World In Need

walking down the streets capturing sorrow of the worthy hands a Man dressed in white will make our future bright
'who the Man is? ', quoth I Is he an angel from the sancity of space or is he the imperishible man wondered I the time he arrives everyone is lost in the world of dreams when the world is back to reality he soon vanishes as if there was no body thinking about the man who was He a heavenly voice arrived ' yes it was Me. '
