At Night

Looking up at the sky I see a shooting star pass by It makes me think of you and everything we have ever been through and how fast it all has gone by Upon that shooting star I made a wish Praying that we will always remain the same Looking at you, talking to you I see it's true
I acknowledge that you truly care
You promise nothing will ever change
That you will be here besides me forever
You are here to stay
We both want to be in each other's lives forever
And talking with you I know it's true
But what do we do when that special someone comes between us
Of course I wish you the best of luck Day after day you say you are here to hold me tight
I love you and care about you more than words can ever say I want everything to be okay Wish to be with you night and day
I will forever love you No matter what you say or what you do Know this will always be true

Beach

As I walk along the deserted beach
I feel the damp sand surrounding my feet
I feel the cool relaxing breeze creep up upon me with ease
As I look out at the restless waves my thoughts unwind like restless days
The beach is a very quiet and calming place

Before

Before we met I prayed for someone who was strong, caring, kind, loving, and understanding Not believing I could find that special someone
The day I met you I will never be able to put into words For once in my life I was happy talking to someone
We were meant to meet Meant to be together that was destiny
We grew together
Soon we were as close as we both thought possible Than you asked me four magical words and I cried Replying yes
We grew stronger than we both thought possible once again Listening to one another Helping each other through everything I knew then that my prayer had been answered Knowing the one I had been searching for was finally found
We never judged for we both knew each other's pasts had been rough
We gathered out strength Linked arms and headed down the long road ahead of us
When one felt unsure the other took lead never letting our hope die.
Never pretending or lying to one another For we knew judgement would get us nowhere Being there for one another when stumbling Knowing we would catch each other if we fell
The hardest part of this whole journey though was when you took me in your strong arms Looked me in the eyes and told me the worst news ever Even though the doctors said you were ill you didn't give up and you forbade me to Even when time got tough and I wanted to lay in a corner and cry You'd pick me up and take my hand leading us back on that path we had started on Then I started getting scared as you grew weak and I knew it was my turn to lead unsure if I had the strength and courage without you being by my side.
But I knew you would never want me to give up That's not what you taught me to do Your battle increased and you slipped into a deep sleep
The doctor's said it was a comma

To me it was the beginning of losing you I held my head high like you taught me and you pushed through Soon though you went back and I became terrified.
The doctors told us there was a small chance of you pulling through
It was decided to let you pass away free of pain.
It was the hardest night of my life
Now it has been weeks and I miss you so bad
I still lay in bed at night at times crying when I need to be in your strong arms Trying to be strong but struggling so bad Wondering if I treated you the best I could Helped you all I could have Listened when I should have Been strong when you needed me to be Most of all though wondering why you had to go I know you are still here and always will own a piece of my heart but It's not the same
I miss you and want you back
Want to apologize for everything I did wrong All the fights we had

Before We Met

Before we met I wasn't sure what to do who to turn to I was afraid wanting to give up Feeling like no one understood me and never would Feeling hurt and scared Like love was not meant for me
That I would never find someone out there who trully cared Not opening up to many others Feeling like I would never heal Than one day I meet this amazing boy who was there for me from the start understanding me, comforting me when i got scared and guiding me when i became lost knowing that at times life is complicated and since then you have said that no matter what life brings us we will get through it together knowing we have to move on from our pasts and that you will be there for me as I will for you
We both have had rough pasts but we pull through life can be unfair but we get through it by being strong trying to forget the pain and sorrow Taking life day by day being thankful that I have you in my life I don't have enough words to begin to explain to you what you mean to me and what you have done for me never wanting to hide in the shadows again wanting to be here for you till the end when you cry, when your scared, when you need to be comforted, when you just need a friend, when you need a sister, or a girlfriend or just a shoulder to lean on

You will forever have a spot in my heart and I will forever love you and care for you
You have trully changed my life in so many ways that it is hard to explain and many people say i have changed their lives and helped them but you have helped me more than anyone in this world Day after day I think about you praying that you are ok Hoping you are safe and having a good day Wishing that I could be there with you holding your hand Saying not to be afraid together we will make it through

