Suhana Sahoo()

Suhana Sahoo is a 16-year-old emerging writer who expresses deep emotions through simple and meaningful poetry. Her work often explores themes of love, fate, uncertainty, and human connection. In her poem Written by Fate, she portrays two souls struggling through doubts, distance, and emotional storms, yet bound together by destiny. Through her thoughtful words, Suhana reflects the feelings and complexities of relationships in a fast-moving world. As a young writer, she continues to explore poetry as a way of expressing emotions and understanding the power of fate and love.

Written By Fate

They met like strangers in a world moving too fast two wondering souls never meant to last.

The road between them was never gentle or kind Storms in their hearts and doubts in their minds.

Time tried to break them distance pulled them apart, yet even in silence
they carried one heart.

Every good bye,
felt heavier than before yet fate kept whispering there is something more.

For some loves wonder,
and some hearts may stray but the ones bound by fate still find their way.
