorama lights of 4th of July Arrows of love landed in my heart
I was a willing victim of your charm
I thought we would be hooked forever Your love was destined not to last
There was time to finally depart Turning our backs and just walk away

Sherif Monem

You Live On Planet Earth Only Once

Our trip on planet earth is short
The days pass one by one so quickly Months follow other months like flash Years pass after years in a whisper stages of life do not look so long once you become old it is all certain soon it will be all over How to taste the life
Will it be all joy Happiness and dreams
What though are your goals
Is it necessary to have a goal For most of the people it is just survival game food, shelter and to breath
You do not live alone
You may have some people you love and cherish father and mother sons and daughters Brothers and sisters Are you afraid to lose any your heart will hurt filled with sadness and sorrow You worry for your own mortality for the unseen and forthcoming You live on planet earth once and only once You realize it deep within your lonely heart and hear its sad tunes in your lonely soul

Sherif Monem

Your Beautiful Eyes

Your beautiful eyes
They are splendid pretty and lovely
There is magic in them
That captures my soul A fountain of joy pouring into my heart When my eyes gaze into your eyes
I feel euphoria
A world of ecstasy and dreams Looking at your beautiful eyes Keeps me ever wondering Wishing the time comes still and my happiness never ends

Sherif Monem

Your Beautiful Lips

Your beautiful tender Lips with bright red lipstick Remind me of fresh roses They tell a story of love happiness and romance of temptation and desire of devotions and dreams Your delicate lips are luscious Honey and lovely Heavenly marveled
They whisper gently Come taste the paradise the soft petals of flowers the aroma and fragrance Your joyful beautiful lips Ascending me to heavens Awakening my inner wild soul

Sherif Monem

Your Heart Beats

When you are in deep love
Your heart beats tell a story
You are thinking about your love
The thoughts occupying your mind
You wish the time passes quickly Dreaming the moments you meet Every second, minute seem long You wish your love soon to come Waiting for the door knocks for a message and phone rings To hear the sweet voice the whispers of your love For the eye to eye glances For the tender touch for the passionate embrace for the song of hearts for the beautiful serenades

Sherif Monem

Your Kisses Are Honey

Honey, Honey, Honey
Your kisses are honey
I love the taste of honey Love your tender kisses
I love all your honey
I am feeling ascending high Reaching beautiful blue sky How many kisses are enough? one, two or three but many, many, many I love your world of kisses Pure honey and part of heaven

Sherif Monem

Your Love Is Drizzle

your love is drizzle
You have invaded my heart
You conquered it and occupied it Every corner have your image and dreams It is now illusion your love is a mirage An oasis in La La land
I built my love on house of cards An empty castle over shore quick sands
The ocean waves wash them away
There is no doubt it is final reality A bitter sour lemon and sad conclusion
It is all over now and your memories one day will dry

Sherif Monem

Your Tender Kisses

Your kisses are honey
Taste part of heaven
Your moist lips
They are soft as the rose petals washed with heavenly dew at early morning rise as I kiss you there is a kiss after kiss
It is hard to say enough
The kisses are slow it is so wonderful sweet and passionate They are rose garden of joy and pleasure

Sherif Monem
