I'M BUT A SOLDIER
IN AN ARMY CALLED LIFE
IN MY RIGHT HAND A PEN
IN MY LEFT ONE A KNIFE
WHEN I MEET MY ENEMY
HE DECIDES WHICH I USE
I'LL DO WHAT IT TAKES
I CAN'T AFFORD TO LOSE
WHEN I MEET A FRIEND
I WILL HAVE HIS BACK
ON ME HE CAN DEPEND
MY LOYALTY WON'T LACK
WHEN YOU SEE ME WALKING
DOWN THE AVENUE
WILL IT BE THE PEN
OR THE KNIFE I USE
I'M BUT A SOLDIER
IS IT TRUE THE PEN
IS MIGHTIER THAN THE KNIFE?

A Single Tear

My spirit's strong
But my heart is weak
As a single tear
Rolls down my cheek

It doesn't matter
Which way I go
I'm not able
To leave this hole

The load I carry
Seems to grow
It's weighing down
On my soul

Happiness seems
An allusive dream
In the opposite side
Of the stream

When is it
That we decide
To let go
No longer try

Somehow I must Accept my fate
To only dream
While I'm awake

SinJace Ramos

America

I am America
The world my domain
Born to lead
Destine to reign

Those before me
Had their chance
The time arrived
To take a stance

Kings and Queens
Will step down
Because I alone
Will wear the crown

My every move
Will make history
I must accept
My destiny

I won't back down
From a fight
As long as
I'm in the right

It all started
With dream
A lady holding
A torch to beam

SinJace Ramos

Balance Of Power

First they were two Now there's three Another leaf
On the family tree

Maricelys and D.J.
Riding cloud nine
Prouder parents
You won't find

Grateful to have
The bundle of joy
That's surely to be
Their brand new boy

Screaming and crying
Until his needs are met
The balance of power
Have just been upset

He'll be calling
All the shots
With uncanny ability
To seek soft spots

The grandparents say
Let the games begin
It's futile for them
To hide that grin

SinJace Ramos

Caribbean Princess

Caribbean Princess
Has arrived
Where I land
I always thrive

The divas couldn't Help but mourn
The faithful day
I was born

Some may think
That I'm vain
Or maybe even
A little insane

You either lead
Or you follow
I'm not next to
But in front of Apollo

I don't need
Your accolades
Nor afraid
Of hand grenades

Hit me with
Your best shot
You won't find
A weak spot

I can't help
But survive
Caribbean Princess
Has arrived

SinJace Ramos

Charm

My heart a virgin, my soul still new
The very first day, that I met you
But as the years, slowly rolled by Fate would step in, my love denied
Filling the void, in other's arms
Couldn't help me, escape your charm
Soon I will reach, the end of the road
Waiting for a love, my heart is owed
It seems as far, as I can foresee
It will be like this, till eternity

SinJace Ramos

Cry

As thunder roars
In the sky
I hang my head
And begin to cry

If he was only
By my side
My fears and worries
Would all subside

I let him go
I had no doubt
With his Love
I could do without

My wish had Come to pass
As I saw him
Leave at last

My loneliness
Soon began
It didn't take long
To understand

If he was only
By my side
I would never Ever cry

SinJace Ramos

Crystal Clear

Do you remember
The first time
I reached to touch
Your heart with mine

The earth moved
Beneath my feet
I felt so strong
I couldn't be beat

As long as I
Had you near
The future seem
Crystal clear

I thought our love
Would never die
How could I know
It was all a lie

Knowing that
You never cared
Is more than my Heart could bare

SinJace Ramos

Dawn

I was talking
To Father Time
About something
On my mind

Why can't I
Travel to
A time when
Our love was true

To the place
I first met you
When our love
Was still new

He said the past
Is forever gone
But as it leaves
Comes the dawn

Treat her like
There's no tomorrow
Never again
Will you feel sorrow

SinJace Ramos

Essence

I leave behind
A simple song
For those who have Someone they long

I never did
Fulfill my dream
Although I went
To the extreme

Many loves made
My heart their home
There's no roots
For those who roam

Essence shook
To it's very core
Left with less
Than before

Alas my journey
Came to an end
For posterity
This song I penned

Chances are You're now alone
If in this heart
You once roamed

SinJace Ramos

Fallen Angels

I know a girl
Name Erica
Lost myself
In her karma

Constant state
Of ecstasy
Me and my Sweet ebony

We tossed caution
Into the wind
Fallen angels
Learned to sin

Never bothered
To ask why
Against the world
Was our battle cry

Alas, destiny
Would step in Lost the amour
That could've been

Although we went
Our separate ways
My love for Erica
Never did fade

SinJace Ramos

Fate

If I said I love you
Would you my face caress
If I open my heart
Would you acquiesce

