Angel The Tabby Cat

Her crystal blue eyes.
And her pure white fur.
Are so special and unique.
Her meow hasn't changed.
Not even a bit.
Not even at all.
Her loving personality.
And her lazy ways.
Are so cute.
You could never get mad.
At that cute little cat.
Has been there for me
Through thick and thin.
Thanking God for having her come into my life.
This adorable cat is so special
You'd wanna adopt her.
They way she always makes her presence known.
Will be a memory that'll never be erased.
Her carefree attitude.
So funny at times.
And frustrating another.
From seeing her grow from a kitten
To a magnificent cat.
Her presence is something you'd wish you all had.
I will never forget her.
Not even a little.
Not even at all.

Demonizing Flower

There was a flower that grew thorny and wild.
In the eyes of a forgotten child.
The flower was vivid as a dream.
The scent was almost too fragranced.
The flower was made of some sort of evil mist.

A wicked flower it was indeed.
Chaos and negativity has been bestowed upon this demonizing flower.
The alluring scent of this chaotic flower has more than just a little power.
This color is really the color of rust.
But when people come to look.
It turns to red.

The intoxicating sweet smell of the lavender never ceases.
It makes your soul split into miniature pieces.
The lost of their loved one is never forgotten.
But it has been begotten.

A gleam of red surges through your eyes.
Kids are not welcome in this endeavor.
For the children get heart murmurs.
Love turns to despair.
Hate turns to revenge.
Hate turns to hatred.

Love turns to obsession.
The world has been bestowed upon the young at heart.
Children are turned into adults.
Adults are turned into kids.
The world will never come to an end.
Not smidge.
Not even a crumb.

Every good thing in this world is gone.
Good dissolves and evil takes over.

Friendship Are True

From the time we were younger.
Till now that is.
A friendship that is true and steady.
Where two people meet.
And people congregate.
You tell your deepest secrets.
And they tell you theirs.
So much in common.
So hard to fathom.
Honest and truthful.
Kind and caring.
Considerate, and respectful.
and always sharing.
Goofing around.
Partying till late.
Now that sounds great.
Laughs are made.

I Owe You Thanks

In so many ways.
I owe you thanks.
For being there when I was crying.
And when I was angry.
You knew from the very start.
That our friendship wouldn't part.
The secrets told.
And how they are kept.
Are just the beginning of a beautiful friendship.
Even though your in spirit.
You're just the same to me.
Your my savior.
The one who gave me salvation.
To my repetitive problems.
And giving me hope.
Even when things were hard to cope.
So thanks a lot.
Thanks so much.
I'll never forget how much you helped.
Thanks in so many different ways.

Life's Doubt

Life seems long.
Pain and Suffering have taken my soul.
Uncertainty has become of me.
A shadow of doubt has come over me.
Guilt of things that are not your fault arise in your mind.
Love seems far away from your heart.
Self-esteem is distraught.
Demented pain is personified.
An ambiance of lies rule all.
Unfallable reasons are the cause.
Hatred and Greed always seem to succeed.
Faith seems so unreal.
Love seems unbelievable.
Feelings of inferior thought seem so real.
Things are not practical.
While other things are logical.
What you feel in your heart.
Is only the start.
Of life's repetitive doubts.

Madelyn Moon (My Dog)

Her big wet brown nose.
Her big brown eyes.
Her wagging tail.
And her silly ways.
When her ears would perk up.
Whenever she would here her name.
Her cute little face she'd make.
Is only a little part.
Of what makes her who she is.
When she gets into trouble.
She'd come running behind me.
Hoping she isn't found.
But she's hoping never to be found.
But in the end.
She's always caught.
Lessons are taught.
The ways she'd come up to me.
With her lovable ways.
Her companionship has meant the world to me.
She was always there for me.
When ever I was sad
Or started to cry.
She'd come running up to me
And lick my face.
It is the most adorable thing.
Every day I'm around her.
It's a blessing to me.
Even though she's a dog.
She's my bestest friend.
And that will never change.
She'd save me in a heartbeat.
And So would I.
Her innocent ways.
Are always the most adorable thing you'll ever see.

