My Sister

Who loves me as father,
And cares me as mother.
I have got lovely big sister,
I am the luckiest brother.

Her each slap is love,
And all words are preaching.
All thing is filled up with morality,
What she is teaching.

Her blessings make me strong,
And then I can do anything.
Her motivated voice is saying,
You can fly, you have your own wings.

I wish I would get her inspiration daily,
And then, as a river, I may flow.
On the front of my respected sister,
My head every time bows.

Thank You

Thank you for being part of my life,
O my darling! O my wife!

I like all the places, where you are present,
I don't like your absent.....
So, never attack me by ' leaving knife ',
Thank you for being part of my life.

Love for you, increases day by day,
In darkness, for me, you are a Ray,
So, never give my heart any strife,
Thank you for being part of my life.

Never let this love be ended,
Never let break this loving thread,
You in me, and I in you, always must rife,
Thank u for being part of my life...

Stability

Fly as air And flow like river,
Be in your life As spotless mirror.

Don't stop at One place,
Grow up for your Life race.

Stay will make you pond,
It may break your many bond.

But sometimes it's necessary to stay,
As peoples stop at night and work whole day.

Everytime it's not necessary to flow,
In the pond, lotus and waternuts grow.

You must always stay in your passion,
And also must stay in your relation.

sometimes stability shows you as mature,
and it will never let you fail, for sure.

Towards Your Dream

The difference is-
To stay in one place,
And staying with one,
Holding her hand
While walking.
if you stop
at one place, you become -
dirty and narrow thinker as pond.
and while holding someone's hand get happiness and joy
and give it to others too as a river.
so don't stop!
hold someone's hand
and go ahead
with getting happiness
toward your dreams.

My Motherland

O motherland!

I am proud that I was born here,

Where people have no fear.

here everyday is a tired evening and an active morn,

The animals sound like horn.

Your charming wind makes my day,

There are flowers in your way.

Sitting near the pond makes me feel rest,

Everything about you is the best.

your trees gives us fruits and shadows,

there are many charming meadows.

each of the person lives with brotherhood,

they are steadyfast in problems as like wood.

o my village! i love you,

your no element is fake as city rather it's true.

A Girl In My Life

Your smile makes me happy,
And your tears make me sad.
Your farness makes me weeping,
And your nearness makes me glad.

Your love makes me naughty,
And your chide makes me strong.
You appreciates me while I'm right,
And criticise while I'm wrong.

For The Tree

In nature god gave us tree ,
To make them friends and let live them free.
And God said, " from these friends, life , you will gain
" you will get medicine in pain ,
"And you will get wood, fruits and grain,
" Your new friends will be helpful for rain ."

But after the working of nature construct,
Human made every product
And started to cut his truly friend ,
Constructed the buildings in the land.
Now life giver gas is being losed,
Human will punish for the way, he chosed.

My Dreams

there are many big dreams
in these small eyes.
I'll achieve some of them
and with some I'll die.
but O my dreams!
I'll come again and again
to get you.

Complete

I wish, I could explain your eyes,
And your voice like as butterflies.
Your heart that is pure as gold,
Your all words are epic, you ever told.

You are important for my life as air,
For going to far from you, I've no dare.
You are important for me as lyrics to music beat,
Come to me my darling! And make me complete.

Tribute To Brave Soldiers!

Who don't fear to enemy,
And fight for their country.
Who always want to see,
All the peoples free.

Who don't celebrate festivals
With their children and wife.
On the day of festival,
They persist for our life.

Who risk their lives,
To save their nation.
To Playing with bullets
Is their fashion.

Who destroy enemies
and their route.
To my brave soldiers,
I heartily salute!
