If You Have Wisdom

you need only ask me and I will give it to you. I gave good gifts to my children. Wisdom is the principle to get wisdom. It is more valuable than money. So let your heart return my words. For they contain the seeds of wisdom that will be planted in your heart. written and Posted 6/2/09

My Dearest Mother

My dearest Mother you meant so much to me. Everyday I thank you for you I ask him to protect you. All my life you have been there for me not missing a single moment because you deeply always encourage me to follow my dreams. I couldn't made it happen. You are the best mother ever. Our Happiness Is Not A Present From God

Our happiness is not a present from God. Someone else look into the mirror When we are aware of how we attempt to use others to stop the pain. And create our happiness. We will feel from the past. Love will never hurt you unless you live in the past written and Posted 9/30/10