Meaningless Days

Everyday there was a day
That was filled with wonderful memories.
In the end there was a man and his girl
They were married and were oh so in love.
His wife gave him a baby girl.
So precious and special that whatever she did
It would melt his cold heart away.
Then a year goes by and she gives him a son.
They were in love till loved over turned.
They were so happy.
They thought they could fly.
Then the man left his wife.
He left his wife
And left his children with his wife.
They divorced.
He fought so hard to get his kids to live with him.
But the judge over ruled them.
The man saw his kids
As the kids got older
Things started turning around.
They just kept on growing
Until the strength ran out.
Then she broke his heart.
And then he knew.
Right from that very start.
That their hearts were never to be.
Now things just seem meaningless every now and then

Memories Of Daddy

When I was a young child
I remember how I would run and hide.
In my daddies arms.
You were my hero then
And you always will be.
You were knight and shining armor.
I started to change more than ever now.
I became restless and very depressed.
Cuz my daddy was gone and I was sad.
It hurt so bad to know that my daddy left me with my mama.
I remember the crying I did every night of every day.
I felt it was my fault.
In a way I still do.
It got so bad that got put on all that medication.
It changed everything about me then.
You were always there though
Through thick and thin.
You always say daddy loves you more.
Now that I am older.
I started to notice how you started to drink a lot.
You changed everything about yourself in my eyes.
I just hope that some day you will Break this spell
That your old demons have on you.
I need you to stand tall and proud.
Not drink a dropp alcohol.
You're stronger than you know.
I have faith in you daddy.
Just stop with the drinking.
It makes you a different person.
You take your anger out on me and everything else.
I wish I could see why you do this.
This sorrow is hard to bear.
I want my old dad back
The one who was my hero and my knight and shining armor.
Sip after sip you just get lost in those lost misery eyes.

My Lord, Our Savior

When I saw your glorious face.
I knew it was pure and true.
I knew I could count on you.
You gave me my redemption.
You sacrificed your life.
To save us all.
To show that people are good.
You were the one who helped me
Get through the pain that I have been subjected to.
You understand me.
You loved me.
You show your merciful face in my sleep.
You tell me everything will be alright.
And I believe it.
You showed me the way to my own redemption
You showed me the way
I believe you test my faith.
To prove that I am as strong in heart as I am in the soul.
I am a true believer.
So please let me show you that I can handle what is to come.
So bring the pain.
So bring the heartache.
So bring me the problems.
So bring me what ever you think I can handle...
I know your strength in me is strong
You make us stronger as a person.
I truly believe your love is all I need.
I remember the way they treated you.
You didn't take it to heart.
Because you knew we loved you.
I remember the time when you showed me the right path to take.
I was scared of what might come.
You stood there with me in spirit.
I know you are there.
Standing right next to me.
You were right all along.
You were the one who helped me
Get through the pain that I have been subjected to.
You understand me.

You loved me.
You show your merciful face in my sleep.
You tell me everything will be alright.
And I believe it.
You showed me the way to my own redemption
You showed me the way
I believe you test my faith.
To prove that I am as strong in heart as I am in the soul.
I am a true believer.
So please let me show you that I can handle what is to come.
So bring the pain.
So bring the heartache.
So bring me the problems.
So bring me what ever you think I can handle...
I know your strength in me is strong
You make us stronger as a person.
I truly believe your love is all I need.
I may be tempted to try to do a bad deed.
But I don't because I realized what an impact it could have on me.
You've shown me the way to prove you are around.
So use me as your disciple.
You can use me to show that everyone is loved.
Just show me the way
I believe you test my faith.
To prove that I am as strong in heart as I am in the soul.
I am a true believer.
So please let me show you that I can handle what is to come.
So bring the pain.
So bring the heartache.
So bring me the problems.
So bring me what ever you think I can handle...
I know your strength in me is strong
You make us stronger as a person.
I truly believe your love is all I need.
There will be times
Where I will doubt you
But you know
I am truly never giving up
On finding my place in this world.
All I know is you've made me a better person.
There are not enough words to describe how much gratitude I have for you.

You've opened an invitation to me to realize what
A good person I am deep inside.
I know I won't run and hide with you by my side.
So please say by my side oh Lord.
Oh Lord.
You are my savior.
You are my everything.
You've helped me decide who I want to be.
Yes I know it is me
But it isn't the same with out your spirit within me.
I know when you are around.
I know when you are smiling from heaven above.

My One And Only

I gave you my heart.
You took the key.
Kept it safe.
so no one can see.
You are my world. my everything.
You make me whole.
You are the reason that i'm still breathing.
I want to share my life with you.
My one and only.

