I Love You

A piece of my heart was taken out but then you came and sewed it back together
I love You

Rainy Day

The clouds are gray
The sky is blue
The sun is nowhere to be found
All you can hear is the crash of thunder
And moments of splattering rain
Splatter splatter splatter CRASH!
When will it end?
The world doesn't know
But sometimes' it will last on hour or a minute or even a day
That's how mother nature works
But now the clouds are white
The sky is back again
And now there's a rainbow
Of many different colors
