Broken Heart

You and I were the greatest thing
Laughter and smiles is what we would bring
We would talk on the phone, until it was time for bed
Even then I would see you, in my dreams, inside my head

Every time I saw you, I would always smile
You could see a glow in my eyes from miles and miles
Man, I wish I was still holding onto you
But you gotta girl now, so what can I do?

Now when I see you, there's always a frown
Won't you please turn that sad frown upside down?
If you're not happy with this person, then just say goodbye
Because seeing you depressed, brings tears to my eyes

Today I approached you, but you didn't say a word
I still have feelings for you, haven't you heard?
I miss seeing you smile and laugh
Won't you please remember the fun we had?

Holding hands coming from lunch
Wow! I miss you a whole bunch
Just ask my family, you were all I talked about Now all I do is walk around the house and pout

I love hearing your voice; it brings a smile to my face
It's a sound that I shall always embrace
I had no idea I actually felt this way
Please tell me, why does it feel like you're pushing me away?

The reason we broke up, I don't even know why
Just thinking about you now makes me want to cry
It was peer pressure; they said you lied too much
But I would easily take you back with just one touch

The one your with, for you, doesn't even care
That is why right now she gets pretty mean stares Enough about her, she makes me sick
I miss you way more than just a little bit

I need to toughen up; I know we'll always be apart
That is the reason why right now, I have a broken heart

Goodbye

At first when we met
We said hi
Now we're still friends
But we've said goodbye

I gave you a chance
And you rejected
You said it's not good right now
And you stand corrected

You see what you've lost
At least I hope you do
You see what others can have
But not you

I don't mean to sound conceited
Or vain in any way
I'm just merely pointing out
What you had, and threw away

I liked you a lot
I honestly did
But did you feel the same?
Were there feelings you hid?

If you had feelings for me
You didn't show it
Because things are over now
And I didn't know it

If you didn't have feelings
Then why did you say so
When the only person you trust, lies
Then where do you go?

I just wanted to say
Thought you needed to know
These feelings I have Need to be let go

I Love....

I love....

Your eyes and the way they make me melt everytime we stare.

I love....

Your arms and and how they make me fell safe everytime you wrap them around me!

I love....

The sound of your voice and how I get chills allover my body everytime i hear it.

I love....

Your lips and how they make me go weak in the knees everytime you kiss me!

I love....

Your touch and softness of your skin everytime you touch me and hold me!

I love....

The love we make and how everytime you leave me speechless!

I love....

How everything about you feels so right!

I love....

You!

I Will Love You Forever

I love you so deeply,
I love you so much,
I love the sound of your voice,
And the way that we touch.
I love your warm smile,
And the kind, thoughtful way,
The joy that you bring,
To my life everyday.
I love you today,
As I have from the start,
And I'll love you forever,
With all my hart.

Inside

Bottled up inside
Are the words I never said,
The feelings that i hide,
The lines you never read.

You can see it in my eyes
Read it on my face
Trapped inside are lies
Of the past i can't replace.

With memories that linger-
Won't seem to go away
Why can't I be happier?
Today's a brand-new day

Yesterday are over
Even though the hurting's hot
Nothing lasts forever i must cherish what i've got.

Don't take me for granted,
For soon it will be gone-
All you ever wanted of the love you thought you'd won.

The hurt I'm feeling now
Won't disappear overnight,
But some way, some how,
Everything will turn out all right,

No more wishing for the past
It wasn't me to be.
it didn't seem to last,
So I have to set him free.

Life Of A Teenager

Life is full of thrills,
And life can be rough,
Yet life is full of chills,
And life can be tough,
Making decisions,
Fulfilling your dreams,
Choosing your future,
Isn't easy as it seems,
Dealing with pressure,
Dealing with school,
As people criticize you,
They make you look like a fool,
Drama and gossip,
Floating around,
People are talking,
No truth to be found,
Hang out with friends,
So the fun never ends,
Don't drink and drive,
..Maybe then you'll save a life,
Becareful who you trust...
Take a risk if you must,
Share all your laughter
Smile everyday
Forget all your problems
It's better that way,
Just know who you are,
Believe that you can make it
Live your life to the fullest.
And try not to break it.

Love

Love is like a heartache it hurts real bad
it makes me sad
I cry every night

Love isn't what your friends or family think it is what you think Love isn't anyone else's problem but the peoples in love

Love isn't based upon sex
Love is based upon two people who are exactly alike

Who needs money or cars when you have love a relationship isn't perfect it has its good times and its bad times and when you argue you make up no matter how bad it is Cheating is forgivable but if you love the person like you say you do there is no reason to cheat because they are the only person you need.