When you ask for love
You can not command
If you let me down
I'll try to understand

I'm but a mere mortal
You control my fate
My love has no limits
I will gladly wait

SinJace Ramos

Full Moon

Holding on to memories
Of love, laughter and tears
Time continues to evolve
Into days, months and years

The woman who truly
Owns my heart
I let slip away
Allowed to depart

I tried from
My heart to expel
Forevermore
It's where she'll dwell

Eternally waiting
For her return
A love that
I once spurn

A sign that someday
We'll reunite
Is the full moon
You see at night

SinJace Ramos

Heartbreak Hotel

Welcome to Heartbreak Hotel
Located beneath the bowels of hell
Our clientele is quite diverse
Goes from bad to the very worse
Our goal was never meant to please
Its lost souls we want to seize
So live it up above the ground
When you're done come on down
None of the guest seem surprised
Nor do they bother to cry
Each of them had a chance
But chose Satan with whom to dance

SinJace Ramos

Human Race

Why can't we just get along
On this earth we all belong
Our skin may differ in its tone
No one chooses where he's born
Entering the world a blank slate
Taught to love as well as hate
Fine tuned in the martial arts
Paint battlegrounds with our hearts
Chaos rules the killing fields
Lucky ones carried on their shields
No ones wins in the end
Somewhere another war begins
Parents left with just one truth
Burying sons still in their youth
War can only bring disgrace
On the whole human race
We must admit that we're wrong
Or we'll never get along

SinJace Ramos

Human Touch

On the day you were born
A piece of my heart was torn
You took it with your first breath
As I held you to my breast
How was I to ever know
You would take the rest in tow
I didn't realize the cost
Until my heart was all but lost
We can only love so much
Before we lose the human touch
When will you ever return
What you took when you were born

SinJace Ramos

It's Only Love

Don't ever ask me
To let you go
What am I
Without my soul

Without my soul
To go on How can I face
Another dawn

Another dawn
Filled with fear
Thinking of only
Having you near

Having you near
Forever and again
Only your presence
Can stop this pain

Stop this pain
Let me live
It's only love
I have to give

SinJace Ramos

Just To Touch

Someone returned
From my past
The feelings are Way too vast

What's a broken
Heart to do
When his prayers
All come true

Sometimes words
Just can't convey
What the heart
Wants to say

Would I be Asking too much
If I reach
Just to touch

If it's a dream
Please go away
Games of the heart
Aren't my forte

I stopped playing
Long ago
While I still
Had a soul

SinJace Ramos

Krystal Dahl

The angels sang
As the Lord arrived
He had a glee
In His eyes

The time has come
To give the world
A very special
Little girl

Fame and fortune
Won't be her goal
She'll start with
A heart of gold

Once this child
Makes her stance
The dark force
Won't have a chance

She'll remove
All hate and pain
Peace and Love
Will surely reign

The whole world
Will be in awe
With my daughter
Krystal Dahl

SinJace Ramos

Legion

Broke my heart
To gain your freedom
You felt relieved
I was numb

What goes around
Comes around
Today your up
Tomorrow down

You thought by sending Me away
Your happiness
Was here to stay

We must be careful
When we pray
We just might Get our way

It's not the same
To call the demons
Then see the Legion
Arrive screaming

What a tangle
Web we weave
When its ourselves
We deceive

SinJace Ramos

Lol

Had we been More sincere
We needn't spill
So many tears

Blindly pulling
On the strings
Of a love
With broken wings

We callously
Dug a grave
On the love
We could've saved

A love born
On the altar
Now lays bare
Without flowers

Now we're left
To our own design
You go your way
I'll go mine

Nothing left
To be said
The life of love
Has been shed

SinJace Ramos

Love Or Pain

It wasn't all that long ago
I lost the mate to my soul
Time has helped with the lost
The solace has come at a cost

