Tareq Jalabi(20\11\1988)

I am an English Literature student.

I am as i think, a sensitive, over-reactional person.

I am 22.I like poetry a lot.

A Cupid And A Man

i always work to pay the loan you only see me running or on the phone i work all the time even at dawn i have my money so I`m not alone you who live in loneliness and have no time for cupid if you keep living like this then you must be stupid

i eat when i have to and drink i only wash up when i stink working all day i cannot blink i never have fun, but in my thoughts i sink you know what my fellow?

you actually need a shrink or an arrow in your blue heart to change it to pink you made us sad and moved emotions inus so, by the power given to me by Venus i throw the arrow of mercy at your heart so living life you shall start

Tareq Jalabi

A Dry Plant

my soul is distressed my heart is ill
love must be confessed and i love her still no way to conquer that disease her love i cannot kill coz loving her my heart won't cease it is against his will no matter how much i try her love to me is the sky and i am that guy

which without it will die she didn't feel sigh
for letting me cry
till I - the plant
became dry

A Heavenly Date

virginity is a treasure shouldn` t be given away to someone that his love in your heart wont stay dont make love unless its done the right way because doing it lose your love you may wait for the moment
you find your soulmate
then go out with him
in a heavenly date

stop not drinking wine your feeling will be divine then love making
will be more than fine light some candles to create a romantic atmosphere let all your love
to him appear listen to your heart
have no fear

let him grab you and with his love stab you because its the ultimate excitment when love goes through.... let your heart prevail surrender to sin
if you back down now
it may never win
lay head on his shoulder after you two dine tell him in your soul
he has built a shrine and whisper gently
please, always be mine

Ashes Of Love

Burn me to ashes
and throw them in the air when you see flashes to that area please stare keep opening your eye-lashes you may find me there a piece of me might fly and settle on your hair but will you know me will you be aware
or will you mix me
with the dirt of the air

say the naked truth
please do swear
to come to my grave
only if you care
then feel your own soul and you will find mine there tell me your feelings your pain with me share and then mixing souls will be no longer rare

Broken Up With

My life has ended two days ago when you allowed your heart to someone else go what a fool i am, i still love you although you`ve left me without thinking what you me owe i lived in the dream world that has no flaw while considered reality my major foe death counts anxiously minutes by exact every minute that passes reminds me with the fact that with the passage of time past becomes more past and that enlightens your leaving`s impact all my feelings i have just packed because i am going where love does not last

Tareq Jalabi

Crazy Llove

I am holding a knife
By which to end my life Driving it through my guts
You may consider me nuts
But i dare to swear
That i`ll be there
Meeting in paradise
Life would be fair
Following you to hell Shows you how much i care Please, end your life
I know we will survive
Use the same knife
So love can bring us alive

Tareq Jalabi

Death And Man

we are living today to die another day what is the point of living if your heart will decay you are given time
of a night and a day
to roam the earth and on it to stay while death with a yellow smile is looking for a way to slaughter your soul
and take it away

while the day is getting less young your soul is fading and ure becoming weaker and while the night is aging you become more terrified of the black seeker don` t try to run don` t try to hide wherever you look death is in that side if you go to the moon or underground somehow, be sure, you will be found and when you are caught and cannot escape you can only at him astonished gape

Tareq Jalabi

Forgotten Lover

You should recognize that a lover here lies he says he wasn't killed that's the truth he denies saying love didn't kill me to himself he lies while covered with mud
like a river he cries Eaten up inside his soul as u went with other guys said coughing all the dust our love will never rise after u sold your love to the first who buys i hope as u realize that true love with me dies you will memorize that look on my eyes
when you cheated on me and when no body cared that me here lies

Guess Who

he is the inspiration to my every creation Concerning my life and education he helps me move every cloud that stands in my way telling me how proud of me, he is every day clouds! i have no more preventing me from flying thanks to my mentor who taught me to keep climbing

Tareq Jalabi

Hallucination

She came to me as a hallucination her beauty was beyond my imagination i fantasized her breath and intonation they were the warmest in God`s nation her brown eyes are innocent killers her lovely lips are life fillers the two swords of her`s are not sinners they sit away like in british dinners when i expressed my admiration she told me i was sweet these words were not of my creation but i saw an angel from head to feet i`ve gained nothing but more exclamation that i couldn`t drink or hardly eat

