Misconception

I have pow, shouldI say it's power
The law of attraction
Do not put my mind off the role of spirituality when my heart is cloudy in pains of the afternoon
I couldn't be happier than a bird
Due to the missing piece of color and sound
Above the sky
Everybird has its place
You can not be a mockingbird and grow to be an eagle
You can only be born an eagle But the nature of humanity Is very important and not rigid.
You can be born a handicap or a disable person
But you can still be a very important person to your generation.
Iam even and you are odd
But you can plus and multiple us to get a figure
So do not be shy of whom you are Because you are a bird or generally an animal.
Even if you are an animal.
What kind, will you be.
Cat, dog, tiger or lion
It's funny, when someone preteach us to be a bird due to The circumstances of life
I will be optimistic about you and your personality Because it's definitely worth it..

Unknown Friend

Unknown friend

The unrelationship between the Sea and the wind

Is like a strange demur within us

An unknown fellow

He has caused sadness and pains

Between them

The end of rancid

And the unperfected smile on our face

Always caused misbelieves among man

As a inconcluded facts

Your relationship has destroyed the love we once share! How can I imagine

The way, you smile's; Sea

Also the way, the flow; Wind

Without knowing what's behind the mask

As the wind blow around me

I feel little terror

As a mighty rocking cliff

In my mind

Because it claims without hmm

As the cloud move AWAY

So your pains and hard broken heart has taking our friends and loved one's

Like an awaiting joy of the sunset couldn't help But instead

It's make us feel brutal and outrageous for love

Oh friend,

In an unknown mash as taking those whom are not colourful to his home

The awareness of his mind has maketh sweet portion's to loose it Taste and demur us into undemulsify act's