The tender kisses I barely recall
My memories impeded by a stonewall
I find myself longing for pain
That once held me in its chains

All I ever ask of life
Strength to deal with strife
If my choices are love or pain
Let either one in my heart reign

SinJace Ramos

Mark Of Cain

As I review
Acts of my past
The love I just lost
Won't be my last

Sent to help Others along
While I find the tune
To my own song

It looks like
I'm always there
When no one else
Seems to care

They find solace
Inside my heart
As their world outside
Falls apart

They freely take
Of my love
What others thought
They were unworthy of

Once they feel Complete again
I'm left behind
With the mark of cain

You'll never hear
Me complain
I'm merely paying
For my past sins

SinJace Ramos

Memories

I'm the boy
Who lived next door
The one that put
Your heart at war

It's been years
You set me free
But never quite Got over me

Although I moved
Far away
Thru memories
Your mind I sway

A love that
Knows no depth
I'm everywhere
Except your bed

Someday we're bound
To cross path
Our hearts again
Touch at last

SinJace Ramos

My Heart

It wasn't me you thought you knew
When you doubted my love for you
We were to last a thousand years
Yet all we have nothing but tears
In your hands you had my soul
Instead of diamonds you thought coal
Broke my heart beyond repair
The more it hurts the more I care
No matter the pieces it breaks apart
You'll always be part of my heart
Don't ever feel you're alone
Each of those pieces is yours to own

SinJace Ramos

My Love

I like to write a poem
That would be fit to frame
Proof to those who read it
My love for you won't change

I'll love you thru the ages
My love for you won't die
I'll love you thru thick and thin
Until the stars no longer shine

When the load gets to heavy
You have my shoulders to lean on
When you feel your falling
Just reach for my arms

As you lay your head to sleep
You can rest and be assured
The love you prayed and ask for
Has always been yours

SinJace Ramos

My Valentine

Let me be
Your valentine
Until we reach
The end of time

Our love will be
One of a kind
Touched by heaven
Made divine

Nightly we'll say
A silent prayer
Of all evil
We'll be spared

Hold you tight
During the night
Won't let go
Till the morning light

Looking forward
To each dawn
Wrapped around
Each others arms

On my love
You can rely
When your sad
And want to cry

Will you be
My valentine
Let the world
Know your mine

SinJace Ramos

Mystery Writer

The Mystery Writer lives
In each broken heart
A voice that was silenced
By a love that was lost

Writing words on
A blank page
Melding love
With a touch of rage

Although he may Never speak
It's not a sound
That you seek

It's being able
To read the thoughts
Of a love
That's been lost

There's a Mystery Writer
In each human being
It's when we shout
Without a scream

SinJace Ramos

Nine-Eleven

You painted us red, white and bruised
A sucker punch out of the blue
The twins fell we were stun
But our colors would not run
Like a coward you hit and ran
Hid behind the skirt of the Taleban
But their power didnt last
You must have felt aghast
Then Pakistan West Point had your back
Day of reckoning thrown offtrack
The search was long the end quick
One head shot did the trick
A seal ended your psycho babble
Lucifer awaits your arrival
9-11 has been avenged
3,000 Angels smile from heaven

SinJace Ramos

Oblivion

When my life comes to an end
I'll leave my body to share with friends
My eyes for he that can see
But can't appreciate the scene
My hands to the one that's never touched
Although surrounded by so much love
My arms to the soul who's never held
His feelings long ago rebelled
My legs for the man that can't stand
Couldn't hold his ground he always ran
My heart I intend to keep It's wounds too wide and deep
We'll both go to oblivion
Bring an end to the pain

SinJace Ramos

Our Destiny

Let's be one
Once again
Open your heart
For me again

We'll return
To paradise
Lost in each
Others eyes

Sharing dreams
That come true
Forever making
Love with you

Greeting every Morning sun
Growing old
Staying young

Slowly slipping
Into eternity
This is
Our destiny

(FOR THOSE WHO GET A SECOND BER, THE PAST HAS NO FUTURE IN THE PRESENT.)