Tareq Jalabi

His Star

i am sad
i am blue i`ve nothing to live for and nothing else to do but to commit suicide or live my life without you i am nothing but a guy who`s lost in the sky
his star and feels shy he cannot admit
or even deny that life at large
is just a lie
his star wasn`t born and didn`t die

Tareq Jalabi

Humanity

i`m like the undead
shaking my head
all my life
having no drive
i`ve lost faith in humanity coz humans live a tragedy and the ones with big bucks keep them in a hundred locks while humans are dying fishes they are frying drinking ancient wine while others are drying what happened to hearts are they now rock

In the best senario
and with a bit of luck
you will find no mercy and nothing but a block

Tareq Jalabi

I See U Everywhere

i see your face
in every place
while smiling
and when i cry
nothing but your face
i see in the sky
i watch a star
in outer space
it also turns out to be your face
my life is hell
i live it with disgrace dying all night fighting for the light
for the only hope
i can see in sight which is meeting u
that seems so bright stupidly for u i still fight
giving up on u
is what`s right

me i blame
for knowing your name
i feel ashamed
for enduring the pain for living the dream of seeing u again

Tareq Jalabi

I Will Love U Till....

I LOVE U AND THE PAIN
THAT U CAUSE INVAIN
THAT U BROUGHT TO MY HEART AND MY HEART HAD TO OBTAIN U CAN SAY IT AGAIN AND AGAIN FOR LOVING U I AM INSANE BECAUSE, DESPITE ALL THE PAIN WHICH IS IMPOSSIBLE TO EXPLAIN I WILL LOVE U TILL THE TRAIN COMES TO MY SOUL AND BREAK ITS CHAIN TILL MY HEART FEELS NOMORE CHRIST`S PAIN

Iambic Love

I n my soul which is distressed A t all times you have been the best M iracle that happened to me B lessed with it, i hope again i`ll be I who loved you since day one C annot trade you for even the sun

P onders my heart in my chest E verytime i see you in your nest N othing i do then but stop to see T hat bird who once belonged to me A nd write poems not for fun M ad people seldom on words use pun

E nded has my poem but i guessed T o finish it fully shall write the rest E nter the kitchen of of iambic pentameter R eading it, you can, hate the food but not the feeder

Tareq Jalabi

Keep Fighting

as I lie on this cliff pondering all my thoughts knowing that there is a God knowing that there is sin but still I sin hating myself for doing it again everyday wanting to jump off this cliff still I cant its as if theres an unknown force guiding me away still on this cliff thinking about jumping I stare at the stars feeling like a speck of dirt I look off the edge but turn around because thats not who I am Id rather keep fighting than give up on everything knowing giving up will just send me to hell but fighting day by day theres still a slim chance of hope for me

Left Alone

without me you will have nothing but torment and mischief go on and leave me renounce your belief anyway our tree has only one leaf
stolen from heaven by an honest thief but god sent an angel to my way to punish me and take it away i fought him so he made it decay you hadn` t stood by me so together we couldn` t stay

As much as I loved you No one would do anything could be false but my love is true

Love Land

i am living in a land that has only sand
it pulls me down and down it is making me drown i am dying and i have nowhere to stand living in this town
makes you a clown
you will have no dignity and no selfesteem
realizing slowly
its not a nice dream

really what a pity things are not.....the way they seem

Tareq Jalabi

Love?

Love hardly stays
especially these days
Love is so cold
Although it has flames
Have you heard the stories That were told
always be a chicken
And never be bold
Don` t be a toy
Played in its games
Keep taking the bus
Instead of its five-star planes Control your heart
Keep your emotions cooled Don` t fall in love
Don` t be fooled

Tareq Jalabi

Love`s Heat

because of the heat of your love my heart had melt i knew not what`s happening but i knew what i felt i sensed it was meant to be and it was fate
that brought u to me on that specific date i was the fish
and u were the bait
i knew i`ll be hurt
but i could`nt wait i didn`t realize that there was a catch you can`t have an eagle`s egg without getting a scratch the consequence was that for eternity i`ll be damned to have the devil`s worst curse that hatred for me banned and to experience love at first hand or even worse to control love and snatch Venus`s purse

