I Am Hungry

I always feel angry
When no one cares that i am hungry
I jump struggle and scream
To say that i need some chocolate and ice cream

My mother says oh! oh!
My father says no more
My brother says shut up when my voice goes up and up

I haven't got any pocket money
To buy some sweet rings with honey
If they just give me a burgher bun
My face would be bright as a sun

Oh! why they do not care
Even when i broke the chair
At last I do not get any thing
For screaming and yelling
