Speechless

SPEECHLESS...♦

speechless.....

I always tried, tried to tell you...

My heart is shouting...hear me once...

This is unfair...why r you hurting...

The tragic songs im still singing..

I always made ur heart feel safe..

This is weird you will regret..

All your love is making me feel unreal..

Why did you leave me..in the middle of our walk..

A walk so pleasant..so beautiful..

Even the seasons passed we never stopped...

Today..no some other time...I tried to tell you..

But now im mauled, what hav you done..

The words you have spoke, left me speechless...

Speechless though I have many in my heart...

Your painful words were still echoing...

as the silent waves move the time of ma life..

I always tried, tried to tell you...

My heart is shouting...hear me once...