Love is forever even if you break up if you loved the person when you break up you still will.

Love isn't about age, age is just a number, its about how you treat each other not how old they are

Love hurts and sometimes relationships don't work out and you will cry, but you will find true love one day,

You'll never know when love is going to hit you and when it hits you it will hit hard. Once it hits its hard to get back up again.

Love hurts but it is worth the pain.

My Fellings Into Words!

Putting my felligns into words....
Impossible.
My fellings for you are so....
Unexplaible.

If i could let you see the effect
You hace on me,
You would be blind.

For darkness would fade away.
I am in LOVE.
More in LOVE then i have Ever been.

I love you is alli can say!
But deep in my hart, it says
Much more!

I have dreams, hope, and fanasies,
That can become realities.
With you I'm a new me!

A kind of me that I don't Want to go away!
In these few words I hope
You see how much you mean
To me and how much I care!

My Heart Is Gone

My heart is gone
Because of you
And what you did
That made it break

My heart is gone
It's torn in two
And nothing you can do
Can make it whole

My heart is gone
Because it was broken
From the feelings that were misunderstood
That lead to what you said

My heart is gone
And feels like forever
Like I no longer can love
The same way I used to

My heart is gone
Because of you

My Promise

Things haven't been the same
Since you've been gone.
For a while I wondered How I'd carry on.

The emptiness inside,
It aches all the time.
That is the reason why
I am writing this rhyme.

When I heard the news,
I didn't know what to do.
It happened so suddenly,
It just couldn't be true.

They said you'd passed on,
And you weren't coming home.
You'd gone on to Heaven,
Where your soul could roam.

I cried all day
And I cried all night.
I say I'm okay,
But I'm not quite alright.

How can I pretend
That I'm not still in pain,
And wipe away the tears
That fall like rain?

I'll remember that day,
The day that we met,
And your smiling face
I will never forget.

This is my promise,
A vow I'll keep evermore:
You'll be in my heart
Until I reach Heaven's shores.

My Promise To You

I understand theres alot of sadness that surrounds our word today,
And I here the laughters fading.
I understand your heart has been broken many times.

I can see the pain that hides within.I only want whals best for you! Because I can only do soo much you cry! But i can promise the ocenan nor the Heavens skys.

But I'll do my best tro make you understand that what you mean to me is more than just a friend, it's more like a sister!

But I can't promise you forever and that I'll never die.

But I can promise you one thing, while I'm here I'll never say goodbye!

Sad Peom

I remember a type of quote people used to say
But I never really understood it 'til today
Life will only get harder from here
I think about that almost every time I shed a tear

I look back on the happy years I once had
And I wish for them to come back Oh so bad
Pressure is a big part of teenage lives today
Temptations of sex, drugs, and violence never seem to go away

You never really know which road to choose
It seems which ever way you go, your bound to lose Happiness eventually falls on your lap
Only to look once more and see it gone in a snap

Why does it seem I can't smile like before?
As if the joyous part of me walked right out the door
I never show my true feelings which is why I'm writing this poem
I guess my feelings are personal to me and I'm too embarrassed to show 'em

One day I'll find happiness again
I just have to live my life until then
And while I'm waiting just for that I think I'll give myself a pat on the back

'Cuz I've come this far without giving up completely I'm trying to enjoy life, it's very difficult, believe me
I guess that's the message I'm trying to send out
To keep your head up when giving up is what your thinkin 'bout

Take life's punches right in the face
And you'll see things will come to you at there own pace

Scarred

I'm broken, cut, and bleeding,
On the inside of my heart.
All because of what you done
It really tore me apart.

I try to move on,
I try to get on with my life,
But it seems no matter what I do, I think of you,
And it makes me want to cry.

What you did was very wrong,
It shocked me in the worst possible way.
You being the person you were never would have done the things you did,
Or would have said the things you did say.

It seems so unbelievable,
That you could betray me like this.
I trusted you so much,
You gave me so much happiness and bliss.

My cuts will heal eventually,
They will turn into ugly scars.
All except a few that were left by you,
And they will stay forever on my heart.

Suicide Scars

i look at myself in the mirror wondering.
wondering what happend to the girl i used to be.
wondering why there are scars on my wrist.
why i did this to myself.
then i think back to when my whole world was crashing down.
i seem to realize that these scars are suicide scars.
i start to cry to the fact that i will have these scars for a life time.
i grab my razor put it up to my wrist.
and i start to cut.
i start to cut them suicide cuts all over again.
i cant stop.
but i guess that this will be me forever.
makeing them ugly suicide scars.

