Symone Raven(05.16-1990)

Hey everybody.. My name is Symone and I am almost 17 years old.

I was born in a little town outside Copenhagen, Denmark, where I have lived my whole life. Denmark is actually great, with the weather and stuff. When it's winter it's cold but when you are tired of the winter spring is coming and that's almost always hot..

My interest for poems started when I was 14 years old. I have never been the most creative girl and that just makes me love poems even more. The way you can express your feelings without telling too much is just great.

Some of my other interests are film (which I just love so much) and music (rock, some emo, alternative and so on. I mostly write about love, because my beloved boyfriend is inspirering me so much

Well that was it..

15 Minutes

February the 2nd.

I want to change the rules.
Instead of fifteen minutes of fame,
It should be fifteen minutes of love.
Everyone is entitled to fifteen minutes
Of pure, uncensored, unbridled love.
Fifteen minutes -
fifteen minutes of blindness, Overwhelmed with bliss,
For fifteen minutes -
For fifteen minutes nothing else matters.
Love matters.
If everyone got it - Everyone would get it.
Just fifteen minutes -
Who needs fame anyway?

Colors Of Our Life

Our lives are filled with color from the start, and Red is the love that comes from our hearts.
Blue is the sadness that drips from our eyes, but Black is the evil that makes us tell lies.

Green is the shade of jealousy and rage,
and Grey is the hair that comes with old age.
Purple is the mood most misunderstood, but White is the color that Makes Us Feel Good.

Life is full of meaningful colors,
But Especially White.
So hold on to it tight.

Symone Raven

Constent Castle

I used to dream of eyes so blue
And loving arms to hold me.
I used to dream of heroic knights
And how gracious they would be.

I used to dream of how I wouldnt settle For anything less than best.
I used to dream of how he would majestically Lay all fears to rest.

I used to dream of fairy tales, How wondrous would they be
I used to dream of story books
All patterned after me.

I used to dream of a lot of things,
But the moment I met you,
I immediately stopped dreaming, Because all of my dreams came true.

Forever Never Ends

Friends 'til the end, is what was once spoken,
Or is that just what you wanted to say?
Really, I'd be heart broken Everyday, I thank God for you in every way Very often do I forget to say, 'I love you, ' Even when I don't feel like it Remember me when you're scared and remember I care about you too!

Never take anything for granted,
Even if there was a fight or two.
Very Lucky am I, to have you as my best friend.
Everyday I think about you, Remembering we're gonna be forever friends!

Even if we're both scared, Never will I say Good- Bye.
Didn't I always say, 'Forever Never Ends? '
So, please believe me when I say, 'Forever Friends.'

Forgive

I watched you sit alone, I watched you cry your eyes out, now tell me what you've done.

Is it so bad that I should shut you out and leave you here alone?

Yes, I saw what you did I was right there with you.

I won't let you sink- No, I forgive you.

I have watched you grow and I've stood in your shadow But yet I've never walked away.

I hung the stars and I hold your heart, so don't ever be afraid.

Yes, I know when you breathe and I feel what you need.

I won't let you sink No, I forgive you.

Going To Sleep

As I'm getting ready to go to sleep
I think of you; How much you like me and how I like you

I start to lie down and try to dream
But then.. I get the feeling of you;
the things you said and your smile;
and how much I want to hold you tight.. in my arms for a long while

I close my eyes and try to sleep but then.. I get this sight- You and me holding each other tight; Then I realize it's just a dream.. I'm still alone and don't feel right.

Symone Raven

He Calls To Me

He calls to me across the miles Night winds carry his whispers
They float on the breeze and through my windows Falling gently upon my ears
- Hush -
I hear him now.

He calls to me from the heavens
Glittering stars cannot compare to the sparkle of his eyes
When he looks at me, I am consumed by the fire
I see him now.

He calls to me through my dreams
Dancing together in the shadows of my sleep
Where we laugh and love once again
I am in his arms
I feel him now.

He calls to me
Every moment of every day
Distance couldn't keep us apart
When destiny drew us together I'll hold him for eternity
As long as he keeps calling.

Symone Raven

How Do I?