Wanting to let you know I will be here no matter if you are having a good or bad day
Letting you know that thinking of you gets me through the day
I can't help but looking forward till the time when I talk to you
To be with you and to say I love you Having thoughts of me and you Wanting so bad to be there and hold you and tell you how much I love you Knowing you are the one want to be with Hating knowing your in pain and wishing it was me, wanting you to get better Wanting to hold you through the night Wishing you could be in my sight Never wanting to fight
Hoping that one day we will sit down and talk about our pasts Acknowledging that people change Wanting you to know that my arms are always open to you I'll be by your side forever
Admitting when I do wrong and that I have been hurt way to many times Knowing when you say you love me that for once someone means it Willing to wait the rest of my life to hear you say ' i love you'

Best Friends

We were considered by others Best Friends
"unbreakable" is what our friendship was said to be I knew it was too good to be true
I expected it might end but not so abruptly

I trusted you with everything
We had our fun
We played our games
It was unbelievable
A dream come true

It all started last school year
But one of my friends let a secret slip
The Truth
I was not aware until you told me
When I found out I was sure it was over

We stuck together though Still had our fun
Played our games
The future lay neatly
So clearly

Then this year came
I could tell it was going to be a bad year
As soon as we made eye contact
On that memorable first week of school Yet again we pulled through, became friends yet again

Then abruptly about two months ago Something happened I will never forget We stopped talking permanently
Why? I am unsure
Probably never will know

Every time you walk by I wonder to myself "why"
I had hoped our friendship would last Now my hopes are black as glass

Worthless

I know we will never be the same Every time I think of you and I
I want to cry
It was so enjoyable
Now it is doubtful

But one thing I know for sure is I will never forget the good old days
When it was peacefully you and me I should have known it was to true to Last forever but I had hope

When you walk by
I want to cry
But I know it will not bother you Because of that one day and one secret
It makes me angry but even more disappointed

Broken Friendship

Our friendship looked so joyful now it appears doubtful it upsets you when you see me with your friends it upsets me when I see you with my friends But now I see the truth

I now know that you were never my friend You just acted like it so you could use me
Now I am afraid to open up to a guy like that again
I am afraid to get backstabbed again

I do not want to go through the pain again
I have not recovered from you
It angers me when I think of how much I trusted you I can not get my friends to see the truth about you For I do not want them to go through this pain to

It is almost unbearable
But I know one day you will get your pay back By far you are the hardest friend to let go so far I hope that if you come back too me
I will have the strength to say ' no' to you

Because I do not want to be hurt again
It amazes me how I felt so close to you in only one year
I learned so much about you and you about me
This is one thing that is going to take a while to put in the past

It is painful to look at you if only for two seconds Because I want to run up to you and hug you To talk to you
To tell you that everything is going to be okay For you to forgive me and me to forgive you

Because I trully do miss you
You are always on my mind no matter what time I want to make up for everything

We were as close as two friends could be without going out But then you fell in love and left me behind

Death

Why must good people die?
I know they fly away to the sky
To a peaceful place
But why?
It is so painful
At first you feel like you lost part of your soul Like part of you has also died Makes you wonder if you spent enough time with them Wish you got to know them better Want them to come back if only for a day

Dungeon

As I walk through the dark and eerie dungeon
I smell the musky air
The rotting corpse lays upon the warped wooden bench
As I open the creaking door the rusted hinge screams I see the well oiled chains laying so proudly upon the worn down dirt in the far gloom I hear echoing screams I walk slowly over to examine the rotting corpse and discover a damaged necklace as I took it in the distance I hear a shooting I suddenly hit the cold bricks, and screamed in shock

Explain

you tell me you want to be friends through thick and thin than you say that you still like me and want to be with me again jsut not now you tell me we can be freinds but why doesnt' that seem right every time i want to talk to you it doens't seem right we use to talk almost every night for over an hour on the phone now it seems like our conversations cant end soon enough i still care believe me i care i just don't understand how you can say you love me but than say you think we are better off as freinds and that some time soon you will be able to love me that same way again.

Forever

It feels like forever since we have talked like friends Why did our friendship fall apart?
To me it remains unknown

shiny shine

Friendship Or Love

When I talk to you it is friendship
But when I hug you it is love Friendship is when we have fun
Love is when we flirt
So which do I choose the strong friendship or the fun love?

I Can'T..... But I Can

I can't able to give you a reason for why obstacles in this life occur But I can be right beside you every step of the way helping you and listening to you searching for a solution.
I can't change what has happened in our past all the challenges, heartaches, and pain that we have been through.
But together we can be strong and nto let them happen again
I can't tell you what the future holds
But I can tell you that whatever it brings I will be right there next to you.
I can't keep you from getting hurt
But I can have my arms open and ears ready I can't tell you what decisions to make But I can be there to make suggestions when you ask, to listen when you need to talk and to comfort when you become confused I can't keep you safe from heartbreak But my shoulders can be the ones you cry on, my ears can be the ones that listen and my hands can be the ones to help you pick up the pieces of your shattered heart and sew them back together.

