A Secon Chance

I lost the most important thing
My heart soul and every thing I thought I would die with out her near She cut me deeper than the cuts on my wrist

But when things seemed dark And no hope could be seen A friend wisped something In my ear

'Hope is not lost no death is near Her heart will change she will need u near'

I spoke to her the very next day
And we started a gean from the start But I still remember my friends' wise words All in all I got my second chance

Beaten But Not Giving Up

I never new what love is Or even what a true friend was My story started when I was 5 first day at school and I was jumped by some kids I still don't know what I did but so I expected the punches and learn to avoided them but there second weapon cut worse than the first names being called the teaches wouldn't help I think they didn't care I was to kind to ask for help to stubborn to think I was rejected by the people I loved I was pushed a round by friends I had two girls I loved die before I met them and 5 move after I still get teased now at 17 but I don't really care I have a gouges girl friend who loves me I hope the curse doesn't get her too People still beaten me up and I still refuse to tell I have no true friends just ones to lead me to hell I ask those in the same spot to look in there hearts and ask them selves what is right

Darkness And The Light

My life is in darkness except for a light This light is not happiness my family or friends See my life is in darkness no need for light For see my face and u will know why

I'm not disfigured but i will not be seen My left eye is blue and my right is green You should know this is not what i mean

See my problem is that I'm cut too deep Yet some were u will not see The light is my fear and darkness my hope The tears on my face cause me to choke

Two people covered the light
One is dead the other alive
Her death did not heal
But she is still here in the way I feel

The life of the other Brings me cheer
I love them both Life and death the same

The life I now have draws me close But the tears I still have cause me to choke My friend will shield me from the light
But there hearts are transparent
They can't shield my life

Fragile Rose

Love fragile as a rose Hollow sorrow it douse grow Each minute left in life Is equivalent to a another knife
And as the rose withers and dies
So dose the hearts of its admire

In Sorrow by Sylvia Chidi inspired this poem

Heavens Net

Fate is involved
In life the hole way though Heavens net is wide But lets nothing though

We are not in control Death is the price we pay for freedom A little bit of light in the ever lasting dark as the circle begins so shall it end and start again in the last moment what will you do Give your life for someone else or see it the whole way through tony atkins

Monster No One Can See

My life has a secret to keep My world is darkened in me
This monster follows me Cuts me open head to feet

It's a secret too big to keep alone But awaits the death penalty for those who know
This is a burden carried alone There's no way I can take it home

See my secret is loss and can never be gained It is forgotten but will always remain Causes madness in the most sane Brings tears to the bravest man

If I tell you my secret you are sworn to keep It's not something you'll hate to know My secret is I'm a dreamer in disguise My tears fall on the inside
I hate the life I have to lead but it's all I have of me

Well, now you know
And now I'm free
But it's a life that will not escape me

Past And The Present

a girl gave me hope for life and one sweeped me away i know i love one but i hole the other dear not a thing i can do but hope my harte endures cous if things change to much i coud have them both slip away i know the last thing i wrote is a declarashon hope is love and all elce is held dear

Public Shower In The Dark

Happiness is a thing of the past And a hope of tomorrow
My life is in to darkness
But she brings me light

She holds something out to me A shimmering light of comforting Her age and image are not important But the fact she loves me with her whole heart

I won't lose her not now not ever I don't even want to try If she goes I will be lost

Just as a friend once said Love is blind to the biggest thing But love is never fair it's full of pain and heart-ache
When the good moves away

Riddel Of The Night

under a moon as red as blood when u come of age stay in darkness all night long and say this simpel phrase blood of the moon blood of the sun let me be the chosen one the one to bring him back to life the one so shear his tome and if u are out all night he will be brought back dont go to sleep or he will take u first

(if u dont like the results i warnd u only do this if blood must be spilte)

Sad And In Site Happy And Hidden

i know of a world of magic a world of war and hatred where there's no room for peace this world is hidden but lay in plane sight this world caused me darkness and nearly ended my life but i found a voice on the wind one that told me to fly fly away to a world of peace one hidden in side so now i go throw the world full of hate but i still wear a smile this world of happiness lays in every child the world of hate is the world we live and happiness a child's gift when we find who we are we learn this gift again

The Ring

My lover knows I keep this ring for her My love wants to learn to spread its wings
I loved knowing I was in pain But this ring is worth a lot more

It says that I love her for ever It shows the world that it's true It lets me know of the promise I made This ring is worth a lot more

It's fake or home made But its purpose is true
It is to tell the world that what I say is true

tony atkins

The Wind

the wind blows when i call it keeps me warm on a cool day the wind stops when i ask cools me down in the heat the wind is a friend not a tool it helps me as much as i help it it lifts by spiret like a thunderstorm the wind sweeping ofer me like rain hearing voises caryed to me seeing things i shoudent see leting me know my deepest wish the wind gides me throu my day with out a dropp of waste

tony atkins

This Is The Truth I Swere

life and love never be the same like peace and war are entagelt like twine for with out one the other will not egsist no man with out female no light with out dark we were not born of god or develept on land we came from the earth as enagy and developed with wings but as we came to be so did our greed the word that brot us in is plage with vireas and u do nothing but devower it with metal teeth and exsploding gums this world ous us nothing but we owe it our lives can humens be the enegy that saves ther earth or the vires that distrois it when i die my developed enegy will be given to the earth and i will not enter the celestryel river

What I Will Do For You

my love i will do any thing to hold you close to kiss you at least once my love i will never forget you forsake you leave you my love i know they want us to fail our distance is great but my love is strong the first and last thing u are

if you miss me remember what i'll do for you
if you miss me
sleep and dream of me i love you more than life itself and if you have to run i'll be beside you all the way i'll buy you a island a world of your own just say your with me and i'll do any thing for you by shadow angel

this it for my angel the love of my life i know she loves me
