Women

Women resembles water they are the source to live, Women resembles dove they are the symbol of peace, Women resembles eagle they are the symbol of power and victory, Women resembles nightingale they become a voice of nature, Women resembles pillars they are the pillars of love and caring, Women are born with the heart of thousand mothers-open and fearless Women are born with the zeal of queens-warrior who shed blood they have been phoenix everytime they burn to ashes and they know exactly how to rise again in hardships.