I Remember

I remember the night you asked me that special question
It was Christmas eve
I was speechless
You told me to think about it and call you in two days to give you my answer
With my heart pounding I picked up the phone Slowly dialing your number Holding my breath
At the sound of your voice I breathed a sigh of relief
You asked if I had an answer I replied yes
You laughed and said thank god
I smiled to myself laughing You made me promise to tell you when I was mad and tell you when you did something wrong
I warned you of the drama to come With your ex and my friends
You said we would make it through Your ex soon found out and she was furious Supposedly I stole you from her Even though you two were already broke up And she was the one who ended it You told me you loved me I smiled and said I loved you to Everything seemed to be going good
On the day of our one month I saw you only once I was away from school that day
It seemed like twenty days
You called me and told me you loved me And I said that I did to Telling you I missed you, hoping you missed me to Than I told you a secret of my past, a part of me
You didn't know how to react Did I say too much? to soon?
This was only a week ago So why did I have the conversation with you that will be etched into my head for many weeks to come?
You started by saying you didn't think you were being a true boyfriend to me and it felt like we were just friends I laughed and told you it wasn't true You've helped me through so much

No matter what I said
I couldn't change your mind
You told me you wanted a break
You asked if that was fine
As tears filled my eyes I sobbed fine
You said you were sorry and would stay on the phone as long as possible
You whispered to me things will get better
And we will be together again
The tears fell harder
You still want to be friends
What happened to us getting through everything together?
You say we can't have a friendship and love
I ask why not?
Isn't that what makes couples so strong?
You tell me you will love me no matter what As friend or as your girlfriend And you are always a phone call away Before I hang up you say once again that you are sorry But your apology is to late
The damage is already done
The pain has already set in

I Remember Once

A brisk Saturday evening,
Two weeks into September, Memories overtaking my head

The echoes of your voice have become A shattered mirror spread out on a thin Layer of linen snow

Shadows surrounded us, deformed and haunting Upon the cement, six inches deep Scared by sticks and stones

Air frigid enough to form icicles Swept across the yard
Draining all color from the trees outlining the yard

Two leave adjoined
Complete the blanket of fall
Gently being pulled apart
Then suddenly
The departure

Why did the wind have to blow?

So one day our families would be complete

I Will Remember....

No matter what happens I will remember you

I will remember the fun we had together

I will remember the secrets told

I will remember the trust

I will remember our friendship

Letting Go

we found out about 2 months ago something that made me cry the doctors said you were ill and we were in for a long battle and through it all you always would say we are going to win this battle than a few weeks ago we almost lost you and i was scared to death you pulled through but it still broke my heart knowing how much pain you were going through i felt so helpless wanting to help you so bad laying in bed at night crying myself to sleep because i knew we couldn't deny the truth... the end was coming near it was something i hated to think about the pain became more and more for you and each day it became harder for me to know the pain you were going through one day i talked to you and promised you i would come back i told you how much i loved you and needed you when i came back... u weren't there i was told something that i never wanted to hear i didn't know how to handel it you had gone into a coma i was terrified broke down and cried then this week the doctor said there was nothing left to do we have to let go i cried and i said no please my baby is strong i know he can pull through the conclusion was made the majority won last nit we let you go i was the hardest thing i have ever had to do the worst feeling of my life i hate moving on with out you i know i should be happy becuase you are free of your pain but i jsut wish we had more time together and now talkin with your mom and sis it is so hard especially your sister.. she is to young to understand and asks me all the time where you are. if your sleeping and i don't know what to do but cry

Midnight Rider

As I wonder through the trees
I hear a softly calling breeze
Come to me, come to me, it pleas Weakly wondering, with all my might I stumble upon a most terrifying sight
Come to me, come to me, it pleas Reaching out with its fingers of death it beackons me and leaves out its breath Trembling from head to toe suddenly I seem to know The demand that stands before me in the snow this creature that beckons and pleads with me so staring into its blackened eyes I see through its well dressed disguise for now i see with my own eyes my evil twin whom I despise singing, tenderly, cime to me, come to me, it pleas