Butterflies emerge in my stomach.
My head starts to spin.
An urge of happiness has just began.
You are my love.
You are my soulmate.
My baby.
My heart.
my everything.
I love you my sweet sweet baby.

The Day We Met

Do you remember the first day we met?
Because I sure do.
We were in seventh grade.
You were new and new nobody.
I befriended you and you befriended me.
Five years have finally passed.
I never thought this could happen.
I never would of thought in a million years
That I would have ever have fallen in love with you.
Those butterflies in my stomach were fluttering away.
The way you made me feel.
In ran through my veins.
Now I can't stop thinking about you.
Now I realize that we could never be.
You and I are just too much the same.
You knew we weren't meant for each other.
You just didn't want it to end.
I know it is hard.
To forget your feelings of love for someone else.
Now it is your decision.
It is either me or her.
There is no way out.
I can't wait much longer.
I've given you your space.
I've given you your time.
Now I think I deserve an answer now.
So wake up!
I won't be waiting much longer.
So Wake up!
Let me be with you.
Let my heart tell you a story of how
These feelings for you came around.
You are the one who was always by my side.
Through thick and thin.
How could you have dealt with me over the years.
I can't believe you got me scared.
I'm am so scared.
Of what may come.
I've never really felt compelled to say

That I really really really like you
You are the one who is right for me.
Or how I feel now deep inside.

Untitled

Underneath my skin.
A thought of you fills my mind.
A thought lingering deep inside.
A mere thought of you puts a smile on my face.
One mere thought of you makes my heart beat fast.
But nothing could come of it.
So friendship is all we can be.

Stephanie Kravitz

Untitled 29

All the people you care about.
Dying before your eyes.
Scares you to the end of time.
You suffer from depression and a loss.
What your loved ones want for you is to be happy and know they believe in you.
Life sucks at times.
Sum times you want to give up.
But life will turn around when you least expect it to.
A guardian angel will guide your way of life.....and show you the true meaning in life.
Life is an amazing thing. To see someone succeed.
Even though I'm not over you. I will be in time.
You are a part of my life and I'm grateful for that.
I fell for your lies. Learned the hard way of who you really are.
I was stupid and naive. Believing everything you were telling me.
I'm sorry for everything. All i do is screw up. I'm a nothing, a nobody, just a piece of broken glass hanging on the window sill.
Slowly trying to piece back my broke heart.
I gave you my heart from the very start.
Hold the key close to yours.
And i know everything will be alright.
my heart so frail
So young at heart.
full of fiery and lust.
So pure and true.

You Came Into My Life

You came into my life.
As quick as ever.
It's so hard to believe.
That things are serious.
more attached I become.
Every day I hope that is okay.
My heart races every time your near.
i know i have nothing to fear.
Your eyes so sweet and kind
Your sexy voice..... takes my breath away.
Your smile warms me so.
Your warm embrace makes me melt.
your love is not like any other.
I love you always.

You Were My Everything"

What is going on in your head?
I miss you terribly.
Do you even love me anymore?
I wanna be your friend.
I wish you could see the side of you that I see.
In your eyes I see a soul.
That was perfect for mine.
I just wanted to hold you.
I just wanted to love you.
I just wanted to be your everything.
I just wanted to talk to you.
I think you still have feelings for me too.
Please don't run away.
You've broken my heart too many times before.
You were my everything.
Do you know how much I'd miss you so?
Those beautiful eyes entwined with mine.
That sparkle in your eye was gleaming at me.
I know we grew apart.
It still hurts to know it is over.
I never left your side.
I'll go run and hide in those memories of joy and good up bringing.
What ever happened to that laugh I loved so dear?
Please don't run away.
I just wanted to hold you.
I just wanted to love you.
I just wanted to be your everything.
I just wanted to help you.
I just wanted to talk to you.
I think you still have feelings for me to.....
You've helped me in so many ways.
I just wanted to return the favor.
Your love was all I need then.
Our souls were once as one.
You leave me with my own demise.
Your love has helped me conquer my worst fears.
What is it going to take to get you to stay in my life?
You once was my one and only.
Don't run away

I just wanted to hold you.
I just wanted to love you.
I just wanted to be your everything.
I just wanted to help you.
I just wanted to talk to you.
I think you still have feelings for me too.
Please stay with me.
Please.....please don't run away.....
Please don't run away.