I want to tell you something
But how do I?
There's a thousand ways...
Which should I?
Write it in a letter
Say it on the phone Shout it to the world Write it with magic Sing it out
Paint it in a picture
Make it music
Teach the birds to sing it Rhyme it out...
Which ever way,
I just want to let you know,
However deep in my heart you reach,
However far down you go...
You will find all my love,
All of it for you...
I'm helplessly in love with you,
Nothing i can do,
But love you always and forever

Symone Raven

I Love You

I love you

When I'm with you,
eternity is a step away,
my love continues to grow,
with each passing day.

This treasure of love,
I cherish within my soul,
how much I love you...
you'll never really know.

You bring a joy to my heart,
I've never felt before,
with each touch of your hand,
I love you more and more.

Whenever we say goodbye,
whenever we part,
know I hold you dearly,
deep inside my heart.

So these seven words,
I pray you hold true,
'Forever And Always,
I Will Love You.'

Symone Raven

Love At First Sight

Is there such a thing as love at first sight?
That's the question I used to ask Until I laid eyes on you.
How is it possible to feel so much for a stranger, a passerby?
Love has no limits, no color, no time.
That's when I realized I had fallen in love -
Love at first sight

Symone Raven

Memories

Within my book of memories,
Are special thoughts of you.
And all the many nice things You often say and do -

As I turn the pages,
And recall each single thought,
I realize the happiness That knowing you has brought.

There are memories of the times we've shared Both bright and sunny days.
There are memories of your kindness
And your friendly thoughtful ways.

There are memories of all those notes, we would write back and forth,
When we would just get together,
And talk of this or that.

And when I recall these memories
As I go along life's way, I find they grow more precious still With every passing day.

Miles Apart

I wish I could wipe your falling tears away,
as you bravely smile through your pain...
You see me suffer,
then you break down and cry
miles apart...

In your dreams
I softly kiss you,
no one can see the pain,
that we both feel inside
miles apart...

You whisper I love you and I whisper to the skies,
I love you too
When will this pain ever go away even though we are miles apart...

To be by your side is a dream I can't deny
But I will wish for it to come true.
I miss you so badly my heart is breaking as we cry
miles apart...

Mirror

I'm looking at myself in the mirror.
Asking myself after all the hard works I have done, what does this stranger want from me? !
I don't know am I staring at him or he is staring at me?
I don't want to believe what I see.
I close my eyes for a secont.
I'm asking myself if there is anyway I can take this mask off.
I start shaking my hand.
My hand tells me everything I had to know.
They point me in the mirror and telling me that it's you in the mirror, not anyone else.
After all these days, I've been walking in the stories with loneliness in every secont.
I can tell from my face that there is nothing left in me.
Mirror is trying to tell me I am the one who wanted to catch the sun with my hands.
But now the darkness of nights is my place and I am dying silently in it.
I broke the mirror so it won't talk about my past and dreams again.
But mirror breaks into thousand pieces, but there is still my picture in every broken piece.
Pictures are telling me with funny faces, cut the hope from the sky.
There is no difference in your days; they all smell the same old desire.

Motionless

Motionless

If time could stand still, I'd freeze it here, So you'd always hold me, close and near.
In your arms, where I'm meant to be, Filled with the perfect love you've given me.

A bond so strong, a hold so tight,
To know you're the one; my 'Mr. Right'.
A blessing sent from up above,
In you I've found my one true love.

Our lives entwined to be as one,
Upon this journey we've just begun.
Where you and I will find no less,
Than eternal love and happiness.

Symone Raven

Nameless

next year, when you are leaving me all alone in that big empty place.

What shall I do?

Usually when I am looking around,
I can see your beautiful and sweet face smiling and waving at me.

Now I will be all alone, with unfamiliar faces.

I will miss seeing you every single day, but will love the moments when I do see you.

'Cause I love you and always will,
and know eventhought I am there alone without you,
you haven't left me.

Symone Raven

One Wish

If I could have just one wish, I would wish to wake up everyday to the sound of your breath on my neck, the warmth of your lips on my cheek,
the touch of your fingers on my skin,
and the feel of your heart beating with mine...
Knowing that I could never find that feeling with anyone other than you.