Tareq Jalabi

Maria

a girl called maria which i don` t know
told me to write a poem about her as though her beautiful face
i already saw i wanna ask u
in what law
u give me no ink
and tell me to draw

Mine

i have a poem
her every line starts and ends
with words that are divine her black hair and her white skin
are more beautiful than fatal sin
she is as bright
as sunshine
she is great
she is sublime
whenever she goes into an inn
everybody admires
her sparkling pin
she`s always rising
and has no decline
that is a poem
i can proudly call mine many people asked me why u used the word pin, well i mean by it the piece of jewelry that has diamonds at its both ends.

Tareq Jalabi

My Angelic Drop

angels had to drop of water one drop it left the sky high up and fell gently in my half empty cup she filled it with the happiness that no one can stop water doesn't fall or pop but this was a miracle in my cup so when ur chance comes u should hop to it and never wait for that drop

Tareq Jalabi

No More

i had kept for years waiting for u to call now u r trying to apologize as we met in a mall you ask me if its late no, not at all
now that i have no heart no soul
and that there is no lower place to fall u can whenever u feel like it, call but there is nothing left in me that u haven` t already stole so leave me alone whenever u see me in a mall

Tareq Jalabi

Search For Freedom

i feel so happy
being by your side
whenever near you my smile i couldn` t hide swimming away from you i many times tried but always to you

pulls me the tide

once the whole ocean
i completely dried
it didn` t work coz to you i was tied

another on awave
i took a ride
thinking somewhere else it will me guide

but drove me to you
with a gentle slide
i was shocked and my mouth open wide

i kept holding on till some glide
took me away
and i accordingly died

Tareq Jalabi

She

I`ve never cried until she died
lying in bed
rolling from side to side closing my eyes
i`m nothing but blind
no more rest
no more sleep
my soul is destroyed from surface to deep i`ve never wet the land where i stand

i`ve never dropped a tear in a moment of fear till the time my heart was torn by a spear till the time my guide was no longer near i cried and cried
my face never dried
the only time i cried was when humanity died

Tareq Jalabi

Tears Everywhere

when you were brought to the sky because youre more beautiful its angels started to cry and for taking your soul began to feel sigh
why you took her and left me to dry

i tried to follow her but my hands deny
come and take me i wanna too die
for being alive without love is nothing but a lie tears are everywhere
here and in the sky
over spilled water
we all do cry
but why you took her you knew you will feel sigh if you take me
red no longer will be my eye

Tareq Jalabi

The Muse Of Love Poems

About love i had no clue when to yours my heart flew but after that i knew that love belongs to u all poets your face drew when writing love poems too not knowing about you but few, they didn` t do it as good as i do they imagined you with a beautiful face a calm girl with alot of grace while you are the thunder and its lightning

you are the storm while hard striking

your eyes are the ocean within i` m drowned your lips are King Priam` s treasure that i found to kiss this ultimate pleasure of flesh i would give up a pound i know how you look and of that i am proud knowing we will stay together i sleep sound

Tareq Jalabi

The Way To Eden

under these fancy clothes there was a tired body and a mind with no goals plus a soul that was bloody

my troubled mind went from bad to worse a fall and had none to guide
but my dying soul

live your life like there is no tomorrow just do what you like and you'll never feel sorrow

.....

this advice I've taken and haven't worked for me the adviser was mistaken
'am worse than i used to be

if you want you to mean something, and not to be forgotten think always of helping not of what you've gotten

consider life after death then to heaven may pass before He takes your breath think of Hell and Eden's grass

Tareq Jalabi

Unbreakable Love

People`s words cannot break us apart
they separated our bodies but not our heart love does not whither but glows like art
because of their jealousy they made me depart however, i am with you and of me every part

don`t give up on me now please, stay about keeping living without you i seriously doubt
don`t stay in paradise
and leave me out
don`t listen to them and let us go out

What Is Love

Love is an energy which could not be worn out but it changes through life from artist to art
it is the main reason why a lover has a heart so loving each other again we should start what`s the point of having wheels without a cart they might go on but they will be apart

we have became like the moon and the sun when one of us come
the other is gone
i hate my life that i hope i have a gun
so writing our story
finally will be done
