Tara Tullock()

I live life to the fullest. AS if everyday is my last. Writing is a passion of mine that most don't know about. Because of life events I've decided to share my work with the world..I dedicate my e-book of poems to all my loves of my the lost one's that one day will find his way.. My health has went downhill so this I leave behind one a way for you to see my soul. thru my words. Love you

Alone

You wonder this world alone. When u think u fit in and find you really u deal with that? You take it step by step until your back on top with you an yours..pick up an move forward into your life. Leave the past behind you an hold ur head up strong. You will make it thru, with your heart intact. For ur future is still in front of you. (TNT) 2011/7

Can You?

Can you see all I've done?

Can you see me standing here looking?

Can you see me struggling to hold on? ?

Can you see I'm a good person? ?

Can you answer me?

Can you see this was met to be? ?

Can you see the faith you'll bring him to me.

Can you see I don't want to take him from thee...

Can you see the torcher inside me?

Can you see my lov for him? ?

Can you please answer me? ?

Never Forgotten

I hold you in my heart from the day I found out about you.
Then a kiss good bye.. How lost I was.
Even tho your not here right now doesn't mean I never loved you..
It was in love that you are where you are.
Faith in them that one day you'll come back to me.
Faith in you that you'll want to..
Proud I am of the great man that I know you are..
Proud of the day that all 3 of you stand in front of me.
proud of the day that all 6 of you stand in front of me.
With me..With us..

The Fall

If you're standing on that edge. You fight back and get pushed off any ways. Open your eyes an hold your head strong, even if you think you're not... Just believe and the angles around you will appear in your life and slow you when you reach the bottom you land on your feet. While your standing there looking back up..thinking WOW! ! ! Remember those same angles that helped you down will help you back up.

The Line

I watched today a never ending line..
They stood there strong as the line continued on..
Out the church the line had gone..
with each passing moment the line grew longer..
Still they stood strong. Hearing the stories & seeing the tears..
The line went on..
2 hr's later backs hurting, hearts stood strong.
For the line continued on..
This continuing line represented a life. Touched by all.
I watched the line continued on..
