Sierra Morrow(7/28/93)

I never really know what to write on these. So i guess I'll start with I love to write. Writing helps me to escape the things i don't want to face, it allows me to say the words that are in my heart without pissing anyone off. Writing allows me to be who I really am in a place were no one accepts me. It is one of my greatest passions. The only reason I posted anything on here was because I was told by a really good friend that maybe someone would love them as much as i loved writing my poems. So I hope ya'll enjoy :)

Baboo

You meant the world
And still you do
You have my heart
that's nothing new
You have my heart
I gave it freely
From me to you
From the beginning
Written in the stars
Was beautiful written
This love of ours
Me and my baboo

Disappear

I feel everything
Yet nothing at all
Make sure you're smiling Even as I fall
Its hard to get up Wipe tears from my eyes I've got to make believe That everything is fine I'm falling apart
Dying inside
Can't catch my breath Believe me I've tried Feel like I'm drowning Becoming a ghost
All alone Hidden from most
If you listen closely You'll hear the cries
From the scared little girl Living inside
But I'll make sure you smiling Even as I fall
I feel everything
Yet nothing at all

Dreaming

I'm asleep
I must be dreaming
this can't happen
you can't just leave what am I going to do my heart is breaking and rivers are flowing from my eyes I must be asleep
I have to be dreaming you're starting to drive away leaving me here alone I have to be asleep

Forever Friends

We have laughed together and we have both cried we have yelled at each other and called one another names but we stick together through thick and thin the smiles and the tears We will forever be friends

He's Waiting On Us

Do you know who He is He just stands there, waiting on you and on me He's waiting on us to turn to Him waiting on us to let Him forgive our sins he died for you and for me for us to know how much He loves us He's waiting on us to open our hearts to him for us to love Him like He loves us to forget everything He's waiting on us.

I Can'T

i dont know the answers to your questions i cant tell you what you want to hear i see the pain and confusion in your eyes i cant tell you the truth i dont want to say what everyone is thinking i cant make you cry i cant hurt you like that

I Remember

I remember

the pain I felt on 9/11

I remember

the sorrow and tears on the families faces

I remember

the sight of lovers falling from the Twin Towers to their death

I remember

what the 40 men and women on United Flight 93 did

the tears that were shed do you?

In My Eyes

deep in thought i sit and stare not knowing what i'll find there deep inside my mind i see things that never came to be
in my eyes
i see your face
i hear your voice
i feel your grace the pain inside
my broken heart my fragile soul
ripped apart
in my eyes
your life is gone my soul is free

Sierra Morrow

In Your Arms

Im in your arms

i feel safe

wanted

loved

warm

Im in your arms

I can leave all things bad behind hate

violence

pain

Im in your arms

Im home

Sierra Morrow

Lost

I'm lost
I don't know what to do what do i believe people are taking me apart with words, looks, and actions I'm lost
what do I do do I believe them do I turn away I'm not sure are they telling the truth or just lies I don't know what to do I'm not sure what to say do I believe them or turn away

Sierra Morrow

Love

love is hope
right moment to fall into the arms of faith- but makes a wrong turn in life and falls into the hands of heartbreak wondering what went wrong

Sierra Morrow

Move

Why cant i move there's so much pain there was so much i wanted to do I was going to be a doctor maybe a lawyer.
I was going to help people I had do many dreams a house, husband, kids now that can never happen my life was shattered in an instant the moment he got in his car I can hear people screaming I hear the police say
'She's not going to make it' I feel myself slipping away but i want to live if only for a while more to tell you good-bye to see my sister one last time but i cant move and the pain is becoming unbearable I can see a light its bright and warm My pain is gone
I can move
but before i go i want you to know just how much i love you.

Sierra Morrow

My Angel

i feel safe in your arms yet i dont know you i fill loved at your touch yet i never touch you i'm glad when you speak yet i never hear you You help me when i'm in danger yet i can never help you you are an angel
My angel
sent by God to watch over me

Sierra Morrow

My Demons

They don't go away they're always there to haunt to scare
they're my nightmares
they're my demons
they go where i go they feed me the lies making me feel useless and in way over my head

Sierra Morrow

My Dream

I dream a dream
one of hope and happiness
on of no pain or suffering I dream a dream
one where everyone is beautiful one where everyone is loved, and no one gets sick this is my dream

Sierra Morrow

My Fault

My heart is in pieces and it's all my fault I let you get too close I let you get under my skin and when I needed you most you let me fall to the ground covered in blood, dirt, and tears calling for you to help and you only turned away
and it's my fault

Sierra Morrow

My Life

My decision has been made and in it I stand true
at the end of the day
there's nothing you can do I've mad my choices there's nothing more to say and that's all that matters

