The Pain Within

The pain I have within is something I can't hide, so can you see it in my eyes can you see it in the tears I cry, I cry for help but no one cares this pain begins with all the fears.

You'll probably hear me cry 'Touch my tears with your lips, touch my wounds with your fingertips' please help me forget the past because this pain will always last.

Looking for shelter to get out of the rain wishing I didn't have to go through this pain, I pray each night to thank God that I made it through another day, I cry myself to sleep to sleep through the night hoping I won't have to fight, But no one knows the Pain Within.