Symone Raven

Pieces Of Life

my life is like one big puzzle many uniquely shaped pieces every bit scattered across the table every minute my frustration increases all the shapes look like they might fit it's very deceiving

there's only one true fit I have to keep believing but you know when you find the final piece that your puzzle is complete

Symone Raven

Secret Love

I'm hiding
oh if only you knew how i felt i'm lying when i say i'm protecting myself i'm really just afraid to say that you make me look forward to waking up each day and no matter how i try i can't stop sounding so cheesy and cliché you've got me dazed in that butterflies in the stomach, weak knees kind of way.

Something About You...

I don't know how to explain it,
If only you could truly see,
How much I really care for you,
How much you mean to me.

I look forward to seeing you every day,
The grin that belongs only to you,
When I see you I can't help but smile,
There is just something about you.

When you put your hand in mine,
My heart suddenly beats faster,
I wish I could tell you right then and there,
That my life could never be better.

When you wrap your arms around me,
For a simple, gentle hug,
I want to stay in that moment forever,
And tell you how much you really are loved.

When we gradually come close enough together,
Our lips touch, a kiss,
Nothing around us seems to matter,
Because there is nothing sweeter than this.

No words could ever express how much you mean to me,
I hope you have these feelings for me, too;
I can't figure out just what it is,
But there is definitely something very special about you.

Symone Raven

Stars

lazy days lonely nights
looking for a lonely star who'd keep me company

looking at the widespread sky being me a lonely soul gazing at the moon so bright making wishes `pon a star

a blow of breeze to animate
the freezing scene

so the strings of white gold ribbons seem to tease the lonely moon because it is standing still and they are free to move

'twinkle twinkle little star... ' I used to sing when I was young now I've grown but still today
'... how I wonder what you are'

lying down upon the meadows dream of flying up so high reach the stars, sit on the moon dancing ballet with the clouds

The Wizard

February the 1st.

There's a story told of a wizard
Who, for money, would cast a spell,
And I'm sure that you met this wizard,
And you, his wares he did sell.

What else can explain how your smile
Can make my heartbeat roar,
Or how your look slows my breathing,
While causing my spirits to soar.

I'm sure that you and this wizard Conspired to control my brain,
For I'm always thinking about you-Feeling happy and slightly insane.

Now I hope I meet that same wizard,
For I'd give him all of my gold,
To make you want to stay with me,
And share happiness as we grow old.

Track Star

The flashbacks keep coming Like a train that never stops running Some things have to be forgotten
And others just remain regrettable
Time cannot be rewinded, so there is no reason to cry
What already happened can never be brought back
It seems as if life runs its own track Cheeks are eroded by tears, Confidence keeps fighting to conquer all fears
The clocks keep ticking and the calendar pages keep flipping Isn't there a pause button anywhere to be found?
Thoughts of pain keep flooding our brains Happiness is now a part of the past
The good times became a person we have learned to disengage Unwelcome feelings uncontrollably invade our hearts Sometimes those memorable events we regret were just chances waiting to be taken
And the other moments we regret, we're just too stubborn to forget But why can't the happy moments be the ones that stay with us forever?
Why do happy moments become strangers we no longer recognize?
Why can't we keep the stories behind the wrinkles we get from the smiles we let?

These memories keep coming down to nothing but apathy
And it's all because life just runs its own track.

You'Re An Angel

You're an angel that nobody can see,
Still, an angel is what you are to me.
An angel from heaven is what you are,
In my sky you're definitely a heavenly star.

You're an angel with beauty and grace, You're kind and sweet, you've an angel face.
You have very graceful angel wings.
Happiness, joy, and love are just some things,

That an angel can give, and to me you've given.
In my heart and on my mind, is where you're livin'.
You have hair that is as soft as cotton.
A guardian angel is what I've gotten.

Your eyes are like sapphires that shine bright,
When everything is dark, you give me light.
You're an angel that gives me a reason to live, You're the angel that teaches me to give.

You're the angel that makes me live another day, You're the angel that teaches me the right things to say.
You're my angel and you'll always care,
You're my angel and you know I'll always be there.