SinJace Ramos

Our Sorrows

Got married by a judge
Instead of a jury
Tis the begining
My sad story

Thought I had
Top of the line
Apparently some ladies
Can't be refine

She's about as warm
As a slow moving glacier
Drinks like a fish
Cuss like a sailor

Trained in the womb
In mortal combat
Adorable as An alley cat

Tops the list
My lifes' regrets
Damn the day
We first met

Sometimes we must Suck up our sorrows
The girl makes love
Like there's no tomorrow

SinJace Ramos

Our Teens

Your beauty will last an eternity
With the eyes of my heart I see
Streaks of grey in your hair
One for each moment we shared Might have lost the swing in your hips
Much like my mind when we kiss
I count my blessing and my luck
Each time we hid in your daddy's truck
Rock&roll playing in the background
As our bodys made their own sound
Less we forget the swimming pool
Where we broke all the rules
Our favorite bench in your front yard
Made love while your mother stood guard
We barely made it out of our teens
When my mom caught us without our jeans
There's nothing I would change
Even if time could be rearranged

SinJace Ramos

Ready For Some Stupid

ESPN met and agreed
We have no choice, Yank Willie
Pack your bags & rowdy friends
Less there's someone else to offend
A country boy might survive
Without a contract can not thrive
Your daddys' rolling in his grave
To think you're his namesake
Your next stop the Dixie Chicks
Tombstone say, self-inflict

SinJace Ramos

Renegade

Pray to God my soul to keep
As I lie in bed and weep
It has all been a ruse
Times arrived to pay dues
Lived my life in a rage
Renegade taking the stage
Some of us tend to wander
Precious life is squandered
We are meant to interact
Keep our humanity in tact
Along with any hope
Reach the end of the rope
See with a different view
If only I could start anew

SinJace Ramos

Silent Tone

In the end
You let go of Turned your back
On our love

Went away
Try a new start
Left behind
This broken heart

Now we both
Sit home alone
Our hearts beating
To a silent tone

We have no one
But ourselves to blame
Let the flicker go out
That was once a flame

It's time for me
To let go of The Valentine
I once called Love

SinJace Ramos

Simple Kiss

All your fears
Are at their height
When thunder strikes
Late at night

It's only me
You want there
To protect you
From nightmares

Although your thoughts
Feel amiss
I'll set them straight
With a simple kiss

Shield you from
All the harm
As I hold you
In my arms

Then you realize
Your awake
Slowly your heart
Starts to break

You have never Felt so scared Wondering if I still care

SinJace Ramos

Single Rose

In my heart lies a garden
In the center a single rose
When you hold it in your hands
You leave behind all sorrows

It's the reason I've serenity
When all is lost I've peace
Love for others been sacrificed
Bed of roses has its price

My mind did my heart betray
Memories couldn't be held at bay
A love I thought had retired
Returned with a vicious desire

Because of this caprice
Hidden feelings were released
I was overwhelmed by the passion
Before I knew what had happened

Serenity and peace in disarray
No choice but my heart obey
Like a long, long lost song
In your heart I am found

In my heart lies a garden
In the center a single rose
Of all the women that I know
It was you that it chose

SinJace Ramos

Sis

Your my little Sis
Whom I'll always love
One of God's angels

You been my treasure
Since the day of your birth
I'll be your guardian
While you're on this earth

With just one look at you
We knew a star been born
You grew into a diva
In a class of your own

You light up a room
By simply strolling in Everyday's 4th of July
Let the fireworks begin

One of God's angels
Is there room in your heart
For those of us you love

SinJace Ramos

Soul Dear

I'm but a soldier
In an army called life

When I meet my enemy
He decides which I use
I'll do what it takes
I can't afford to lose

When I meet a friend
I will have his back
On me he can depend
My loyalty won't lack

When you see me walking
Down the avenue
Will it be the pen
Or the knife I use

I'm but a soldier
In an army called life
Is it true the pen
Is mightier than the knife?

