I Am The Shadow

You never see me but i see you i'm like a shadow just right in back of you and never notice me around it's like i'm in love with you but you never know so now I'm a shadow with my shadow love and you see me all happy but from inside and i feel like a dark river flows down down down.....

New Me

That girl

you knew is gone

tired of being the sweet girl who ends up hurt

in the end

im never going back to the girl who always said everything was ok

I say enough im tired

nothing is ok tired

of hiding it

I will be strong

show this world

that the sweet girl

is gone forever

this the new me

me don't like it

I don't care
you hurt me
once I survived
but you hurt me
twice and now im dead and a new me was born

Don't like the new me blame yourself for this you caused me so much pain

I couldn't handle but this new me doesn't have a heart i don't have feelings now my heart is cold blooded And that's you to blame for this new me is born and can't go back...
