i can kick you to mars yo I'm the king of this game tryna hit my name along this thing came I'm burning, your smiling wanna be flying yo just carry on fighting

Battle Of Uhud 1

at the mount of uhud where the great prophet stood for the greater good the fifty archers
where given orders protect us from cavalry with your arrows they where told to stay but they didn't obey they just walked away
these few lost us victory that day

o what now and evil women called hind for her fatter and brother she wanted revenge so she turned to wahshii and Abyssinian slave in return for a murder his freedom she gave so she targeted at Hamza a man without fear who was brought down by wahshii with his javelin

Allah has sent a messenger that was so bright

because that's not right just hold tight
patient heart as white
