and

Aim

I am falling from the tree
Oo i cannt reach my aim
My legs were broken
And i feel so happy
I can climb with my hands
And i will reach my aim

sOoraj Pottekat

Confession

I have a confession to make Confessions of a dangerous mind
I have to find one to confess
He should be strong as steel
'cause if i made my confession
He will die on that second
I hate persons who knows my secrets

sOoraj Pottekat

Dream

im serching for you my dream im waiting for you my dream i have a question to ask you why you take this much lone why you make me alone

sOoraj Pottekat

Hands

I am in the top of hill
I can see those trying to climb Others have gone to climb the next
My mind is not ready to go
They are falling from there
My hand got the power to lift them
But others calling me
My relations pushing me
If i do not go, I'll miss my life
I dont know what to do
And I realise the truth
To go as far as I can
To reach the top
Your hand will be more powerfull
And you can lift the whole world

sOoraj Pottekat

Hole

I dont know how
You enter in to my heart
I dont know why
You enter in to my heart
I dont know when
You enter in to my heart

I am going to a doctor
There is a hole in my heart

I Am Searching-----

When I came to here I had it
But I lost it some where in my journey
I don't know where I lost it.

It is being late
Sun is almost above my head
I have to leave this place by the sunset Someone came to me and got me something
That was a perfect girl friend for me
I told him that I was not looking for her
He didn't understand and walked away from me..
Another one came to me and brought wealth for me I told him that I was not searching for that He couldn't understand it and walked away from me..
I am searching for my SOUL.
Oh my friend, I am searching for the meaning of my life..
Nobody understands me.

'I' And 'You'

Yesterday i couldnt sleep
I was in my deepest thoughts
Why this world is so
Why god did this to us
I am not happy with god
Why there is only one 'I'?
Why there is a lot 'YOU'?

I Saw God

I was flying in the air
I got two beautiful wings
I saw angels in white dress
They were singing very happily
They were happy to see me
I crossed the gate of heaven
I saw a beautiful garden
I saw my dear friend god
He was happy to see me
He was put some water on my face
I was shoked to see my earths friend
I told him in a sweet voice Yesterdays beer was Fucking great

I Wish I Were A Kid

When i see the smile on your face
I wish I were a kid
When u play with my cat
I wish I were a kid
when you cry for the toy car
I wish I were a kid.
when ur mother kiss u on the cheek
I wish I were a kid.
oo my dear god is there any return to innocence.

sOoraj Pottekat

I's

My eyes are searching
When you are not around
My mind is restless
When I can't see that smile
When you are around
Our eyes speak a lot
Our souls are merging
I am waiting for the day
The day that you become I
I am waiting for the World Of I's

Jasmin

I tried to sleep
But couldnt sleep
I walked to the door
And stuck on the window
I saw a light
A white beautiful light

Oh its my jasmin
She opened her eyes
Just like me :)

yaa its smiling
She opened her wings
What beauty! ! !

Next I saw it on her head
Hmm it looks even better

Journey

I am in a big journey
I am walking all alone
I saw many faces during the journey
Some travelled with me a while They gave water and food
I reached half the way
For here onwards it's difficult
There is a lots path in front of me
I have to choose one there is no return
I have to select the best path
I like a path, no one has travelled so far My path is difefrent, everyone said everyone says, ' dont go '
But I have to go through that path
There is a lot of humps and gutters in that I can see it from here itself
I know no one follows me
But I will make the journey of my life

Keep The Beat Up

when i was born
i lost my hand
my mind said
Keep the beat up

When i was young i lost my leg
my mind said
keep the beat up

when i was old i lost my mind
What can i say
keep the beat up

Love

In my life I strived a lot
To find love, until I lost
Now I understand what is love
When you are hungry
A pice of cake is love
When you are sad
A loving look is love
When you are ill
A soothing touch is love
I remember the days with my granny
When I was palying
She called me to kitchen
And fed me something
When I was crying
She looked afterme
And told me not to cry
When my hand was broken
She touched on my forehead
And said it would be alright
Now i know what is love

Me Me And Only Me

I born with a dream
Grew with an aim
Walked in a style Cryed for a while Smiled for a life time
But still i find myself alone! ! ! ! !

My First Love

That the day i found my first love she was pretty she was cute i never realised thats my love the day i lost her i realised the truth i am in love with my dear julee in my life cried only once thats the day i lost her thats the blackest day of my life i remember those days we where together she was the who wake me in the morning she comes in the morning waging her tail theres a cute little smile on her face she jumped to my bed to wake me up she kissed on my face to wake me up oo my first love i know you can here this you are my first love and still my love

My Mom

When i was born
I saw a smile
She was the first person
I saw on the earth
'mama, i love you mama
My best friend in this world
The one i love to fight
I one i hate to see crying
Mama i wont let u cry'

When she is angry
I feel like melting
When she smiles
I feel happy
My first teacher
My guide of life
She is the one always in my ups and downs
Mama i want to say to this world
I wont let you cry mama, i love you mama

sOoraj Pottekat

Rain

In that night i cried a lot
I couldnt see my tears that was blood
I looked through the window
I saw my dear god
He came to me as a breeze
He cried with me as rain
He talked to me through the wind
And he told me not to cry
From that day on i haven't cried
When i feel to cry i see rain
And i stop crying

sOoraj Pottekat

Sea

I am coming to you my love
Why are you pushing me out
When i crossed the boundary
You were pulling me towards you
I saw fishes dancing on you
I saw the colors of life
You are as deep as my mind

When I was going deep
I saw heven inside you
When I was reaching for death
You took me out with your hands
And put me on the shore
But i want to come to you
I want to dance like a fish
Oh my dear sea, take me to your heart

sOoraj Pottekat

Smile

She comes to me with a smile she a got a flower in her hand her eyes spoke a lot her smile killing me yes the day has come after a long year gap i was happy as a kid i jumped as a kid she passed me with a smile oo my luckf friend you the luckiest person on earth i have noting to say about that.

Thief

I wish i were a thief
Yes i want to be thief
I dont want to take ur heart
I dont want to steal ur thoughts
I will be the happiest person
If i can steal ur sadness

sOoraj Pottekat

Train

I was late to reach the station
The train was moving on time
I jumped in to my favorite general
I saw the world in that compartment
That's my most favorite place on earth

I saw rich I saw poor
I saw docs I saw patients
I saw prouds I saw talents
I saw life in that train

He was flying like a rocket
But not as fast as my mind
My mind was at my home
Playing with my kids

It was in the morning
Sun just waked from the sleep
I looked through the window
I saw fog in the mountain
I held my hands together
I felt happy I felt great
I heard the silent song of breeze
Then started a small rain
A drop of rain fell on my face
I put hand to through the window
I tried to catch her, to get her

Oh it was 7 in the morning
I reached my station safely
My friend took me to my home
I said thanks to my friend
And started walking through the field

War

I am a dream, i can see myself
I am in the middle of a war
I am leading the army of north
Everyone is dependent on me
I am the commander I am the king
I saw the king of the south
He is more powerful
He has lots of modern weapons
The war will end when one surrenders
I can never surrender I will fight for sure I will fight till my last breath
The war is between my virtue and vice Pray for me I am going for the last war

sOoraj Pottekat

Wind

I am a palyful wind
Waiting for nothing
I will touch u like a breeze
If u r my friend
I will hit u like a storm
If u r my enemy
I wont hit you as a storm
Because i dont have enemies