Tears

My face stained by tears because of my fears of those I love so dear but in the end they were never really there I lay on the floor

feeling as though the tears will never end and wishing that it wasn't even real I look to the stars tonight

but they aren't the same
I ask myself if I die, would people later cry? or even care?
all those endless nights I've cried now I pull myself off the ground tears mixed with blood falling slowly to the ground too weak to say I am sorry like a foolish child I sat and cried, didn't realize what I had done.

The Most Confusing Word

Hidden among all the words
In the vast vocabulary of everyday
Lies a single, short word
Confusing to everyone in every way

Some people insist they are experts
Knowing everything it entails Others readily deny it and admit to knowing that it fails

Poets old and new alike
Have forever guided its reputation
Telling of the happiness and joy
Or its ever present state of devastation

People view this single term
With their own experience in mind
And come to their own conclusion
But many are viewing it blind

Many people admit to using it loosely
Not fully understanding its heavy weight
Others admit to never saying it
Not willing to suffer an ill fate

As a person stuck in between Looking at it from both sides
I know the feelings of both
And the emotions it provides

As a woman of only 18 years
I can admit and honestly say
That love has eluded me so far
All I can do now is pray

That I will one day learn
What it is like to be Surrounded by this word
From someone who has it for me

To My Friend

Today is a new day
After a stormy night.
Dark clouds still linger
Questions still unasked!

But don't let this day start
With sadness and dread!
Believe in yourself,
And don't allow this day bring
You to cry!

You are not wrong
Your heart in the right place!
It's up to us to face our own Problems!

Believe in yourself,
As I do!
And if clouds should come,
And the rain begin to pour,
You know where to find me.

I'll open the door!
My arms to hold, my ears that Won't judge, and words that won't Allow you to hold a grudge!

Our friendship is special,
But hasn't not been with else
But to clear the day, you need clouds and breeze!
I'm here for you!

I here for what ever you need!
A friendship never to be Broken
And very true!

What You Mean To Me

he says lets take a break but what does a break mean to him how can you act like i'm not there was what i did that bad?
you say we'll be together again
But in my eyes i see hate and in my heart i know you hate me that is the worst feeling, but in a sense i hate you too at the same time i have no idea how i feel about you my feelings have been scattered in my brain giving me a tobbing headack i thought he was different from every other guy but i was very wrong then when i look into his eyes i know he's perfect and what i've been looking for but now i'm slowly losing the man of my life i have hurt him
am i left with no way to fix what i've done sorry won't work this time i've noticed myself i know what he feels i understand and i feel like hell for treating him the way i have i'm truly an ugly person inside and i am ashamed

Worth The Pain

We were best friends from the start
It's been ten or eleven years.
Who would of ever thought
I'd cry so many tears?

The laughter through High School
Always kept me going.
The love between the two of us
Never stopped growing.

Graduation came
And we went our separate ways.
Two years later, we met again...
Oh my, what a day!

I fell for him so hard
That I couldn't find myself.
Lost in so many emotions
I didn't know what I felt.

It was great for a while
Then I started to back away.
I took him for granted
Our relationship began to decay.

After trials of tears and fighting
He decided it would be best,
If we went our separate ways
And put our love to the test.

We tried again to work things out
But it simply didn't work.
And now my pain and selfishness
Continues to stay and lurk.

What if I'd been more open
And cared a little more?
Would he still love me enough
To not walk out the door?

My regret is that I let
Our friendship slip away.
But if I had the chance again,
I'd let him love me anyway.

For if in time we're friends again,
The pain will slowly go.
And the road we took to get us there,
We will surely know...

That it was worth to be loved
And needed at the time,
Because some people go through life
And love they never find.

You Make Me Smile

I don't want to loose you now,
That I've found,
You're the reason why I smile,
Sometimes why I cry

Happy tears,
Of joy, not fear
When you're not around,
My smile fades to a frown,

With you comes the sunshine
I'm smiling all the time,
Just happy that you're here,
With those dimples that you wear.

Damn. I see you and my heart starts to pound Around your finger, you've got me wrapped, wound.
Your loving is prime,
And I mean ALL the time.

So let's get this clear,
I see you, and that smile appears.
You've met your match, now how does that sound?
You've got me going in circles, around and around.

I just smile,
All the while feeling high,
So keep me, hold me near Then I bet you my smile will reappear.
