Incomplete

i think i know
who you are
you care
i think you
are imaginary
i think you
came alive
you gave me
so much attention
you cared for me so much
you never said
no for whatever
i asked for you never said anything to me you never let me be sad you never let me be tensed why did you come into my life because i know you were gonna leave me..
and again i would be incomplete

My Secret In Silence

you came into my life
quietly and simply &my words stood still

i couldn't express in words or even in simple gestures the secret i kept in my heart so i loved in silence admired you from a distance dreamt of you from far i wanted to say i love you i wanted to say i care but cowardly, maybe, you'll only laugh at me in silence i will love you in silence i will care.....

Sister

when you are all alone
and feeling down
you need some one to change your frown...

she'll make you laugh when you want to cry,
you have to tell her the truth because she'll know when you lie you can count on her and she can count on you when she says i promise.. you know that its true

she is by your side nomatter what you do... your sister is more than just a family
she is a friend
through &through

When I See Your Face!

you treated me like a sister slowly i started trusting i never imagined us to be together what whatever i thought came true you don't even look at me or even notice me around you say i am still your pall is it true or a sweet lie?

at first i trusted you alot but slowly & sadly
you broke my heart

do u even remember me?
do u even care for me?
do u even remember the promises you made to me?
do you even remember when you had a fight?

know please don't come and talk to me or even show me your face
cause i have joined my broken heart using a piece of string
the string is not so strong it might break when

I SEE YOUR FACE!

You Make Me Who I Am

you make me cry
you make me happy
you make me sad
you tell me what is right ar wrong
you make me understand
i am loved
maths
you have made me friends with good people
you help me make decisions you have made me self confident you always encourage me you make me forget all my pains you make me forget all my problems you make me forget my past you have made me who i am whenever i am with you
i fell like i am
IN HEAVEN.....
