A Friend From A Foe

Hiding behind shadows isn't the style of men But hypocrites have another view One sample is uncle ben He who's supporters are few

Perhaps the ruthless will understand when others use arrows and bows Though they can't tell a friend from a foe

Some say a lion is heartless unrealizing it's passion for it's young It itself eat flesh like chocolate
But not those of humans cuz it's wrong

A brainless creature can tell a head from a toe Still some people can't tell a friend from a foe

Many fools are addicted to killing like drugs
They also love hearing people's painful screams Pretending to be police but they're actually thugs Who envy people for fulfilling some dreams

They're way more scavenging than crows
But we can't tell a friend from a foe

Lying was and will always be a filthy habit People use as a key to their goals
But still play the innocence of rabbits As it's their most successful role

They strive for holding on to this role So we can't tell a friend from a foe

They're now watching us seeking freedom

Believing that we'll never find it Though we know a republic is similar to a kingdom
A place where our activities shall fit

They're scurrying around like victims of Saw Ones that can't tell a friend from a foe

Aquanox

If only they knew the future they would have teared me off my mom's womb But I kept growing till I became mature ready to strike their hides with bombs

Being a foreigner is both a bless and curse a bless for nobody and a curse for them too just denying my place of birth Forgetting who I am and where I belong to Injuries are badges of honor I wear them to let the cowards down Never again will I seek charity from donors or be that circus clown

Greed, Racism, and tyranny are the gates to doom the one way path they're running in for sure they'll end up locked in a dark room that of failures and bitter sins

For GOD's sake ask them Frank why did they crucify my mom?
Did she kill a punk or rob a bank?
or maybe decimating a state with a bomb? !

YOU SEEK QUESTIONS, WHILE I ANSWERS
I DON'T NEED TO APPRECIATE THEIR INTENSIONS
LET THEM ALL DIE IN CANCER
WHILE I SEEK VENGEANCE

Date Me Dear

I always wonder when we gonna meet My only date should be with u Baghdad Eating your dust will beat meat Your dearer to me than my dad

Ain't no grave can hold my body if it's not in your lands Ain't nothing represents luxury except your very sands

I became nuts turning the whole earth thinking to find another place If only I could change my birth long shall live your race

People have long underestimated me Believing I'm crazy
They wouldn't set me free that I'm became so lazy

Did A accepted my proposal?
Did B appreciated my flattery?
Did C enjoy with me a roller coaster?
My love became like an empty battery

Our fate are twin brothers
They are hell alike But your girls get bothered raped, killed, and taken with bikes

Like a lunatic I'm wasting my life Burning them like wood I'm now in deep strife hopelessly wondering through my hood

If only it wasn't for my name
I would have married you dear Nothing to me beats fame but compared to you, it's like my rear!

But why a Syrian should give a damn?
I'm not from Iraq
But it's my Arab Damn Which a lot of people lack...

Death Is Far From Over

The human population has been reduced by one as I left him die in a world of pains wrath was my gun unleashing a world of flames

8 years he's been feeding me hate from his so called brain now killing him wasn't just his fate as I left him swim in a bloody drain Sucrose wasn't sweet when they said he was except leaving his foes in long death list He's like the anime Taz rather was he his fist

Now life is passing me by I can feel it It's tastier than a pie so can you feel it?

Death is far from over that's what I say and so should the sober one who had his given day

Forever After

Your picture will forever stay in my mind Though if you're beauty is gone, I'll forever stay blind Your innocent gags will forever play in my ear Losing their romantic tone is the real fear

Your smell will forever stay in my nose Your essence to me is that of a rose Your safety will forever be my duty I'm ready to sacrifice my life for you cutie

You will forever be in my heart Until uncle Ben stops to fart Our love will be an immortal thing if nothing lasts forever, then you're my nothing

Green Day And Bloody One

He filled the entire world with blood and joy as he arrived here with his friends His unique spirit made girls his toys That he used them as rents

The boys became unstraight the girls became magnets the kids were entertained as if caught in a net

A new white spot in a dark page a new age was made struck did his rage all his previous shades

I can almost swear I'm honest when I say the Cinema is almost reborn Without Sucrose it were a forest A place where Tarzan regret being born

I'll never forgive past if it didn't leave me I'll never build the future if past didn't set me free if it didn't then I'm the moocher

Days are the fuels to my engine I'm unleashing them in movies I'll no longer live in a dungeon or be that goofie

You're wrong about me being poet
I'm not Mr Sucrose
I don't write sonnets or give dames a rose

I'm what you said

I'm what you didn't

I'm everything they said and I'm everything they didn't

I Wanna Cry

Please come out my tear
I wanna cry
Cry and die for real Love is not a toy you sell and buy

She left us after six years Of all the hard work she had done
I really wish I can see my tears For I can feel the crushing of my bones

I loved her after years of absolute hate I sometimes wished her death But loving her finally was a harder fate Harder than the scene of mess

Pain will be doubled this time When I conceal the bitter truth inside That My heart is no longer mine It's for the one who left me behind

The house is clean once again
But not my broken heart Who wishes to be relieved of all the pains
By a simple tear, tearing it apart.

Instead Of

Instead of smiling and jumping from delight
I kept crying like an abandoned child who's mourning his very life

And instead of going crazy of happiness and joy
I went angry and smashed up every toy

I knew back then that life is really nice infact we were the source of our own demise

Scurrying around like insects when we left priorities behind our back Maybe I can't describe the first moment I saw when my heart was about to crack perhaps love is blind and maybe a heart is the only thing that lacked I bet that love itself became nothing but a gag.

People mock and use their organs in an alternating act

And oftenly they use to speak ill of me and accuse me of being gay maybe it's the time we get along to their dismay

Why should I lie? ? with you I'm the world's biggest gay.

Such a freakin awesome time we use to spend in the bay holding my hand up after I defeated the what's so called drake.

Are those memories still buzzing in your brain-box Monica? ?
Or is it me, the only one who's sound is echoing through the slums of Delaware!

Like The Roses Of The Desert

Destiny forced us to respect the bitter fact Of the consequences and the fate we faced It's way beyond a tragic act It's about a past we had chased

Our number now is that of wizards
We are few like the roses of the desert

People around me have wondered where the secret lies How do we attract problems like a magnet?
Though our situation has moved the heart of the spies
The same ones that once caught us with a net

It's not about cakes and desserts It's about those who are few like the roses of the desert people used to prey on our very flesh have now left our aquarium with no fish they were right about us being selfish for a couple of dimes, we served our children's meat as a dish

Yet, it's not for fishes or lizards It's for those who are few like the roses of the desert

Again I hear some hopeless cries Shouted out by those who survived A nuclear strike devastates but undo your very ties Being an Arab alone will have your foes pulverized

Nevertheless, they are little and scattered They are few like the roses of the desert

No One Cares For You

No one but you seems to care About you girl
No body but you dares to flatter you're brownny curls

Like the statue you stand alone counting the days of your life You're heart with the wind has gone leaving you're lover with strife

I've been tired wiping off your tears
My hands have gone wrinkled Besides, confronting your fears I couldn't just mingle

I'm loosing my life with you While seeing you terminated A seed represents you one can never be germinated

Your past will forever follow you cuz You are the past itself It's tough like a mule but u should blame yourself

What's the point of pulling me back? to the pool you're drowning in My heart for you is about to get cracked that you should seek an inn

Never will you survive again in a world where you're dead never will you feel the rain if you're under shed

I'm ready to sacrifice my life for you if yours shall live But why should I do it for you?
If yours will never ever live
