I am a architect that loves the countryside and poems

'Poem' A Life In The Countryside In England

your a countryside person, that live in united kingdom with flat cap hat.

were it is a place of green which is land, with free air, with less people, with posh house.

who work in the mud,
who wins victory,
who has land for making money.

cow who Enjoy life there, farmer who is good for cows Hunter who finds fresh blood.
A person is always like towns & Villages
