Purple Song

At the dawn of a day so long,
I sing for you a purple song;
Wearing purple you come along,
Do understand; don't get me wrong.

At the dawn of a day so long,
I sing for you a purple song;
Wearing purple you come along,
Before this feeling grows more strong.

At the dawn of a day so long,
I sing for you a purple song;
Wearing purple you come along,
'Cos a purple world is where we belong.

Some Day...

Some day the clouds will condense,
Some day it will definitely rain;
Some day your heart will surrender,
Some day you'll know my pain.
