The lonely wanderer()

I AM USUALLY A LITTLE LESS EXPRESSIVE WHEN IT COMES TO FEELINGS. PEOPLE OFTEN MISTAKE ME TO BE A STONE HEARTED FELLOW. POETRY BRINGS OUT MY FEELINGS THE BEST... AND SO I WRITE MY LOVE FOR SOME SPECIAL PEOPLE.

Coz I Love You

Why do I get mad! ! Simple,
I just feel fear of losing you.
Why do I get sad! ! Simple,
I just feel like seeing you.
Why do I cry! ! Simple,
I just feel I lost you.
Why do I lie! ! Simple,
I just feel, stay it'd make you.
Why do I love you! ! Simple,
Well! ! I just do! Don't i! !
Coz u are just simply you
And I being me...I do love you...

Filthy Fly

Oh...what is this emptiness tats filling my heart!
Tears well up but donno why!
God! Why do I cry!
Why do I torture this butterfly!
I am not even worth a try!
Am just a filthy fly who makes her sad and cry!
Its better for her to, pass by!
Bye! Bye! Butterfly!

Gud Bye My Love

Bye bye, my butterfly
Its time, you learnt to fly.
I am just a passerby,
So, leave me by...my butterfly.... I am not worth this friendly tie..

Lonely Wanderer

I am a lonely wanderer..i wander here and there, in search of a place to fit in.. I talk to everybody i could see...trying to find out where i would feel at home.. Every day and nite, i smile a little, i cry a little.. I make someone laugh a lottle, so that they would like me atleast the size of a pebble.. I have no place to stay and none to call them mine... For i am the lonely wanderer walking along the pavement just like every passerby...

Numbers To See You

I've just crossed...
a million rain drops,
a lakh seconds,
a thousand cars,
a hundred chilling winds...
a few blizzards....
just to see this one special person. :)

The Day I Get To Call You Mine

I would bring down the moon and light the skies bright...i would drain the lakes and fill the seas...i would build a shore for you and me, with all the love in the world...and would break down boulders to build us an isle, just for our one special day... From where on, i get to call you mine...

The Day My Angel Died, Whole World Cried

Have u ever loved some one so much that u are willing to sacrifice anything for them! ! I've been there.. i loved her as she had something no other girl had...the right attitude towards things..just a smile on her face would make me go on for days without eating or sleeping or any care of the world...for she was only in my thoughts and words and nothing else..i did love her with all my heart and soul...its been a while, since she left me and this forsaken world! ! I managed to mend my heart for every beat it beats just reminds me that i have to live this day for tats wat my love would want me to do..the day my gal died..even the gods cried for the world has lost its one true loving soul, the angel did fly away atleast.: ')

The Sky Clears

Finally...the sky clears;
Off...the crush wears;
Eyes...dwells with tears;
Life.., ends the fears;
World...full of sears;
Heart...hurt, though covered in layers;
lust...swooshes away like flyers;
But...&3..here lies, thy love,
Unsullied and overlooked.

U And I Are Never Alike

Feels like I just met you yesterday...but, a year has passed since we became close friends...I saw you smile, saw you cry, saw you flying free just like a butterfly... I was there to share your deepest moment of sorrow, saw your eyes dwell in tears...I held it in my heart...I took a vow to make you smile, I tried hard to make you fly even high...I tried to ease your pain...forgive me, for it was of vain. As days passed by, fate brought us closer...Soon, I fell..fell soooo hard that my heart bounced in love...every time we spoke or every time we met, i'd hope it'd last forever, but it didn't and I would end up in disappointment. I tried expressing my love but couldn't as I feared loosing you completely... everytime I tried, something went wrong... so, I let fate decide mine.. now I realise, she can never be mine for she is a butterfly flying high and i, a poor passerby. I wish you luck, I wish you love, I wish you health and for you to prosper on wealth..I wish for you a partner who never gets mad or turns bad, makes you smile and gives moments to file...and love you all his life... now, I part from your eyes as I travel in your shadow, as I guard you from all the strife, for you my dove, are my life...

Will You?

I feel the need to write
But my mind doesn't feel bright
To weave words into a poetry
And explain my love that's white
Feel my heart's weight
That used to be soo light
Now, it's filled with fears
That I may lose u at first sight
Will you make it right?