SinJace Ramos

Supreme Being

I can't help but contemplate
Of the mess I made
I could never calculate
'Cause my memory tends to fade

I have no one to blame
For my present state in life
God knows I have tried
To learn wrong from right

For so long I attempted
To point my finger at friends
I couldn't help but notice
Three were pointing back again

No one took my hand
That lead me to this path
Once I started the journey
There was no looking back

I'll never be able
To admit it wasn't fun
It isn't until now
I notice the wreck I become

It seems the day arrived
To put beers and drugs away
Take a hard look at life
Get on my knees and pray

No will to control
My actions or my thoughts
I admit to my Supreme Being
My body and mind are lost

I submit to Him
To do as He will
I know what I must face
It won't be a magic pill

That's when I felt His Touch
In the center of my soul
All this time just waiting
For me to reach and take hold

SinJace Ramos

Taina

The world is yours to ignite
Its you Negrita who excites
The word nada dont exist
Nor temptation to resist
Mamita Linda has the tools
With the gold goes the rules
Laws of physics to defy
Jump Taina touch the sky

SinJace Ramos

Tears

The tears that I shed
Like stars in the sky
There will always be more
Long after they dry

The beat of my heart
Deep in my chest
Fuels a relentless love
That knows no rest

No beauty in the sunset
Even less in the dawn
Instead of you besides me
A pool of tears is found

The tears that I shed
Like stars in sky
Is all there be left
Long after I die

SinJace Ramos

Tender Love

No need for words
To be said
When I lie
With you in bed

I will never Get enough
Of your sweet
And tender love

I have no need
To escape
While I'm lost
In your embrace

My mind and soul
Are yours to keep Never more
Will I weep

I will gladly
Roll the dice
My humble heart
I'd sacrifice

Let me keep you
For my own
Is all I ask
In return

SinJace Ramos

The Shrine

In my heart
I built a shrine
I store all
That's divine

It's decorated
With memories
That guard the heart
Like sentries

On the days
I feel down
It's the only place
I'll be found

I browses around
The gallery
My spirit lifted
With the memories

All of my Blues are gone
I'm prepared
For another dawn

The shrine was built
With you in mind
Your love is My lifeline

SinJace Ramos

The Tree

When I was young
I planted a tree
Then walked away
My future to seek

The trail lead me
To women, wine and song Tried as I might
I could do no wrong

As the years
Went slowly by
More and more hearts
Laid by the side

My hair went
From black to grey
Goodtimes and youth
Long gone away

As I reach the end
Of my destiny
My thoughts are only
The shade of the tree

SinJace Ramos

This Butt's For You

I thought it last
A thousand years
Instead it just
Me and my beer

Along the way
I lost your love Replaced with
An ice cold Bud

I'm not one
To complain
The brews tend
To ease the pain

When I feel
I'm falling apart
I'll remember
Your cold heart

Now that your Finally gone
Those thousand years
Don't seem that long

SinJace Ramos

Tis X-Mas

Tis x-mas time again
Don't mean much for us in sin
Sanny Claus don't look my way
On his list my name is nay
I fess up to my flaws
Shouldn't have slept with Mrs. Claus
Shouldn't have make all that noise
With all her battery powered toys
Tis a real crying shame
Tis her not I that got maimed
Says the man in the red suit
Hot on my rear in hot pursuit
Rudy doesn't plan to alight
The chase is on throughout the night
Saved by children who protest
Sanny and Rudy end the quest
I return to life of crime
Think of the Mrs. all the time

SinJace Ramos

Touch Or Kiss

Put some lift
Beneath my wings
Play a tune
Make my heart sing

Take me to Unknown heights
As daylight slips
Into the night

I promise not
To ask for much
Maybe a kiss
Or a touch

You have my life
In your hands
I place my heart
At your command

Do with it
As you wish
I only ask
For a touch or kiss

Put an end
To this sorrow
Without you
There's no tomorrow

SinJace Ramos

Touch The Sky

When you think that you lost
Then its time to pay the cost
Unless you have the guts within It's an illusion to think you'll win

Must be willing to take a dare
Doesn't matter that you're scared
If you get back on the saddle
You have won half the battle

When you find yourself behind
Severe the body from the mind
We can all touch the sky
All we have to do is try

SinJace Ramos

Your Eyes

When I gaze
Into your eyes
My very being Comes alive

Senses peak till
I'm overwhelmed
Find myself
In another realm

Smell, taste&touch
One and the same
See and hear love
Become a flame

Find myself in
A difficult plight
We coalesce
In its delight

Time and space
Are meaningless
Forevermore
We are blessed
