Alone In The Dark

Darkness is falling all around
There is no place to hide Blackness enfolds me
Closing in around me
I kick and scream
But I know it's no use
I did this myself
Now I can't escape
Crying, screaming, lost hopeless
Why didn't I read the warning signs?
I knew what I was doing
At least I thought I did Not knowing what to do Not knowing where to go Nothing I can hold on to How can I stop this?

Alone In The World

Can you hear my cries for help?
can you see the pain in my eyes?
as i was left alone in the world words will never describe how i felt that day the day you turned to me and demolished my all ready lost soul

Alone in the world
is how you left me so tonight the emo angels will come and take me away from all of the pain you caused so please turn back and say your sorry

Death

as i lie down my head never to wake again the memories of you run through my head once more but now they never shall return again death is now my only option i must now let the memories of my hatred faid away and die alolng with me

Do You Remember

do you remember?
when you said you loved me
do you remember?
the first time i got in to your pants
Do you remember?
the day you walked away

I remember every word you said and every feeling you felt but, why lie to me?
when you know that you still love me

i may have been the akward boy friend but no matter what i will always love you

Love

love is a symbol a symbol of life once found your never lost thyself was once held down by chains and gags but now roam free in this new land in my heart called love

Pain

As the pain comes on and you disappear my thoughts of you are only fears why would you leave me standing here? in the rain so broken and helpless,

My love for you was like the rain it never stops falling so bring on the pain

Sorry Love

Sorry Love, All I Got Left For You Is This Finger

It's quite amusing how you come to me
All wrapped up in issues Tears in your eyes
Telling me you have nowhere else left to go

You say it hurts
It hurts so bad
To have no one care
To have no one understand

I look at you
So helpless
So hopeless
Hope you're helpless
So I can knock you back down again

You sat there and told me
You can't save everyone Not everyone wants to be saved But when you need me the most You expect me to come through Well I have two words for you...

You're right
Who do I think I am?
Jesus?
I didn't come to seek I didn't come to save Let the lost find their own way

Because I'm done
I don't care
I can't fix your problems
So I'll ignore it Like it's not even there

You brought this on yourself
So don't come to me for any help It's like what's Escape The Fate said
There's no sympathy for the dead
I have absolutely no sympathy You're dead to me

Now your tears pour profusely
And the apologies come spilling
"I'm so sorry"
"I didn't mean what I said"
"You were only trying to help"

My eyes remain cold

The World

The world revolves around everyone else,
But never me
The world is always spinning,
So does my head
I never catch a break in this lonely world,
Like a fish can never take break from the water.

The world is full of gossip
That spreads like a virus,
The world is a lonely place
With gun fire, suicide, and fiery tempers.

The world is a beautiful place
With butterflies, forest and beautiful creatures, But how can this be When all we do is hate it.