Obstacles

Life throws obstacles at everyone
Not mattering if its death, divorce or arguments
There is always a situation that makes you stop and think At that point many people attempt to change who they are While some people may for the better others go through stages of grief and depression
At this point I believe friends are the necessary help and support During a time which can either make or break a friendship
Some friendships aren't strong enough to face the stress Others may become unbelievably strong Knowing that no matter what someday there will be an obstacle in one of your life's that Challenges your friendship
Do not let it break you For everyone out there do not judge people Cuz you do not know what they are going through What emotions they are holding in Never take advantage of anyone Instead unite together as one
As long as you have hope nothing can go wrong Live each day to the fullest For you never know what the next day will bring

Some-Times

Sometimes I want to cry
Sometimes I want to touch the sky Sometimes I want to yell why

Sometimes I feel like I fell Sometimes I want to yell

Sometimes I want to cry
Sometimes I want to fly

Sometimes I want to ask why? why? why?

Together

Together forever you promised
So long ago
But last year when you left me for more than six months
I felt abandoned
Wishing I had you to help me through You showed up when I needed you the most So I let you back in Something that I should not have done
For now I am all alone again Feeling hopeless and disappointed Because you hurt me worse than anyone ever has After everything I have helped you through You turn around and stab me in the back Pushing me until I feel like I am ready to break So upset with myself for allowing you back in my life so easily You now have made me believe I have to build that wall back up around me Which took so long to bring down Feeling betrayed
I trusted you with everything
In return you took advantage of me
That is what hurts
I could get over you lying to me
But not with something as important as what you did That hurts the most
You knew what I was going through and I was trusting you but still you lied to me Yeah it is hard getting over you but Deep down I know that you do not deserve me I will never know how far we could have took "us"
Because of how bad you hurt me
I felt so close to you Like you understood
But when I found out the truth that connection was automatically broke
I became hurt and I knew that I could not trust in you anymore I'm not going to sit here and try to stop you from leaving More importantly though I am not going to break down and cry I know that I am stonger than that Knowing that what you did makes it to the point where you no longer deserve me

I could let the anger get to me but I won't

I am moving on but thanks to you it will take a long time until I trust a guy the way I trusted you

You know how hard it is for me to open up and I fully did with you

Look where that got me

Now I just sit here and wonder what else you could have lied to me about

Hoping that you realize how bad you screwed up and all that you lost

Living life each day not letting you get to me

Wishing I could go back in time and never have let you back in Hating the way you want me to forgive you

That's not going to happen anytime soon because my heart is shattered

And I know if who you lied about was still here he would be ashamed of you

He told you when he was dying to take care of me and you lied to him

I hate you for that and I will never forgive you

You have hurt me one to many times

I always turned to you

Always thinking of you as a brother and more to me

We had a fire before

Now all that is left is ashes

My heart needs to rest

I can't stand talking to you

Because I know I will yell and scream at you

Hating you for everything you have said to me

Not even crying because you are gone because I am so mad at you

You have done enough to bring me to my knees

But baby you don't deserve that

So I will remain strong

You should know that

You will never win me back

You didn't just mess up and you defiantly don't deserve my forgiveness

Because you lied to me about the most important thing in my life when I needed you the most

I just wish I would have caught your lies than instead on now

Your there begging me

"baby please give me another chance I love you, I can't go on without you, I didn't mean to hurt you".

I don't care though you dug a hole that you will never get out of

Dug that knife to deep in my heart than pulled it out

I have never been so mad

So upset with myself

Not caring your gone

Because I to am to blame Leaving me speechless
I should have known it was too good to be true

shiny shine

Why Should I

How do you expect us to forgive you after all the pain that you have put us through?
I am glad that our friendship is over now i see truly how far we had gone I now know all the lies you told and pain spread Now we can clearly see all the pain you put us throguh you pretended that you cared because you were scared you are ever trying to make us feel bad but we don't care even if you are sad you tell me it is just a stupid fight over a boy it may be in your opinon but we know the truth you found the wrong thing to push us over the edge all the anger released from us leaving you behind in the dust at first you were making me feel guilty and it worked but now i look back and think of all the harm you did and don't feel bad now you hangout with some of my friends. What is up with that? now you have to take mine? you tell them not to talk to me.
you tell me that my current friends are not true friends that they just use me. and were only firnedes because of you.
if so why are we still friends Y SHOULD I BELIEVE U?