Sierra Morrow

My Sister

You stuck with me even when I pushed you away You held me up even when I was falling You showed me your love even when I hated myself You spoke softly to me even when I screamed at you You were always there even when I wished you away

Sierra Morrow

My Tears Are Gone

my tears are gone
i will cry no more
i feel nothing for you you have nothing over me i can no longer trust you and i cant lie
i love you no longer i will not cry
i have shed all the tears for you my tears are gone

Sierra Morrow

Rescue Me

the lines become blurry now i can not see the person I was Who I'm meant to be one becomes all and all become one this game we're playing is no longer fun
make the spinning stop make this sickness end can you rescue me?
if so, please hurry the lines have become blurry

Sierra Morrow

Stand Tall

Bad news of the worst no time to say good-bye no time to lay to rest I'm trying not to cry feelings stay repressed not wanting any to see all the things i wished for things that can never be so i wipe away my tears stand up straight and tall never showing my fears you are no longer here to catch me if i fall

Sierra Morrow

The Darkness

The darkness is here
It's closing in around me I'm screaming for help
But no one can hear me
Make it go away
What's happening to me
The darkness is here
But I'm already gone

Sierra Morrow

The Lie

Your smile is untrue
your eyes tell the lie you hurt me too badly and I want to know why you say that you love me and that you really care but you never show me i cant see what isnt there you dont know the meaning of love you could never really care I have listened to you and now I know
and your eyes will always tell the lie

Sierra Morrow

The Mirror

Looking in the mirror I don't know who i see I'm not the me that I use to be I'm no longer the same somehow I've changed no I can see clear the person in the mirror

Sierra Morrow

This Christmas

the season isn't right Christmas just isn't the same this year is different how am I to be happy there is no joy for me to sing I think back of the years of all the happiness and the joyful sounds but this year is different no happiness to be found I can't get into the spirit though that's what everyone wants I can't stand this Christmas cheer it makes fall all my sad tears
this Christmas isn't the same the presents are all under the tree bright with Christmas theme but it's not the same this year I'm so sick of this Christmas cheer this Christmas is too different it just isn't the same for not one of those brightly themed presents carries your name

Sierra Morrow

This Way

How did I get this way hurting those I love
how did I get this way
feeling the way i feel like I'm lost and cant be found I feel alone
how did I get this way
I just want to scream
I want to let my tears fall I want this feeling to be gone
how did I get this way

Sierra Morrow

Truly Free

As this day ends and tomorrow begins the memories we've made can never really fade even though you're gone I'm never alone for you are here with me now you're truly free

W.W.J.D.

I saw a man today
he was dirty and cold

W.W.J.D.

There was a child on the street she was beaten and scared

W.W.J.D.

A woman was sitting in her car hurt and crying

W.W.J.D.

We have all forgotten how to be human we no longer feel sympathy have we forgotten what a man did for us He was beaten, bloody, and hurt but He carried His cross He took away our sins so the next time you see someone be they hurt, scared, hungry, or cold just for an instant think

W.W.J.D.

Weird Feeling

I've got this feeling
a weird feeling inside I've never felt it before I feel like im worth something Like I deserve respect from you You dont know me and I dont know you but i deserve your respect and you deserve mine
a weird feeling inside.

What Happened

what happened to us we use to be so happy now you're packing your bags and getting ready to leave did something happen, was it something i said did i do something to make you mad but you are laughing are you happy leaving us here your son, your husband, and me standing in the door watching you leave with my sister, brother, and all of your things i cant and wont give you the chance to hurt me like this again you made us cry but you dont even care do you you never even tried to make it work you always wanted to hide but that wont work here anymore you cant just run away if you do, it will be you looking back and wondering what happened

Sierra Morrow

Why

why did you go why the month of July
you were only fourteen why did you have to die You were so full of joy and always had on a smile why did you have to leave why not someone else you were my brother

Sierra Morrow

Wonder

i look at the sky and wonder if you're looking down If you're riding on a cloud I hope your happy If anyone deserves it, it's you you went through so much i wish we could have had more time together you left so fast that i never had the chance to say gook-bye so i look at the sky and i wonder if you're looking back

Sierra Morrow

Words

I dont know what to say how do i put my feelings into words words that might make sense to you i cant find the words
to make you stop crying
to help you not feel alone all i can do is hug you and be there to wipe your tears

Sierra Morrow

Year

Another year older yet I still feel the same there is still pain my hear is still broken my tears still fall
I have yet to change
I think of the days so long ago they seem the times of laughter and they feel like a dream the year has passed and still no change I still feel the hurt
I still hide the pain

Sierra Morrow

Your Friend

I'm here if you need me I will always be there to pick you up from the ground I'll dust you off and tell you that everything will be okay I'm here to tell you the cold hard truth even when I don't want to I'll be beside you through the good and the bad I'll always be here to make you smile I will do these things and more because i have been and always will be Your Friend
