Blue Ish

Bold

Lushish colour

Unique but hard to discribe

Endless combanations of it

Icey, yet refreshing

Springs out

Here I am!

Bubbly

They're laughing at me I can hardly believe that they would call me that i just want to go and hide in my hat i've been hurt before they might go and snore
I thought they were nice but nothing but they're spice i don't let it bother me if you really can't see they're just too closed-minded to even care

Dance

Dance
And enjoy the New pop

Choreography
Entertain the millions watching; and waiting to criticize

I Thought Wrong

I thought i'd be heck like being hit in the neck but i was terribly wrong
so now i can sing this newly formed song I've made new friends; girls and boys but now that i've realised, my heart was no toy there's sierra and malie cassie and kayleigh and jeannie ciara and storrie courtney kirsten hez aaron drake matt and jess i know now my life's not a mess I love them all nothings to small for us to over come some im glad you came to listen and hear what i say cause tomorrows the brand new day.

Reading

I love to read but you can't see that I have read everything that is worth reading to me
witch is fantasy
Harry Potter, Lightland, and the start of Eragon
'cause when I'm in a book nothing can go wrong!
I don't do it to get more smart, and I'm not the only one
I just do it for the fun!

School Is Out! ! ! ! !

School is out, and I'm incredibly sad
And it's driving me completely mad.
My friends are all gone, I'm the only one left I've been robbed, it's a terrible theft
I'll only know three at the small school next year
But, you know what I've cried my last tear
I will make it being away from my piers
I will survive, That was a tear
And now I lay here
As I cry my last tear.

Simpsons Poem

I had a cat named Snowball, he died he died Mom said he was sleeping, she lied she lied!
Why oh why is my cat dead Couldn't that Chrysler hit me instead? !

I had a hamster named Fluffy, he died he died...

Student Led Confrances

not good for me
I'd rather be outside to play
'cause it's so beautiful today.
Don't want mom to see how well I did.
D's and C's are my best bid.
My friends are calling me
But I can't go; but as you can see
So is my SLC

Sung It

Once i was young i sung what i sung
but now i know how to do it to read and to write the thought that i thite and now they say im amazingly great.

Thanks

I heard you were sick It's as bad as it gets It's not a picnic
You were probally wet
But you got to get well Cause I love you so I got something to tell
So you can't go

The others thought that you had gone
But I knew you were there
And you proved them wrong
You gave us qute a scare

So, go on now; you need your rest
Just remember you are the best
And I know that through the night
You gave it your very best fight 1 more thing I have to say
Thanks for not leaving me today

The Movies

I want to go to the movies and eat a bunch of candy
I want to take the car, and not go and ' Hop there like a dandy'
I want to see the movie that is #1,
I want to go to the movies and have a lot of fun!
I'd want to see the escape that's narrow, but then again I'd LOVE to see tomorrow!
