

Poetry Series

Tree Climber

- poems -

Publication Date: 2009

Publisher:
Poemhunter.com - The World's Poetry Archive

Tree Climber()

In The Cave

Oh Dave, oh Dave, oh Dave,
you thought you were so brave, but look at me now, look at me go I'm dancing on your grave.

Tree Climber

Listen To The Music

Listen to the music that the young man plays, Listen to the music that the and let your body sway, Listen and you'll be taken away,
The rhythm, the rhyme, if you have the time,
Listen to the music and you'll know the way!

Tree Climber

What Rhymes With

Oh all of these rhymes
if only I had the time I fell like a clown
I'm really, really down Or maybe I'm a mine
just working for a dime Maybe I'll be crowned or thrown to the ground
It would be prime if only weren't a crime running or walking around or maybe your bound you see rhymes
are like slime
you get sucked in and drown!

Tree Climber

When....

When a friend says she'll not tell a soul
be there
make things ok

When a friend is true zips her lips, and locks them up pinkie out, ready to promise

When she lies tells the people you want to know least crosses her fingers behind her back and say cross my heart (she really crossing yours)

When you can relate to that, welcome to betrayal, welcome to life.

Tree Climber

Why....

Why can't there be love

Death

War

Hate

Why can't there be peace

Guns

Knife

Kill

Why can't we all be one and make the earth THE please

Why.....

Tree Climber